Codex membranaceus, in quo habentur partes secunda et tertia libri qui dictus est Pantheologus; a Petro quodam, Ecclesiæ (ut ipse scribit) “*sanctæ Trinitatis
“Londoniæ.”* Pars secunda dicitur Salomon, et tertia
Propheta. Fuerunt quidem, ut ex auctoris prologis fatis liquet, duæ aliæ partes. Prima scilicet quæ, David appellata est; et quarta, nullo, quantum video, speciali nomine insignita. Mens auctoris in his nominibus assignandis hoc modo ab ipso explicatur.
“*Prima igitur pars nominatur David, eo quod in ea
“scr. eo) sola verba David exponuntur, cum quibus
“tamen verba aliorum sacrorum librorum enodantur.
“Secundam autem partem Salomonem, et tertiam Pro“phetam nominavimus, (quæ nunc præscriptione
“nominis tui nobilitantur, eo quod in secunda parte
“verba tantum Salomonis et Sapientie, et in tertia “verba tantum prophetarum distinximus. Quarta
“autem pars omnis sacre Scripturæ auctoritates, fer-“monibus et dictaminibus aptiores, quas reliquæ
“partes omiserant sollicitè colligit. Quæ tantâ auc-
“toritatum copiâ superabundat, ut qui sine eâ credit
“se posse verbis auctoritatum copiosum esse se ipsum
“invideat. Valet.”*

Hæc in fine prologi secundæ et tertiæ partis, quas Radulpho Archidiacono Colecestriæ auctor dicat. In Catalogo Parisiensi videri potest Petrus Archidiaconus
Londinensis, qui forsan idem est cum auctore Pantheologi, ut ex similitudine argumenti confirmatur. Notatur enim ibidem “Remediarium converforum, sive Summa theo-“logiæ moralis,” ut opus Petri Londinensis.

A paper book, with the following Title, "a Looking glasse for Looers; Wherein are conteyned two sortes of amorous passions; the one expressing the trewe estate and perturbations of hym that is overgon with love; the other a flatt defyance to love and his lawes." xvi.

The work consists of 78 passions, or chapters, composed of prose & verse, wherein are many imitations of French & Italian poets. Introduced by a "Protrepticon" "Authoris ad libellum suum," in Latin Hexameters. The whole is the work of no mean poet. In his Protrepticon he speaks of a learned Queen, doubtless Elizabeth, & a Patron whose name was Vere, namely the Earl of Oxford.

This Abridgement of Somner's Dictionary seems to have been made by Mr. Wanley between May 3, 1692, & August 31 the same Year. A short note also says, "I allowed myself time to abbreviate it, till January 14, 1692." That is nearly half a year more than he employed. He writes also, "NB. that I have been hindered all whifon week, when I was at Causton, & a fortnight by doing some things for Major Astley, & a week by copying the charters of Kenilworth for & a week by writing some Things for myself in my blew turkey leathered Paper Book, besides several odd days." It is most distinctly written.

1. Trotta, vel potius Trotula, de passionibus mulierum. Tractatus hic, ut et auctoris nomen, in MSS. et libris variè designatur. Fabricius hæc habet. "Trotula, quæ et Erotis dicitur, cujus curandarum ægritudinum muliebrium, ante, in, et post partum liber, extat cum Medicis antiquis Venet apud Aldi filios, 1547. fol. p. 71." In Catal. Reg. Paris describitur ut supra.

Ad finem hæc annotavit vir quidam doctus, qui et alia medica videtur inspexisse.

"Lectori Sam. Kanutus. Perlegi totum hunc tractatum ab ovo ad mala, quem non unius librarii vitio miserè depravatum, additis ad marginem notis, magna ex parte pristinae integritati restitui, quædam obscuriora et quæ lectorem tamen non indoctum remorari possint illustravi, omissis aliquot vel nævis vel nodis, data opera, ne aut plus otioso aut magis perito nihil non relinqueretur explicandum. Cæterum mediæ authorem ætatis fuisse vel hinc constat, quod ex Arabibus nullum, ex Latinis recentioribus solum Cosonem (sic) ac Ferarium agnoscat, Græcis folis, aut Latinis antiquioribus, Hippocrate, Galeno, Oribasio, Paulo, Rufoque contentus. Tu vero quicumque hæc legis paucarum horarum festinum unius semidiei Laborem, boni consule ac vale."

An Italian MS. on vellum. xv.

In the first leaf is written, "Questo libro sichiame Ovidio darte amandi," and the author says

" A molti e difficile la lectura
" Di quel Ovidio l'opra alta e sublima;
" Dipasto piu legieri alchun prochura
" Chome tu vedi in questa terza rima
" Aperto forgeromi translate."

Nevertheless it is no translation, or a very loose & remote one. Towards the end, to Paris, Jason & other worthies, the writer adds David & Solomon. Subjoined is a Canzone morale, beginning "Venete ponzete;" and a short Poem in ottava rima, apparently imperfect, beginning, "Gia le sue chiome d'oro."

W. Tefse, his Verses to Q. Elizabeth, 1582. Beautifully written on vellum, with Arms emblazoned on each Leaf; signed at the end W. Tefse; & a little lower, "Gulielmus Tefseus Composuit, scripsit, et pinxit: An^o Domi 1582." The Verses are addressed to the Queen, & the principal nobles of the Court, & are in Hexastich Stanzas, of four lines rhymed alternately, & a couplet, each. The book at present contains 21 Leaves, but seems originally to have had more. The Arms there blazoned are the Sovereign, the Families of Lincoln, Suffex, Montacute, Essex, Shrewsbury, Warwick, Hursdon, Bedford, Sydney, Worcester, Hastings, Cecil, Gray, Derby, Pembroke, Howard, & one more; in all 18; and as the Knights with the Sovereign are always 26, there are probably 8 leaves wanting. xvi.

An Italian work, by Ruggiero Caetano with this title, written within an engraved border, "Le memorie de l'Anno Santo MDLXXV. celebrato da Clemente X. a la fac. Real. M^{ta} di Giacomo II Re de la Gran Bretagna, Difensore e Propagatore de la fede, descritte in forma di Giornale da l'Abbate Ruggiero Caetano Romano." On Paper. XVII.

The Arms and Mottos of James II. are also added with a pen. Then follows, 2. an engraved head (perhaps Clement X) with a View of the Lateran Palace: 3. a finely engraved portrait of James II. dedicated to him by Jo. Jacobus de Rubeis: 4. a dedication full of high compliments to James, signed by the Abbate Ruggiero Caetano; and 5. another engraved head, which probably represents Caetano. In this form it was intended for publication, as appears evidently by the ensuing address entitled, "Lo Stampatore a chi legge." The whole is very clearly written, and the book, bearing on the Cover the Arms of James II, was doubtless presented to him as it is. In the last page (272) are the following inscriptions and sonnet to the Queen, Maria d'Este, on the birth of her Son in 1688; which proves strongly what hopes were then entertained at the Court of Rome.

"Alle Glorie Immortali
De la Real Maesta
Di MARIA ESTENSE STUARDA
Regina de la Gran Bretagna.
Per il Regio Infante
dato in luce del 1688 in Londra."

"Superne Sfere, or si vi veggio unite,
E ogn' un che sia nel Ciel Pianeta errante
Con influsso benigno, e in un costante,
A scorno di Pluton, in onta à Dite

Veggio Beata l'INNOCENZA mite
Cangiar le mese idee in un' istante
Lieta baciâr al CREATOR le piante,
Render con ciglio umil gratie infinite.

Belli Doni del Ciel, veggio disfatte
Trenta e piu Sette, e d'un CALVIN la sede,
E le Leggi d'un Dio restan' intatte.

Al BRITANNICO Rè nato è l'Erede,
Candide falce, e da sue Poppe il latte
Al BAMBINO REAL doni la FEDE."

This is followed by an Index of names.

[3458—3495 Folio.]

3458.

A folio volume, containing an Italian translation of Poggio's history of Florence (from the original Latin) by his Son Jacopo Poggio. In eight books. This translation was published at Venice in 1476. Fol. The MS. is clearly and beautifully written on Paper. The first leaf, & the initial letters of the books, handsomely ornamented with gold & colours. xv.

3459.

1. The Commedia of Dante complete: with a Commentary subjoined to each Canto. xv.
2. At the end of the Paradiso is placed the general Prologue of Jacopo, the Son of Dante, which occurs also in N^o 3460, and again more distinctly written in 3513. 2.

Num. 3459—3462.

The title, in this place, is thus expressed. "Questo he il prolagho del p^o libro di dante alighieri detto Inferno, il purghatori, e il paradiso, fatto per Jachopo suo figliolo."

3. A sort of Argument to the Inferno, in Verse "Chamino di morte abbreviato Inferno," &c.

4. The same to the Purgatorio. "Chamino di Purgatorio abbreviato."

5. Arguments in Prose to each Canto of the Paradiso.

6. Chazona di Dante. "Ghuai a chi nel tormento." A Paper book, of handsome form, but not very clearly written.

Another Copy of the same work, more clear in Writing & more modern in Orthography. Some introductory Verses are prefixed; the second copy of which is the Prologue of Jacopo, subjoined also to the other MS. As far the 20th Canto of the Inferno, this MS. is adorned with delineations of the Subjects in the margin, but drawn rather in a rude style. xv.

At the end is this Colophon, "Explicit tercia pars comedie Dantis, tractans de paradiso, scripta et finita per me Martinum de bonseignoribus de Archuli laudensis, anno 1469 die xx mensis octobris in die Veneris &c. Deo Gratias Amen." Subjoined is a Copy of Verses, beginning,

"Jo scripsi gia d'amor piu volte rime," in terza rima.

A Paper book, written in a kind of print hand.

3461.

1. A book of Chronology in Italian, from Adam to 1440, with neat drawings of the Creator, Abraham, Moses, &c. This book was intended to be continued, but breaks off abruptly. At the end are some Sketches of an Artist, probably preparatory to designs for pictures. xv.

3486.

John Boccace, his 9 Books of the fall of Princes: translated into English by John Lidgate, Monk of Bury. On vellum. xv.

See N^o. 1245. where another MS. of this work is properly described, with a reference to Laurence's translation (41. B. 10. now N^o 621.) This work of Lydgate's was printed at London by John Wayland in folio. without date. Of the original Latin Work there are several Editions extant. It is in prose, though Lydgate has translated it into Verse. He mentions Laurence at the beginning, but does not say that he translated from his French. Humphrey Duke of Gloucester, he says, commanded him to translate the book of Boccace; & particularly,

"He bade I shoulde in especiall Follow myne Authoure, written as I fynde And for no favour be not parciall."

And at the end of his Prologue

"Upon Bochas ryght thus I will proceede."

Several other MSS. of this work are in this collection. The present is damaged in some places, apparently by damp; and is not quite perfect at the end, finishing abruptly with the 6th stanza of Chap. xxxvi in the ninth Book. So that the remainder of that chapter, with the 37th & 38th is wanting

The French translation by Laurence (N^o 621) is in Prose also; it begins with Chap. 2. of the first book, and ends with Chap. 24. of the ninth; so that the deficiency is very small. That MS. is the same intended to be referred to above, by the old mark, 41 B. 10, which still remains on the first leaf. See also N^o 4197. 4203.

Q. Horatii Flacci Opera. Ars Poetica Epodis et Satiris interponitur. Liber olim Alexandri Striggii Mantuani, membranaceus, et adprimè elegans. xv.

A Collection of miscellaneous Poems, neatly written on paper, as far as 176 pages. The remainder left blank. After page 77, the paging has been inadvertently carried back to 68, which is accordingly marked with an Asterisk, as are the following pages to 78. xvii. Of these poems, many are from the printed works of old poets, as Donne, Cleaveland, Drayton, Carew, &c. At pag. 15. is “Beat on proud billows,”—printed in Percy’s Reliques, Vol. ii. p. 331. 4^{to} Ed. and there said to be traditionally attributed to Sir Roger L’Estrange. The title here is, “M^r Le Strange his Verses in the prison at Linn.”

From page 87. to 98, the greater part are from Habington: thence to 127, and a few afterwards, are principally from Carew. A few are not commonly found in other Collections.

1. H. Earl of Clarendon’s Letter concerning Indulgence to Dissenters; & of K. Charles his disclaiming the power to dispense with penal Laws in matters Ecclesiastical. p. 1. xvii.
2. ————— against the Bp. of Oxford’s Book, entitled Reasons for abrogating the Test impos’d on all members of Parliament. 15.
3. ————— Letter to Dr. Tenison, 9 Apr. 1689; concerning the Bill of Union amongst Protestants. A Paper book. 73.

The Commedia of Dante, elegantly written on vellum, & ornamented. xv.

At the beginning, & in the margins of the first leaves of the Inferno & Paradiso, are copious notes in a modern hand. Some also at the end.

2. Subjoined

Num. 3513—3517.

2. Subjoined to the Commedia, is a Capitolo, written by Jacopo son of Dante.
3. The Life of Dante by Leonardo Aretino, published in several Editions.

Dic̄tys Cretensis, Historia belli Trojani. xv.
Deest Præfatio secunda, quæ spuria habetur ab editoribus. Codex membranaceus.

3515.

A neat paper book, containing:
The Italian Poems of Cesare Marcelli da Fano, written, (as appears by his first Dedication) in the Pontificate of Paul III. that is, between 1534 and 1550.

The second Dedication is addressed to Duke Octavio Farnese. The Contents are,

1. A long Poem on the Succession of Roman Emperors, from Julius Cæsar to Charles 5. in terza Rima, three Verses being allotted to each Emperor.
2. A similar Poem on the Empreßes.
3. Another on the Kings of France, from Pharamond to Henry II. which brings the author down to 1547, & limits the date of the poems to between that and 1550.
4. Delle Lodi della Fatica.
5. Della Pietà di Christo.
6. A Jezu Christo.
7. Capitolo trionfale.
8. Cap^o de l'alma Natura.
9. De gl'infortunii de gl'huomini illustri. 2 parti.
10. Lodi della padella.
11. Lodi del domandare.
12. Stanzi dela Povertà de Cefari Marcelli.

Marcelli complains much of his Poverty. Perhaps he had not talent enough to obtain the rewards allotted to Genius in that age. He does not appear to be mentioned by Crescimbeni.

3516.

Tho. Penfon (Arms-painter) his Progress into Holland, Flanders & France, a^o. 1690: with Remarks. In the beginning is a List of all the Persons to whom it had been lent, from 1691 to 1698.

It appears by his Journal, that Penfon set out on June 30 1687, and returned November 20 the same year. In the latter part he dates by both Styles, the English and Foreign: thus Nov. 3^o.

The 6 Triumphs of Petrarch, divided into a regular succession of Chapters. Written on vellum & ornamented. xv.

1. The "Trionfo d'Amore," in which the usual chapters are thus transposed. 1. 3. 4. 2. (In N^o 3264 they stand 1. 3. 2. 4.)
2. "Trionfo della Castità," entitled "Capitulum quintum."
3. "Trionfo della Morte," with the beginning, consisting of 21 Lines, which in N^o 3264 is entitled, "un altro principio del primo Capitolo della Morte." As that Copy was corrected, professedly, from an original manuscript of Petrarch, it is probable that, after giving out some Copies with this beginning, he substituted for it the three lines which are now in the printed Copies. "Questa legiadra," &c.

This original beginning opens thus,

"Quanta già nell'età matura et acra
Triumpho ornaro il glorioso colle, Quanti prigion passaro per la via strata."
or sacra.

Num. 3517—3521.

and concludes

"Quella per cui ben fare prima mi piacque." The two chapters of this triumph are entitled cap. 6. & 7.

4. "Trionfo della Fama." The first 24 Verses of this Copy differ from the printed Editions, and from that in N^o 3264. They begin.

"Nel core pieno d'amarissima dolcezza," and end,

"Ma qual più presso a gran pena sustina." Instead of these, an equal number are now substituted, beginning "Dapoi che morte, &c."

The three parts of this Triumph are marked Cap. 8.

9. 10. See No. 3567.

5. "Trionfo del Tempo;" marked Cap. 11.

6. "Trionfo della Divinità." Cap. 12.

Pub. Virgilio Maronis Æneidos libri 12: Scripti A^o. 1454. Præmittuntur Epigrammata Ovidii (ut dicuntur) Argumenta scilicet in Æneida. Subjicitur ad finem nota de versu in libro vi.—"Principio cælum ac terras." &c. Codex Chartaceus. xv.

Ruffiæ historia; per Abbatem S. Syriæ & fratres in lingua Ruffica scripta. Imperfecta, ut videtur. xvii.

Inferitur prope finem Charta, in qua scribitur, "Brevarium Historiæ Theodori Twanowitz," in parte averfâ hæc verba, quæ de libro ipso forsitan agunt.

"Written by the Abbot of S. Syria & his Brethren."

"The last chapter wanting is concerning the building of a Church."

"In it is a wonderfull apparition of a pillar of fire reaching up to Heaven."

1. Armes of those of the name of Smith, 18 folios.

2. ——— of Spanish, Irish & Scotts Noblemen, in 21 folios.

3. ——— several Englishmen, mixed. 14 pages.

4. A Book of the invention, nature, & several bearings of Armes, in 53 quarto pages.

5. Another miscellaneous collection of English gentry in 33 pages.

At the beginning is written, "This book is Mr. Kombyes by Aldersgate."

6. A Ballad on the Battle of Flodden Field, with the following title. "Heare is the Famous historie or Songe called Floodan Field, and in it shall declare how while Kinge Henrie the Eight was in France, the King of Scots called James, the fowerth of that name invaided the Realme of England, And how he was incountered with all, att a place called Branton, on Floodan Hill, by the Earle of Surry Live tennant Generall for the Kinge wth his Son Lord Thomas Haworth, the great Admirall of England wth the helpe of dyvers Lords & Knights in the North Countrie, As the Lord Dakers of the North, the Lord Scroope of Bolton, with the most Corragious Knight Sir Edward Standley whoe for his prowis and valliantnes shewed att the said Battell was made Lord Mount Eagle as the sequell declareth."

The ballad consists of nine fits or parts, and occupieth 69 pages of the MS. It is referred to by Mr Ritson in his Volume entitled Ancient Songs p. 116. and it is there reported to have been three times published. "In 1664" he says "was published "A metrical History of the Battle of Flodden," the composition, as it is conjectured, of some North-Country Schoolmaster in the time of Q. Elizabeth. Two different editions of this old piece appeared in the year 1774. One is a small 12^{mo} with the name of J. Benson, Philomath. The other was printed at Berwick, from an old MS. and attended with a number of annotations and historical remarks, with other interesting useful & curious communications, by the Reverend M. Lambe, Vicar of Norham upon Tweed. It was likewise printed, though very incorrectly, by old Gent of York. And there is "he adds," a MS. copy of it in the British Museum (Harl. Lib. 3526)."

7. Ra. Brook's Objections against some of the Armes, given by Dethick, Garter K. at Armes. 8 pages Quarto, with a prefatory address, &c. thus entitled, "To the Right Hon^{ble} the Earle Marshall of England."

An Italian Paraphrase of the 42 first Psalms, by Flaminio. Elegantly written on vellum. xvi.

A Paraphrase & Commentary by M. Ant. Flaminio, was published at Paris in 1549. 16^{mo}.

Num. 3541—3546.

Tractatus Alchemici, Medici, & Chirurgici Rogeri Baconis, Alberti, Raim. Lullii, Johannis Sautre, &c. xiv.

At fol. 82 is “ the use of the two hand sworde,” in English; which is given also in verse, at fol. 84. b.

3543.

A book of Italian history, beginning with the Expulsion of Saviello, a Roman Senator, from the Capitol, by the people, to the crowning of the Emperor Charles V. at Rome. But the book is incomplete, and some of the chapters are strangely transposed, not by misplacing the leaves, but in the writing; as appears by comparing the book with the table of chapters. It is written in a dialect of Italian. The Author says he had composed it also in Latin. “ Dunca per commune utilitate, e diletto, fo questa opera vurgare: benche io l'haia ia fatta Latina, co 'un Latino moito legante: ma l'opera no' è tanto ordinata, ne tanto copiosa come questa.” The Author professes to have been an eye witness of what he relates, & therefore deserves the more attention. Written on Paper, 302 pages.

The 17th (p. 164.) and many other chapters are wanting. Chapter 27 occurs at p. 234. Chap. 26 after it at 273, & Chap. 23 later than either at p. 293. xv.

Annals of Ireland, from the year 1594 to 1613. Running title “ Chronicles of Elizabeth Queene of Ireland”—“ Chronicles of James King, &c.” They are digested into Annals, & begin abruptly, with reference in the first page to former parts of the work.

It does not appear by whom these annals were compiled, unless the following inscription, on the last leaf but one, bears any reference to the whole book, which is doubtful.

“ Certayne Oppositions whear in the Lls. Knights, Cytizens and Burgeffis recusants against the Lo. Dep. and his pceedings (in his ma^{ty} behalfe) to the late High Courte of Pimente.

Collected and gathered by William Farmer Chyrurgian: and are sett downe in this manefcripte onely to the vewe of the righte honorable the Lord Chichester, his Highnes Deputye generall in Ireland.”

Legendarium Sanctorum. A Thoma Apostolo ad Pelagium: foliis 370. xv.

Codex membranaceus, variis manibus exaratus.

1. “ Historia delle Famiglie antiche e nobili Romane.” xviii.

The families whose histories are recorded, are the following. Orfini, Colonna, Savelli, Conti, Pierleoni, Cesarini, Cesi, Anguillari, Gaetani, Mattei, Sforza, These are the ancient families. Then follow the families raised by the Popes, and naturalized in Rome. “ Ordine delle famiglie alzate da Pontefici, e fatte Romane.” These are Farnese, Bonella, Buoncompagni, Peretta, Aldobrandina, Borghese, Ludovisia, Barberina, Pamfilia, Chigi, Rospigliosi, Altieri, Odescalchi. Here ends the account of particular families; the arms of each being well blazoned on a separate leaf & prefixed to the family. What follows is more general, and has this title.

“ Historia,

Num. 3546—3550.

"Historia, et origine delle nobili Famiglie d'Italia, divise in Provincie, Citta, Terre, e Castella."

The Book is neatly written on Paper, and was evidently drawn up about 1687, (the date of 1686 occurs in the book) certainly before the Death of Innocent XI in 1689) whose family is the last mentioned, (Odescalchi): and in that chapter he is said to be living, at the age of 76. This would lead to the exact date of the book, if necessary. See N° 3562.

2. Breviarium Justi Lipsii, de re nummaria." Tractatus hic, qui Lipsianam indolem satis spirat, inter Lipsii Opera non editus est; et est forsitan omnino ineditus. Constat quinque capitulis, quorum titulos hic adponimus.

1. "Quid nummus, pecunia, moneta, quando et a quibus inventa. 2. Varietas in materie nummorum, aliquid de luteo, scorteo, ferreo, plumbeo, nummo dictum. 3. De zero nummo, quotuplex et quanti fuerit. 4. De argenteo nummo; quotuplex numeratio et æstimatio. 5. De aureo nummo." Perutilis videtur hic tractatus. Extat in operibus Lipsii tractatus de pecunia veterum Romanorum, sed omnino diversus.

Libellus chartaceus.

"Ordine et Regola della Compagna di S. Maria della Piata, di Fiorenza." Beautifully written on vellum, & adorned with gold & colours: with a Portrait of a Pope, probably Nicholas V. in the first leaf. xvi.

3548.

"Diario delle Rivoluzione di Messina."

This was the Revolution in 1674 when the Messinese endeavoured to throw off the Yoke of Spain, and called in the French. Louis XIV. gave up the Contest early in 1676.

This narration commences in June 1674, and is continued to the 30th of October 1675. It appears to be written in elegant Italian. See a French work on the same subject N° 4454. and Letters relating to it, 4516 & 17.

A History of Venice, in Italian, and apparently the Venetian dialect. The author passes rapidly over the early history of the Country & begins, in the second leaf, with Paulo, the first Doge. It is continued to 1439. xv.

This MS. is fairly written on Paper, but with many contractions. Spaces are left for the illumination of initial Letters, but no illumination is completed.

"Aviso piacevole dato alla bella Italia da un Nobile Giovane Francese, sopra la mentita data dal Serenissimo Re di Navarra al papa Sesto V."

This is a humorous piece, on the Excommunication of Henry IV of France, by Sixtus V. pag. 1—17. At page 18, occurs the following title. "Il naturale e vivo ritratto del papa, e di tutta la Corte Ecclesiastica papalesca, cavato dal Antichità, come si ritrova nelli scritti di Dante, del Petrarca, e dal Boccaccio, che sono i tre principali lumi della lingua volgare Italiana."

These are Passages against the Pope, & papal Court, extracted from Dante, Petrarch & Boccaccio. They are followed by 51 Sonnets, attributed (perhaps jocularly) to Boccaccio; and at the end the first title is recapitulated "Finisce il piacevole avifo," &c. xvi.

Num. 3551—3553.

Platonis Phædo per Leonardum Aretinum in Latinum conversus. Præmittitur Epistola Aretini ad Nicolaum Nicoli, et Dedicatio ad Papam Innocentem VII. Codex bene scriptus, membranaceus. xv.

Sonetti e Canzoni di Francesco Petrarca. XV.

"Jacobus Maria de Mannellis scripsit, a^o. 1471."

Written on Vellum.

At the end of this MS. is a modern remark, suggesting that it must have been written while the author was alive; but this is evidently erroneous, the date being 1471, as set down in the Catalogue, and not 1371, as that writer had supposed.

[3604—3624. Folio.]

Accompts of eight Receivers of the Rents of the Governor & Company of the New River, from the Year 1670 to 1683. xvii.
A thin folio, loosely but clearly written.

Twelve volumes of monumental inscriptions, from the year 1400 to the year 1716, collected from various churches in England, by John Le Neve Gent. whose arms are prefixed to each volume, with several very appropriate mottoes, on the opposite leaves. At the end of each volume is an excellent alphabetical index, with the dates of the inscriptions, opposite to the names of the persons. xviii.

The whole collection is in high preservation, and to the last volume is prefixed a table of the marks by which the communications of all the authors friends are distinguished. These contributors are, 1. Peter Le Neve, Norroy K. of Arms. 2. M^r Stanton, a Stonecutter. 3. The Rev. & learned Tho. Baker, of S^t John's Coll. Camb. 4. The compiler's brother-in-law, M^r L. n. Boughton, of York. 5. M^r Mansell. 6. The Bishop of the Diocese. 7. M^r Ja^s Martin, of New Coll. Oxon. 8. Rev. Charles Thayer. 9. M^r Handy, a Stonecutter. 10. M^r Bird, D^o. 11. M^r Ben. Lamb. Verger of S^t George's chapel Windsor. 12. The Rev. Hugh Todd. DD. Preb. of Carlisle. 13. M^r Palmer, a Stonecutter. 14. M^r John Bowles, Public Librarian, Oxford. 15. M^r Richard Rawlinson M.A. & F.R.S. of S^t John's Coll. Oxford. 16. M^r John Warburton, of Hexham in Northumb. The Stonecutters appear to have communicated the inscriptions they had themselves set up.

3617—3624.

Eight Volumes, containing A List of all the Churches in England, their Value in the Kings Books, & Tenths: taken from Ecton's Liber Valorum by John le Neve.

He began this Work a^o 1714; designing to add the Patrons Names, & the Monumental Inscriptions, as appears by those titles on the back and top of each Page, all of which are perfect, with an alphabetical Index of Parishes at the end.

An Obituary, by John Le Neve: with an account of several persons in England; from the year 1678 to 1706. He mentions his "honour'd Father," John Le Neve of Great Russell Street Bloomsbury, as dying July 20, 1693, & buried in Westminster Abbey. xviii.

This biographical Volume is thinly written, but in good preservation; & has an alphabetical list of the names mentioned in it.

“ The Art of Latin Grammar delivered for the more easy attaining the same, so farre as seemeth necessary, in English. In precepts more brieve and certaine, with clearer Method than hitherto By J. H. M.D.”

This J. H., at the end of the dedication, which is addressed to the Earl of Surrey, in Latin, stands more at length, “ J. Hawkins.” A Physician of the name of John Hawkins published a tract on Latin particles in 1635. 8^o. In his address to the reader he says that he had previously published a Syntax, which had been much commended.

This copy is most fairly written, evidently for the press. In the second leaf is an emblematical Engraving, with a Copy of English verses subjoined, in explanation of it. xvii.

A curious book on plants, called in the former Edition of the Catalogue, "Peutingerorum Liber botanicus," but on what authority does not appear. It consists of five parts:

1. First, a complete alphabet of Plants, in the order of the Italian names. The plants distinctly drawn in ink, & coloured; with German, & sometimes Latin names subjoined. This part consists of 80 leaves, in tens, distinguished by the eight first Letters of the Alphabet; the five first marked, the five next blank, as in printed books. In many places the Author has delineated the legendary history, supposed to illustrate the nature of the Plants. xvii.

2. A Corresponding description of the Plants, in Italian, by John Cardamosto.

3. An account of foods of all kinds, by the same, but not in alphabetical order.

4. An account of poisons and their remedies.

5. An account of Stones in alphabetical order, ending abruptly with "Cristalo." By the beginning of this part, it appears that these last were four books of one work by Cardamosto. The whole written, & drawn, on Paper.

4. Scotorum Regum Ordo, Series, & Successio. 452.

Such are the number of pages marked in this folio Volume, but from 377 to 406 are torn out, & the remainder have been bound inverted: There are besides some letters & other papers bound in, & a good Index at the end.

A folio paper volume, containing the following Articles.

1. A tract clearly written, in an old hand: of which this title is given in the first leaf of the book, "A transcript of several antient Records concerning Yorkshire." It is extracted from Doomsday book, the Red book of the Exchequer, &c. and contains 29 written leaves.

2. Very fairly written, "England's pinomis," by John Selden Esq. In ten chapters, with a title to each. On 52 leaves. xvii.

3. A very curious tract, dated at the end, 1585, and most fairly written, in common & old English text hand. The general title written in the text hand is this: xvi.

"A Booke conteyning the maner & order of a Watche to be used in the Cittie of London upon the even, at Night of Saint John Baptist and Saint Peter as in tyme past hath bene accustomed."

Then follows a table of the Wards, to which this title is prefixed;

"Here followeth a table wherein is set downe the division of the Wardes & Precinkes of the Cittie of London, with a declaration of the number of Souldiers & Weapon Wiffers & Constables to be provyded for the furnytur of a Marchinge Watche as by the same shall appeare." i.

After the table is this Account.

"As by the Table before written is expressed in brief the number of men & weapon to be prepared for the Marchinge Watche: So is here also shewed the Manner of Armour & Arminge of the saide men, together with the rest of the furnytur aperteyninge, which men to be sett forth by the wealthyest Commoners of every Pre-sinke & Warde, & to be appoynted thereunro by the direction of the Aldermen of the saide Wardes & their debuts."

4. "Souldiers 408 weaponed with callyvers & the furnytur thereof as flaske, touchbox, match, powder, morrion, cote of male, sworde, daggar, & clenlye hose, & for defaulte of cote of male, some clenlye Jerkine, with flevs of male, & that their morrions be made fast under their chynnes soldierlike."

"Bowemen 312, with bowes & sheffes of arrowes covered with red leather, swordes, daggers, sculles in red scottishe capps: their armore to be brigantynes or Jacks covered with black fustian, & clenlye hose."

"Pykes 408 talle men armed in bright corflets, burganetts, swordes, daggars, & clenlye hose, the tacies of their

"Halberders 72 armed in bright corflets, fayer burganetts, swordes daggars, & clenlye hose, their tacies and burganetts to be made fast as aforefaide." 2. b.

Then follow the proper provisions to be made for the Watch, 1. by the 26 Wards, 2. by the chamber. 3. by the maior & shreves. 4. by the d. Mayor, "in his own person, to be in comely apparylle & well mounted on horseback." "The sworde bearer in fayer Armor with faier baces also well mounted."—"Grave personages to tende & waite upon the Ld. Mayor, & to present the Aldermen." 5. b.

"A computatōn of the number of corflets, & cressett fighte for the service of the standinge Watche." 10.

"The conductiō. Th'office or dutye of him that shall leade or conducte the Watche through the Cittye in the right Course." 14. b.

"The order of the Martche," &c. from fol. 15. to the end. In all, 19 leaves.

“A Description of the Honor of Windsor, viz. of the Castle, Foreste, Walkes, Parkes, Rayles, Lodge, Townes, Parishes, Hamletts, Houfes of note, Woodes, Rivers, Brooks, Bridges, Hills, Highwaies, and all other things memorable, within, or belonging unto the saide Honor, and the Liberties of the same lying within, & extending into the Counties of Barke, Surrey, and Buckingham. Taken and performed by the perambulation, view and delineation of John Norden in Anno 1607. Suavis post laborem finis.” xvii.

On the other side of this leaf are the Royal Arms, & Supporters, &c. of K. James, richly coloured, facing which is a dedication to him. Then follows “A catalogue of the Tables or Mapps as they are placed in this booke,” viz. 10 in Berks, 5 in Surrey, & 2 in Bucks.

The 1st. is a large folding sheet, containing a full bird's eye View of the whole Castle, Chapel, &c. very minutely & well delineated & richly coloured. The following Title is prefixed to it:

“Table I. In this table is contained an ample and trew description of your Ma^{ty} Castle of Windesor, the Chappell, and all the material things thereof, as far as by a topographical delineation can be expressed.”

This is followed by a well written and concise History, &c. of the same.

Table II. The Foreste with the several walkes, names of the Keepers & numbers of Deer, &c. and an Alphabetical Table of particulars referring to the Map by letters & figures, &c.

Table III. Containeth a park conjoining the Castle, called the Little Park, the contents of which are described, &c.

Table IV. Comprehends the Great Park 10½ mile in circuit, & 3650 Acres, &c.

Table V. The Moat Parke, &c. as described.

Table VI. Sunninge Hill Park, &c.

1. Quinti Julii Hilarionis, five Hilariani, libellus Chronologicus, De duratione mundi five de Cursu temporum. (De quo vide Fabric. Bibl. Med. et inf. Lat. Lib. 8. sub Hilariano.) Scripsit Auctor circa A.D. 397. xiii.
 2. Chronicon vetus et semibarbarum, ab auctore gignoto Gallo, in tribus libris, ex Hieronymo, Idacio, Isidoro, et Gregorio Turonensi Episcopo, compilatum. vid. præfat. lib. 3.
- Auctor ipse styli sui rusticitatem sæpe agnoscit; et præfationem libri secundi sic orditur. "Decedente atque immo potius pereunte ab urbibus gallianis liberalium cultura literarum." &c. Titulus hujusce libri his verbis, quod mireris, conceptus est. "Incipiunt capitula libri quod est excarsum (i. e. excerptum) de Chronica Grecum Epif. Thoronensis." Deductum est Chronicon usque ad annum primum Caroli magni et Carlomanni. Scil. 768.
- Codex membranaceus, vetus, sed scriptura satis clara. Non multæ elegantie, sed qui curiosus potest in pretio esse; et forte utilitatem nonnullam, in rebus saltem Chronologicis, præ se ferat.

1. Jordani Rufi de Calabria, militis et familiaris Frederici 2di Imperatoris de Equis liber, sex capitulis comprehensus. i.

 3. Liber anonymus, ut videtur, de equis; in tres partes divisus, quarum iterum in partes quatuor. 20.
 4. Errelii ad Basim, de curatione equorum liber, e Græco in Latinum translatus. 41. b.
 5. Liber Marefcalciæ, in capita 50 divisus; codex autem ad caput 33^m abruptus. 52. b.
- Codex membranaceus, satis bonus. Constat foliis omnino 69.

- Codex membranaceus, scripturæ grandioris, et facillioris; ita tamen ut vetustatem satis sparet, in quo continentur; xii.
1. Galfridi Monumetensis Historia Britonum, cum prologo auctoris recentioris ad hunc ipsum codicem accommodato. Interpolantur, post primum folium, quinque folia ex historia nonnulla pontificum desumpta; desideratur igitur initium historie Galfridi, quæ ad fol. 7. incipit, ad hæc verba. "in multa frusta contritus est. Dato igitur in satis Bladud;" scil. ad finem 14ⁱ et initium 15ⁱ Capitis libri primis. Ubi notandum est pro "dado" (quod in Cod. bono ad num. 225 etiam scribitur) esse in edd. "Concedente."

Inter folium 14 et 15 occurrit hiatus maximus. scil. à cap. 18. Lib. 1. à verbis "a tempore atavorum reservatus," usque ad cap. 5. Libri 5. ad verba "gravarentur. Lavabant nempe lapides." Nec, in hoc loco, textus ultra duo folia seriatim procedit; postea omnia ita permixta et confusa, ut in Codice notari potius quam in Catalogo describi possint. Notata ergo invenientur, meâ manu, juxta Editionem Badii. A.D. 1507. Ad folium 21, novus ordo incipit, a verbis "mittebat. Arridebat ei frequentiter." (Ed. multotiens) in Cap. secundo Libri sexti.

Inde, usque ad finem Historiæ, codex perfectus est; nisi quod a lectionibus Edd^m frequenter, et plerumque, ut videtur perversè, discedat. Codex forsan auctoritatis non multæ, sed dignus tamen qui a novo Editore inspicatur.

2. "Mappa Mundi" five descriptio universis orbis. 55. ad 68.

3. Fragmentum Legendæ alicujus, quatuor folia occupans. a 69. ad 72.
4. Chronica Trevirorum: ex Casaris Commentariis de Bello Gallico et aliis historiis compilata. 73. ad 100.
5. De dedicatione Templi per Salomonem, et ejus poenitentia. 101. ad 104.

A prologo, et carminibus Leoninis, in folio primo codicis hujus apparet, tres solummodò libros ab initio habuisse. Scilicet, Historiam Britonum; Mappam mundi, ut vocatur; et chronica Trevirorum. Tandem verò multa ex eo amissa, et multa perperam illata: ut quinque folia ex historia pontificum, Fragmentum Legendæ, et res ad Salomonem pertinentes.

Conferendus est codex cum num. 225, qui antiquior, et certe multo perfectior.

Liber Job: cum Glossa. Codex membranaceus. xiii.

30 to 33. Others in Latin, by the same, on the same, &c.

34-5. Two very friendly ones in English, from the same, wishing to visit the Cotton Library, & about a transcript transcript out of Wanley's specimen of the Dano-Sax. interlineary version, &c. 1697.

Num. 3781.

36-7. From the same, about his former interest with a great Bp. Dr. S. of the same temper with that learned & excellent Prelate. The Dr. had the same design as Wanley, & shewed what he had written in his Preface to the Cottonian Library.

Extremely pleased with W's derivation of the Gothick Alphabet, & subscribes to it in every thing, &c.

38. From the same, calling W' his dear and honored Friend, & thanking him, inter alia, for Bernardo Aldrete, & the deduction of the Runick Alphabet.

Description of the Majusculæ, & Minusculæ, & the b or vita, for a plate to be engraved from, &c.

39 to 46. From the same, on the same subjects, &c. 1698.

47. About Wanley's pressures, &c. with good advice, &c. about his taking the Under Library Keeper's place, &c.

48. A very friendly & sensible letter, about Wanley's intended proposals of Marriage to his cousin of good fortune, &c. that the Master of University Coll. probably has taken care that he should be a fellow of Worc. Coll. &c.

49-50. From the same on the same Subject, & on enquiry finds Mr. Philip's estate when he died to be worth about 2500 l. as appears from his will, which his son rather improved than wasted, &c; so that his sister will have all, &c. but Wanley doubtful of success, as they object to his want of Estate, &c. his being her cousin German no objection in Casuistry, &c. 1698-9.

51. A few lines from the same, going to Oxford.

52. A letter of Instructions & advice from the same, on Wy. going for Cambridge. About the Title & price of his book, &c. Wanley's specimens to be shewn there, &c. to direct for Dr. Hickes, at the next house beyond the furthest lamp towards the fields in Kings Street Bloomsbury, 1699.

53-4. From the same, to H. Wanley at Bennett College Camb. about Benedictiones Episcopales, Textus Rossensis, the Saxon Menologium, the same as in the Cotton Library, &c. Mr. Chamberlain's friendship, his work to have specimens of hands, particularly from Welsh, Irish, Scottish, & Cornish MSS. &c.

55-6-7-8-9. From the same to the same, at Mrs. Ray's house near Trin. Col. Camb. about the mixture of Saxon & Latin Adonicks.

A Saxon Calendar from the menologies to be well considered, some of them being stuffed with particular Saints, besides Legendary ones, as in Bennet Coll. Library; sends him 5 l. more to supply his wants, with advice to husband it well, &c. and were he in the world as formerly, Wanley had never drudged so long in the Bodleian, &c. Glad has finished at Ben Coll. W. wishes for a specimen of the Cod. Bezae, but draught of the Monastery best let alone, &c. 1699.

60. From the same to the same, about borrowing him the old Lat. English MS. dictionary of King's Coll. Mr. Benzelius, &c. the Glastonbury Catal. Francick Poetry, Edwin's picture, &c. Glad he is to have a specimen of the characters of the Cod. Arg. and of the Canon of Euseb. not even mentioned by Junius.

61. 2. 3. 4. From the same at University Coll. Oxford, 1699, about his being the fittest man in the world to take a Catalogue of the MSS. &c. MS. in Mr. Thaites' hands by the Name of Liber Confutus; Egberts penitential, &c.

65. 6. 7. 8. 9. From the same, about a Collection of MSS. Saxon or Norman Saxons, &c. The discovery of the original of Apollonius of Tyre, a great ornament to his (Dr. H's) Catalogue, which owes all its improvements, &c. to Wanley.

Num. 3781.

70. From the same, to the Rev. Dr. Arthur Charlett Master of University Coll. about Wanley's being denied to come for 6 weeks to take the Catal. of the Saxon MSS. in the Cotton Library, in order to make his (Dr. H's) uniform & most acceptable to the learned world, no one hand for many reasons being comparable to Mr. Wanley's.

71. From the same to Mr. Elstob fellow of University Coll. upon the same Subject, & the Bp. of Lich. &c. using their interest 1700.

72. 3. 4. From the same to Wanley, about Mr. Chamberlain's house Petty France, &c. 1700, about the Vicech. & Curators complying with his request.

75. From the same to the same, at Sir John Cotton's Library, in Westminster 1700, about his anxiety to hear that he is preparing for the prefs, &c.

76-7-8-9-80. From the same, about Mr. Thwaites, &c. Sheets to be brought for prefs. The Alphabet for Dr. Sloan, &c. Cronicon Sax.-Badonach's will, out of the book of Charters, &c.

81. to 100. Other short ones from the same, 1700-1, about their meeting at the Cotton Library; talked to Ld. Somers about him & the Catalogue, &c. a paper prepared for Dr. Sloan, &c. So dunn'd for his book that he is quite uneasy. In Wilts. Glouc. &c. several have called back their Subscriptions. Prefs now stands for want of Copy. A Picture bought, &c. Hen. II. Charter to be sent, &c. and the Dedication to the Prince. Selden's book is Mare Clusum, &c.

101 to 120. Small letters from the same, on similar subjects, less important. W. Conq. Charter; Bp. of Ely's MSS. Cotton Cat. & King's Library Cat. &c.

Don Morosini, &c. recommends Wanley to Ld. Weymouth with his book of specimens, &c. and if encouraged would go to Holland, France, & Sweden, &c.

121. to 130. Others about delay for Prefs, Charter of H. II. Saxon Coins, Engraving arms and dedication to Robert Harley Esq. 400 l. in debt to the Stationer, &c. angry again with Wanley about Mr. Thwaites's prefs waiting, &c.

131 to 140. From the same, about the same subjects, the Dean of Yt Church can procure the use of the Ensham Register, kept in their Treasury, &c. Mr. Grabe requests W' to compare his Copy with the original of the Alexandrian MS. Dr. Smith has talked many years of putting out that Copy of the Old Testament himself, &c. 1705.

141 to 160. Other trifling ones from the same, about books, &c. is told by Wanley's friends of his marriage, which he takes unfriendly not to disclose it himself, &c. A rare book not mentioned by Dr. Cave nor Dr. Dupin.

161. From the same, about his having got his Sax. MSS. together, at the service of Mr. Secretary, &c.

The Copy of the Cod. Wigorn. above half collated with the original, and that of the Harmony of the Gospels in Francick, carefully collated with Caligula A. 7. 1. in the Cotton Library, &c. 1707.

162. Acquaints him that it was the fault of his Colleague Mr. Thorp, that his name was not engraved as delineator of the Alphabets in the last R. S. Transactions. Tho' he may be glad of it, as the letter to which they belong is so false printed, that it is a disgrace both to himself & Dr. Sloan, & would have given 10 l. it had not been printed.

165-6. From the same, about a German Gent. Mr. Holling, bringing him a letter from a Professor at Heolmsfad, in the Dominion of the Duke of Wolfenbottle, &c. An Estimate of his Study, &c. 1713.

167. From Mr. James Hill of Hereford 1719-20.

168 to 170. From Mr. Tho. Hill, about having got the head of Paracelsus, with the head of Rubens to Wimple, &c. 1717.

171. From

Num. 3781.

171. From Mr. James Hill, about Roman Antiquities, Medals, &c. found at St. Leonard's hill near Windsor, &c.
- 172-3. From the above Mr. Tho. Hill the painter about his own Picture which he presented to Ld. Harley 1718, &c.
174. From Dr. Humph. Hody, Chaplain to the Archbp. of Canterbury, Lambeth 1699. about Boxhornius, and Nich. de Lyra, published 1500, with an Account of books published in Italy before that time. Books in Bodleian Catal. &c. printed 1494, &c.
175. From Mr. T. Holder 1716 7.
- 176-7. From the Rev. Anthony Holbrook, Rector of Little Waltham near Chelmsford, Essex, 1709, about Mr. Ousley's MS. Mr. Jekyll of Castle Hendingham, grandson of the industrious Antiquary of that name, who made a large collection before the Civil Wars; cannot serve Mr. Harley in the MS.
178. From Mr. Holman of Halstead, to the Honble John Morley, 1713, about Wanley's great skill, &c. in antient Records, or would not otherwise be employed in such a Province by one of the greatest Genius's of the Age, being himself then writing the History of Hinckford Hundred; no doubt so noble a Collection as Lord Oxford's must afford something for his design. Several Deeds very old among Mr. Kemp's writings, &c.
179. From the same to Wanley, 1722, about some places in Essex noticed in Doomsday. An endless work to write the Antiquities of a large County, & if he had foreseen the difficulties should not have attempted it, &c.
180. From the same, about his having been several Journeys in this County & large collections of the charitable donations in each parish, &c. also relating to the site of Lordships, &c.
181. From the same, about sending by his neighbour Mr. Morley several original Charters (in two boxes) of the Religious Houses of Leighes, Prittlewell, Bileigh, Dunmow, Thetford, the Holy Trinity in Ipswich, Woodbridge, Tinterne, & St. Edmundsbury, &c. thanks Wanley for the Instructions received from him relating to his History of Essex, &c. In a little time shall send more Charters.
182. From the same, about his affliction with the Gout, having some time interrupted his Historical Studies, but now sends a sketch for describing Essex, for his corrections, &c. Thinks the whole History may be comprized in a Vol. less than Camden's Britannia, which will not be large considering the extent of the County.
183. From Geo. Holmes 1717, about a curious book, & all the noble encouragers of Antiquities, &c.
184. A long & neatly written letter in Greek, from George Homer to Wanley, dated Smyrna 1713, about books which he wants, as specified by Wanley on the back.
185. From Jonath. Hooker, about medals for Ld. Harley 1716.
186. From Ralph Hope 1698, about an old Chaucer which Wanley had of him at Coventry, &c. Dr. Charlott; the Czar, &c.
187. From Dr. Geo. Hooper, Dean of Canterbury 1701.
188. From Dr. Wm. Hopkins late Prebendary of Worcester 1698, about old Charters, & other MSS. &c. Dr. Sykes, &c.
189. From Mons. Hopman Resident of the Duke of Holstein, Smyrna Coffee House 1721, very desirous of the honour of Wanley's acquaintance, &c.
190. From Dr. Hoy, Kingston, Jamaica, 1711, congratulating him upon the great honor he has to be in the favour of the Ld. H. Treasurer, who will daily distinguish his great learning and merit; also about arrears due to him when he left Eng. 1769, as part of the Salary of the Professorship in Oxford at 40 L. per Ann.

Num. 3781.

191. From Dr. Hudson University Coll. Oxf. 1701, about his entrance upon his Office, that he first looked into the book of benefactors to supply what were wanting, & discovered no mention of Dr. Sloane, to whom the University will give some public testimony of respect.
192. From the same, Ap. 1702, about Wanley's collating for him the MS. Pliny in Gresham College. They cannot find a great many of Dr. Bernard's MSS. & printed books, which were entered in a folio paper book, &c. the Appendix will be ready for Press by Michaelmas next if the Curators think fit, &c.
193. From the same, about the above books which he supposed lost, but Wanley directs him how to find them, as appears by his note to this letter, saying, "why should he desire to be Library-keeper, so long, & yet suffer such a parcel to lie all the while under his nose, &c."
194. From the same 1703, about the collation of a Lactantius in the Cottonian Library; sorry he thinks to publish the remains of Sr. Tho. Bodley; but Wanley denies ever having such a thought, in a note.
- 195-6. From the same, dated Bodl. Lib. 1703, enquiring if he ever met with any Mozarabick Liturgies, have at length with some expence obtained the Queen's warrant for the MS. of Josephus; Dr. Trimnel searched for it, but not finding it met with an old printed Latin Josephus, about the beginning of printing, Mr. Worms's (i. e. Wormius) books, &c.
197. 8. 9. From the same, thanking him about the MS. which he hopes is the same that once belonged to Sir John Playters of Suffolk, & came out of the Florentine Library, &c.
200. From the same, 1711, about another MS. of Josephus; has Josephus now in the Press as a specimen. Sorry Mr. Thwaites cannot hold out long as a keeper up of learning, now fast declining, &c. in the nation, &c. all the rewards of labour and industry being bestowed on such as never think of doing any service to the common-wealth of Letters. Doubts not but the Greek Professorship will be so disposed of.
201. From the same, about his disappointments, &c. after 20 years labour, might expect something better than 40 l. per Ann. but should not refuse such an offer, &c. The person designed for Professor, should be obliged to publish some MSS. or give a good Edition of some valuable book.
202. From the same, 1712. Tho' Josephus does take up all his time, &c. in answer to his enquiries about Greek Bibles, &c. Before the flight of the poor Greeks from Constantinople, there was hardly any copy of the Bible in Greek in these parts of the world; all people being content with the vulgar Latin. Neither is it strange that few entire Copies should now be heard of: the Turks no doubt destroying all they could come at, & the Xtians hiding them for fear of them, &c.
- Besides there were few entire copies, but such as were deposited in the Patriarchal or Metropolitan churches; & such seems the Alexandrian MS. to have been. After all, there may be a great many MSS. especially of the Greek Testament in private hands, which have not yet come to our knowledge.
- Every one thinks him ill requited for serving the public; but no one considers him. The effect of it will be, that it will make others averse from applying themselves to the prosecution of learning, which is visibly decaying every where in her Majesty's dominions, &c.
203. From the same, 1714, about the Rector of Lincoln College lending Wanley Sr. G. Wheeler's MSS. Dr. Radcliffe's great Benefaction; intend to buy the Bp. of Ely's books, &c. Unless the King buys the study, nobody else likely to bid against them, &c.
204. From

Num. 3781, 3782.

204. From the same, about the Rector of Lincoln's sending the Greek MS. &c. No place on the face of the Earth pays so little regard to those that deal in learning as this nation, &c. fears he shall be undone by Josephus, &c.

205. From the same, 1714-15, about the letter furnished by W.'s Patron, being the first favour he ever received from him, tho' it was in his power to have made his circumstances more easy in the world, &c. the letter was from Biachini with the collations he wanted, &c. for which he had payed already 100 l. Scudis, &c. is making what interest he can for Hearne to obtain the place of Architypographus now vacant, &c.

206-7-8. From the same, with extracts from & long & curious remarks upon the Statutes of St. Tho. Bodley, about lending books out of that Library.

209. 210. From the same, of no importance.

211. From the same, about his work, Dr. Bernard's MSS. ancient Editions in Baliol Coll. Library; has given orders to have all the MSS. in France & Italy collated for him; resolved to go on tho' the expence is very great, & meets with discouragement from those, who should contribute to the public good. Had conversation with Mr. Daubuz, who has obliged the world with an excellent book about a passage in Josephus. He deserves better things than a poor little Vicarage; where he is likely to be cramped for want of Books.

212. From the same, about Wheler's books in Lincoln Coll. &c. the Gospels in Greek, &c.

213-14. From Mr. Tho. Hurst, Cov. 1699 & 1714, about making Vellum, &c.

215. From J. Hutton, Stoke, 1706, about the state of Nayland Church, the Dissenters expositions of the Church Catechism, &c. Dr. Manningham reading Lectures on the Common Prayer, &c.

216. From Dr. Tho. Hyde, about Arabic & Persian books to be procured in India. The Titles given at large.

217. From the same, about procuring French Books, a brass coin of Tangrolipix, with another Arabic coin in the Public Library.

218 to 220. From the same, about the Jentù (sic) Language, the King's allowance for studying languages, &c. a book in the old Persian, &c. also a book in Clare Hall, of the Gaurs, &c. 1699.

221-2-3-4. From the same, about his book with copper cuts, &c. being ready for the Subscribers, &c. Dr. Sloane's donation, &c. Oct. 1700. Oxford, Dr. Charlett, &c.

225-6. From the same, about the Curators meeting at the Library, to view the building which is inclining into Exeter Yard 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ Inches, &c.

227-8-9. D^o about duplicates of Dr. Sloane's books, &c. Erdewike's account of Stafford &c. 1701.

230-1-2-3. Trifling ones from the same.

234. From the same, 1701. about translating Macrizi or any other Arabic book; has by him a latin translation of the Natural History of Egypt, written by a learned Physician Abdolatif Bagdadenfis, &c.

235-6-7-8. Trifling ones from the same, 1702.

239. From his Wife E. Hyde, about picture frames.

240-1-2-3. From the same, about some villainous attempt to injure her character, &c. 1701-2-3.

Letters to Humphrey Wanley 1692 to 1725.

1. From G. Ratten Coventry, about Coffee, &c.

2. 3. to 10. From Mr. W^m Reading of Sion College, about specimens of Eusebius, &c. he was then about to publish, &c. 1714, 1711, &c.

11. From Mr. Joshua Reynolds of C.C.C. Oxford, 1709, about Wanley's name being in the Catalogue of Dr. Edw. Bernard's Library 1697, as purchaser of the 1st Edit. of

CAT. HARL. VOL. III.

Codex chartaceus, libros duos Johannis Balei complectens, quorum prior optimè a scribâ exaratus est, alter autographus ipsius Balei esse creditur, qui et notas nonnullas priori addidisse videtur. XVI.

1. "Anglorum Heliades, opus ex variis autoribus et eisdem probis congestum, et in duos divisum libros, Johanne Baleo, Sudovolgo, ad Joannem Lelandum, auctore."

Hic codex est quem exscripsit Tho. Baker (Num. 7031. p. 247.) ipsissimus; quem à viro Rev^o E. Kelfall, Vicario de Boston, primò mutuatum transcripsit; postea ut proprium habuit, et collegio suo, (D. Joh. apud Cantab.) destinaverat; deinde Comiti Oxoniensi, ut videtur, vendidit. Ad finem libri transcripti (Num. 7031.) Bakerus hæc posuit.

"Transcripsi ex Codice MS. Rev. Viri E. Kelfall Vicarii de Boston in Agro Lincolnensi."

Addiderat, quod postea transverso calamo notavit, "Codex ipse MS. penes me nunc est, eumque do, dico, &c. Collegio D. Jo. Cant."

Subjungitur, eadem manu, at scripturâ seriore, "Codex iste nuper penes me erat, modo penes Comitem Oxon."

Codex ipse, in primo Libri folio, nomen Edvⁱ Kelfall gerit. "E. Kelfall Vic. de Boston in Agro Lincoln." In folio Libro ipsi præfixo scriptum est. "Librum hunc quantivis pretii lego Collegio D. Jo. Evang. Tho. Baker."

Num. 3837—3845.

Quod propria manu scripserat, nec, mutato consilio, deleverat.

Notandum est, à seriore manu, nomen Lelandi in initio corruptum esse in Leylandum; quod fraude effectum apparet, quia in Bakeri transcripto est Lelandus; et literarum ductus falsarii opus produnt. Constant Heliades foliis 100. præter indicem.

2. "Perpaucorum Carmeli scriptorum, ab Helia Thesbite, ad Bertoldum primum eorum magistrum generalem, Cathologus, admodum brevissimus, per Johannem Balensem."

De libro hoc ita testatur Th. Baker in folio codici præmisso, et supra citato.

"Posterior pars, five Catalogus Carmeli Scriptorum, scriptus est manu ipsius Balei, quam ut sæpius vidi, ita optime novi." In primo etiam hujus partis folio iterum posuit, "Scriptus manu ipsius Balei."

Constat pars hæc foliis 94. ab autore ipso notatis.

This book & 4799 were originally part of the same, & are indexed together by Le Neve at the end of this.

Imperfect, & wrongly called in the old Catalogue part of a Register of Lich' Abbey, from p. 275 to 310. formerly in the Possession of Peter Le Neve, Norroy. In his hand writing are marginal explanations, & at the end a more complete table of contents by the same person, tho' none of the articles mentioned in the first page, & beginning of the 2d, are in this curious fragment, which in fact has nothing to do with "Abbatis de Lichf. Regist." but they refer to 4799; with the foliation of which they agree as far as fol. 72, & beginning again at 311: being a collection of Records of divers Abbey Lands, &c. in the Diocese of Lichfield, the most material of which are Gervase Pagnell's confirmation, &c. to Dudley Priory, a cell to Wenlock Abbey, & divers other charters, &c. relating to the same, & their several churches, viz. Wimborne, Trefel, & Scifdon, C^o Staff. &c. 275 & 6.

An historick account of the Family of Brus or Bruce of Skelton & Danby Castle in Yorkshire: as also of the Regal Family of Bruce in Scotland, descended from Rob. de Bruce 2d Son of Rob. de Bruce of Yorkshire, together with the collateral Branches of that Family; particularly of Tho. Lord Bruce of Whorlton & Skelton, C^o York, Visc. Bruse of Amphill, C^o Bedford, Earl of Elgine in Scotland, & Aylesbury in England. Vide etiam Cleopatra C. 3. D. 8. et Harl. Bibl. 4799. by Nathaniel Johnlton M.D.

This is a handsome & perfect Vol. of 46 pages, very clearly and well written by the Author himself, who, in a prefatory letter addressed to Tho. Earl of Aylesbury, about 1691, (one of the Lords of the Bedchamber to James II. see Pedigree p. 46.) says "that for favours received from some of your Lordship's generous progenitors by Dr. Crage my great Grandmother's brother, & from your Lordship to myself, I have (as far as I have been able) from the most authentick records of the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, and the best Historians & Genealogists, Manuscripts, & other Monuments of Antiquity, composed this Historick Collection. What pains I have taken to clear the succession, & correct the mistakes, & the confounding of persons & things, even by celebrated Writers, can scarcely be comprehended, without a diligent perusal of the whole, &c. with additional helps helps from notes out of the Collections of the most judicious & universally learned Sr. Geo. Mackenzie, late Lord Advocate, transmitted to the Author by the ingenious Mr. John Ennes.

3880.

A Rental of the Crown Lands & Revenues in Calais & Guines, & the Marches thereof, 6 Ed. 6.

Transcripts of Charters & Records, letters & other curious papers, &c. of the family of Hastings, Earls of Huntingdon, relating to their Property in divers Counties, but more particularly Leicestershire, & their two noble Castles & Seats, Ashby de la Zouch, of which the Historian of that County has much availed himself, in his III. Vol. pp. 569, &c.

This valuable MS. in 72 folio pages is prima facie by Sir Wm. Dugdale; and the evidence of autography is confirmed by a fragment of writing pasted in the 1st page thus, "Alphabet of Sr. Will. . . ."

71-2. Deeds relating to the family of Herle in Leic. Northumb. Launde Abbey, Grendham Abbey, Abbey of Blachland, &c.

3882.

Lettered on the back, "Records relating to the Nevils," is a collection of various kinds, Topographical, Historical, & Genealogical, relating to the various branches of that illustrious family, & their great property in divers parts of the Kingdom, &c.

By several memorandums, in different parts of this miscellaneous folio, it evidently appears that the papers formerly belonged to those two celebrated Collectors before mentioned (3605, 3868, 3874) John & Peter Le Neve.

The 1st. portion of this Vol. consists of a number of large folding Pedigrees, Arms of the Nevils, &c.

1. In page 1. is pasted a Coat of Arms of 1. Nevill Ld. Latimer. 2. Nevills Arms, old. 3. Beauchamp. 4. Vere, quarterly. Also two other scraps of paper thus written by Peter Le Neve, "Nevill of Halsted & Redgewell in Essex, a Pedigree from Hugh Nevill chief Forester in the time of K. Rich. I. See my book of Pedigrees miscellaneous, Derb. Nott. Hants. Lanc. Salop. & other Counties, to George Nevill of Staples Inne. fol. 260." "Abergavenny Barony. An Act whereby the heirs of Sr. Edw. Nevill Kt. are restored to the remainder of the Barony of Abergavenny. See my MSS. of Acts of Parl. part 2 & 3 of Phil. & Mary, fol. 137; in this said MS. is the Act of Parl. w^{ch} hath secured the Barony to the Family & Estate."

2. "The Pedigree of the family of Nevill in the several branches thereof, writt by Henry Ball, Esq. formerly Rouge Croix purfuivant, & after Windsor Herald.

Ita testor Peter Le Neve aits Norroy King of Arms, Dñi 1704."

3. The next part is a book of 103 pages of very black & close large writing, besides two preceding pages unmarked, on the 1st of which is the Arms of Nevil, & the following descriptions, &c.

"A Miscellanie of things very observable of that most illustrious & sometime Princely family of the Nevills."

"Sept. 19th, 1661. It was the will & desire of Mr. Charles Nevill that his Executors should give the booke, of w^{ch} this is a true cobby, to his noble Kinsman Colonell Richard Nevill, Esq. as a testimony of his respects to him. Ita testor Johannes Smith Contubernalis ejus." In P. Le Neve's hand-writing is the following,

"This book is all of the hand-writing of Mr. Wilkinfon, rector of Lawrence Waltham in Com. Berks; you will find his descent in Mr. Ashmole's Visitation of Barkshire, made 1664."

4. The next part is thus superscribed, "Abergavenny Barones from Wm. the Conqueror who created Hameline de Balune or Baladon into the said honour, &c. Faithfully collected by Tho. Wilkinfon out of Rob. Glover's Stemmat. Magnata & other MSS. A^o 1653."

This part consists of 108 leaves.

In the last page are described the Arms of Richard Nevill of Billingbeare, Berks, Esq. in 108 quarterings.

5. The next portion is a miscellaneous collection from various Authors, &c. relating to the same family, & a regular history somewhat mutilated. The History is thus prefaced,

"That infinite wisdom of God w^{ch} hath distinguished his Angels by degrees; w^{ch} hath given greater & lesse light and beauty to the heavenly bodyes; w^{ch} hath made differences between beastes & byrdes; created the eagle and the flye; the cedar and the shrubbe; & amongst stones, given the fairest tincture to the Ruby, & the quickest light to the Diamond; hath also ordained Kings, Dukes, or leaders of the People, magistrates, judges, & other degrees amongst Men. W. N." which signature seems to be the Initials of W. Nevill LL.D. Chancellor of Chichester, mentioned at the latter end of this historical MS. of which he was therefore probably the Author. It contains 16 leaves, somewhat damaged.

6. The remainder contains the collections & history of the same family, &c. the principal heads of which are,

"A briefe declaration of the principal points considerable in the Pedigree of the Barony of Abergavenny, shewing how the owners of the Castle & Signeorie of Bergavenny have ever borne the title of Dignitie from the next heyres in blood."

10. b.

"Concerning the will of G. Nevill Ld. Bergavenny & the Act of Parliam. 2d & 3d Philip & Mary."

11. The next pages contain a Pedigree of Nevill, & Beauchamp Pembroke, with notes, &c. relating to the contentions betw. Reg. Ld. Gray & Wm. Beauchamp, about the above Barony, &c. & shewing that it did not descend to R. B. because his Mother had Abergavenny in jointure.

Continens,

1. M. H. Vidæ poema de Bombyce, in membranâ scrip-
tum. Titulus in ipso codice est, "Marci Hieronymi Vidæ Cremonens. Canonici regularis de Bombyce libri duo."
Videtur ergo scriptus Codex antequam Albæ Episcopatum nactus fuerat Vidæ; et antequam poema ultimas auctoris curas subierat. Longe igitur ab edd. differt, ut etiam ab initio videri potest.

"Dii quibus indiderint parvis reptantibus olim Naturas, quæ fila vomunt (cœlestia divum
Dona) quibus Tyrio perfusus murice vestis
Regibus intexunt, templisque, arisque deorum
Expedit, egregium Veneris pecus."

Nunc vero sic incipit.

"Quos mores, quas aut parvis reptantibus artes
Iuppiter addiderit, quæ fila tenacia serum
Ore vomunt saturæ, vos mecum evolvite, Nymphæ Seriades."

Definit hoc exemplar commate imperfecto, sed deest tantum versus unicus; scilicet,

"Et meritis gratas sibi devinxere puellas."

2. Sequitur "Antonii Panormitæ Laureati poematum et profarum Liber, ad Lamolam v. cl." super chartâ scriptus. Ant. Panormitæ, proprio nomine Beccatelli, varia extant opera; hunc vero Librum (vel potius Libros, duo enim sunt) inter laudatos ab historicis non in-venio. Incipit his verbis.

"Define me placidâ verbis aducere terrâ, Define me dominâ dissociare meâ."

Continet Versus et Epistolas, sive certo ordine permixtas.

Codex membranaceus, è collectione Thomæ Baker, qui hæc in secundo folio annotavit. "Volumen hoc continet tractatus viginti diversorum auctorum, quorum nomina recitantur in indice ad calcem Codicis. Pauca folia excisa sunt malâ manu."—Multa etiam in margine per totum volumen annotavit T. Baker. Tractatus vero, rectè enumerati, sunt viginti duo. XII.

1. Gulielmi Malmesburiensis, de dictis & factis memorabilibus Philosophorum, libri 3. Defunt quindecim capita priora. Liber incipit a capite decimo sexto.

2. Aurelii Magni Cassiodori, Senatoris, de Orthographia liber. Præmittitur præfatio, quæ in Putschii collectione (2275) non occurrit, et a Guil. Malmesburiensi, qui hos Orthographos collegit, scripta videtur. v. Bakeri notam.

3. Capri de Orthographia Liber. Putsch. 2239.

4. Agrecii Ars. Putsch. 2265.

5. Albini Orthographia. Apponenda est Bakeri annotatio. "Liber iste recensetur in Catalogo operum Alcuini, a Lelando, Baleo, et Pitseo contexto: his tamen neutiquam visus fuit, alioquin non reticissent prima verba, ab eis suo more citata, ubi Auctor eis notus et visus est. Liber hic, perinde ac sequens Bedæ, integri non exhibentur a Gul. Malmesburiensi, se teste. In collectione Putschii Liber hic, incipiens ab Æternus, Ætas, equus, equitas, &c, Bedæ adscribitur. Integer autem non exhibetur."

6. Bedæ Orthographia. Ad finem hujus tractatus de se et sua Orthographorum collectione loquitur G. Malmesburiensis.

7. Censorini de Die Natali fragmentum; incipiens ab his verbis in cap. 4°. "reperiri aves que ante ova gignatæ sint," usque ad verba, "maxime spondæum et pyrrichium," in cap. 14. Fragmenti incerti auctoris, (ut ab Havercampo dicitur) sed quod hic luculenter Censorino adscriptum est, et cum opere de Die Natali, ita conjunctum, ut nequaquam divelli possit. Apparet ergo sine dubio Censorini esse. Notandum etiam, occurrere in hoc exemplari lectiones varias observatione dignissimas.

8. Apuleii de Sectâ Platonica libri duo; scilicet, De Dogmate Platonis Liber, ἀκεφαλος; a verbis, "esse factum et non solum nullam partem horum extra orbem relinqui," &c. ad finem, confusus cum ejusdem de Philosophia morali. (Apud Ald. 161. b.) Qui vero hic secundus liber dicitur, est ejusdem De Mundo, ad Faustinum Filium.

9. Apuleii de Deo Socratis liber, ἀτελεος.

10. De Physiognomia liber, ex Aristotele; Apuleio, in indice veteri adscriptus. ἀκεφαλος. Codex hinc alia manu scriptus est.

11. Marbodi (de quo num. 3353. 2.) Poema de lapidibus. Cum Commentario. Exemplar egregium, et eorum quæ vidi optimum. v. etiam Bakeri notam.

12. Fragmentum Apuleii de Deo Socratis; mutilum in initio et fine.

13. Ejusdem de Dogmate Platonis liber, ἀκεφαλος, iterum eum tractatu de Philosophia morali conjunctus.

14. Prisciani Solutiones Physicorum de quibus dubitavit Chosdroe rex Persarum.

15. Chronicon breve usq; ad Tempus Theodosii. 1.

16. Historiâ Trojanorum, ἀτελεος. "Pelias rex Peloponnesium."

17. Physicon protheron, "Amultis prudentibus viris."

18. Alberici, Diſtaminum radii.

19. Johannis Salesburiensis (Sive Sarisburiensis) de Septem Septenis liber. De hoc libro ita T. Bakerus. "Tractatus ille nondum (quod sciam) excusus est, nec titulo quidem notus, vel Lelando, vel Balco, vel Pitseo,

Num. 3969—3974.

&c." Addi potest quod nec Fabricio innotuit. Deest folium in fine.

20. Joachimi Flor. Abbatis, in Apocalypsin expositio.

21. Tractatus imperfectus, de præfagiis temporum.

22. S. Hieronymi, de perpetua virginitate B. Mariæ liber, adversus Helvidium.

In the foote of the Pedigree these words are set downe:—The heires of Heveringham being created Kts. are successively to take and keepe the Room of Knights Bannerets."

"The familie do pretend to descend from Arphaxhad, who was one of the Knts. that watered Christ's Sepulchre. This Arphaxhad was surnamed Geffry Mandevill, of whom Mandeville E. of Essex descended."

241. "Hereafter followeth the names & arms of the principal Captains as well of Noblemen as of Knights that were with the victorious Prince K. E. 3. at the Siege of Callais An^o 20^o Regni."

254. Pedigree of Burgh Earl of Ulster, illustrated with numerous historical notes, &c.

260. Pedigree of Savage of Clifton in Cheshire, &c. with divers arms & quarterings.

264. &c. "The Genealogies of sundry nobles, & famous houses, whereof Sr. Rob. Sydney Kt. Ld. Lisle is lineally descended, which genealogies are divided into five parts: whereof the 1st part doth principally contain the descent of Reginald Ld. Grey of Ruthyn, & of all such noble & famous houses whereof he was descended, with the several arms, that he might rightly bear, by virtue of the said descent." (See Hist. Staff. Vol. II. p. 268.) "The 2d part of these genealogies contains the descent of H. L^o Ferrers of Groby, & of all such noble & famous houses whereof he was lineally descended, with the several arms he might rightly bear by virtue of the said descents," &c. "The 3d part contains the descent of John Talbot Visc. Lisle, with the arms, &c. as before signed."

270. A very full Pedigree of the Repington family, much more ancient & curious than what is printed in Dugdale's Warw. p. 826. viz. from H. 1. time to 1607. See also a continuation to the present time in Shaw's Hist. of Staffordshire, vol. 1. p. 424. &c. & Topog. 1. 531. iv. 113. See also Harl. MSS. 4928. p. 356. b.

This MS. Genealogy in its several branches deriving themselves originally from Repington C^o Lincoln, is illustrated with coats of Arms in every descent, & at the top are these notes:—

"This I copied out of an old role in Colours lent me by Edmund Bolton, 4 May, 1608."

"The first of my auncestors that I can derive myself from by my evidences, is from one Wm. Repington Auditor to Rich. E. of Warw. that was slain at Barnetfield," &c. 1451. "that he lived 1451. appeareth by Hawley K. at Armes & Beaup James Herald."

This in the Pedigree, & the above, were written probably by John Repington 1608.

Num. 4031—4036.

278. Paston family, & deeds relating to the same, &c.

285. &c. Pedigree of "Miles a native of Greece, whose 3d son Hibern ruled jointly with Hermon, An^o ante Xti natum 1383, Ireland, &c. one of whose descendants Moghmoade compelled Conkedyhagh K. of Ireland to divide the Kingdom with him, the boundary of which division yet remaining, called Eisggerrieda, &c."

295. &c. Is the Index, after which follows an ancient fragment of music, with words neatly written & illuminated, on Vellum, seemingly an old latin Chant, &c. At the top in a modern hand is written "Cobham."

After this are 20 more Pages of Pedigrees & Arms, viz. Bray, Sandes, Pelham, Boteller of Weme, Sudeley, Montfort, Peverel, & Freville, &c. And at the top of p. 3. is pasted a curious monumental Inscription, in Saxon Characters, of John de Freville Lord of Cestevile, from Little Shelford Church near Cambridge.

9. "Complementum armoriale W^m Brooke Militis Dñi et Baronis de Cobham: superstes 1589." The Arms in 20 Quarters, two Crests & Supporters neatly tricked. Then follow the Pedigrees of Brooke, Braybrooke, & Cobham, &c.

A handsome folio, which contained (at the time the old Catalogue was printed) the Arms of 85 Peers of England richly blazoned, and a history of the Succession of the first eight of them.

At the end is an Index enumerating 87, but the two first, viz. the King & Duke of York are now wanting. After which they agree with the Index to 61, the remaining 8 being misplaced according to the Index, & the other 18 are wanting.

1. Arms of the Kings of England, before the Conquest. 1.

2. A short history of the Kings of England, from the Conquest down to Q. Elizabeth: together with their Arms, and Intermarriages. 5.

3. Arms of Nobility & Knights in the time of Ed. 1. & 2. 37.

A large paper Book of Maps & Charts of the American Coast of the South Seas, from New Granada and California, to the Straits of Magellan. Containing two large Maps, one at the beginning the other at the End, and 147 smaller Charts, of one Sheet each: drawn and coloured, with exact views of the Rivers, Bays, Harbours, Mountains, Volcanos, Cities, & every particular of the Coasts, with descriptions, sometimes very copious, of the foundings, anchorage, &c. Written in Spanish; with an English translation to each, which appears to have been added since. On the last of the smaller Charts is written, "Surveyed by order of the King of Spain, & finished at Pannama, Anno Dom. 1669." xvii.

It is a very curious work: but much wants an index of the places represented and described.

1. Arms together with a short account of the Dukes, Marquesses & Earls of England. 1. xvii.

2. The Arms of the Viscounts & Barons of England. 252—260.

The Arms of the Knights of the Order du Saint Esprit, from the first Creation in 1577, to 1622, superbly drawn, & blazoned, on 302 Leaves of Vellum. The general title is this,

“Tous les noms et furnoms des Princes, Seigneurs, Commandeurs, et Chevalliers de l'ordre et Miice du St. Esprit, et des Officiers, depuis la premiere creation du dernier Jour de Decembre 1577. Faite par Henry 3. Roy de France et de Pologne, Grand M^e chef et souverain dudit ordre et Instituteur, que des Creations des Roys Henry 4. et Louis XIII. jusques au quatorzieme jour de Juillet 1622, a Carcaffone.”

There are eighteen Creations, each having a separate title. Nothing can exceed the magnificence of this book.

A large French work on Heraldry, written, as it appears, for M. Antoine de Lomenie, a Royal Counsellor, whose Arms are blazoned in the second leaf, and stamped upon the Covers. It is written on large Paper, and coloured throughout. The Title is written within an engraved border, in the following Words.

“Blafon d'Armoiries contenant une Instruction generale, et breve methode pour apprendre facilement la vraye intelligence dicelles, avec les differences des Couronnes, Tymbres, Lambrequins, Cimiers, supportz ou tenans, Ordres de Chevaleries, et autres choses remarquables et particulieres, fervans à la parfaicte cognoissance desdites Armoiries. 1629.”

It is a curious work, and contains abundant instruction for any Person desirous of understanding the French Heraldry.

Poems & Letters in praise of Mat. Prior Esq. 1718.

“Epistles to Mr. Prior, together with Extracts taken from several Authors who have made mention of him and his Writings, in their Works, as well in Prose as Verse.”

A very large folio, fairly transcribed, with the following second Title, capitally executed in printing hand, “Poems on several Occasions continued. Also some Letters & Epistles to the Author 1718.” Apparently intended to be added to the splendid Folio Edition of Prior's Poems: containing complimentary Verses, as then was usual, and Testimonia Auctorum, as above-mentioned.

History of Bohemia, from the year 890 to 1618: inscribed to the Marquess of Buckingham. xvii.

A thin quarto book, written on paper, bound up with number 6883. The Title is this,

“The Historie of Bohemia, the first parte describing the Countrey, Scituation, Climate, Commodities, the Name & Nature of the People, and compendiously continuing the Historie from the beginning of the Nation to the first Christian Prince about the year of Christ 990.”

In ten Chapters, with an Appendix “containing a Proclamation of the Estates of Bohemia, whereby the whole order of the Jesuites is proscribed and banished out of that Kingdome, as publick disturbers of the Peace, and enemies of the State; with proviso y^t they shall never be admitted again. Whereunto is added a breefe Narration how the Jesuites are or have beene by solemne Decree banished out of everye Kingdome and Province in Europe, very few excepted, and where they be they are held in great jealousy and suspition to be publick perturbors of the Peace, and dangerous Enemies of the State.”

Liber chartaceus, in 4to. Continens adversaria duo, viri cujusdam docti, cui nomen, ut ex chartarum fragmentis, inter paginas 61 et 70 insertis, constare videtur, fuit Samuel Clarke. Designatur autem ut studens in Coll. S. Petri Cantab. et socius in aula Pembrochianâ, &c. et cum patre commorans in Vico Tbreadneedle Londini. xvii.

Codicis hujus partes duæ, quas figuris rubris (1) et (2) distinximus, paginas habent separatim ab ipso Auctore numeratas. Prior habet paginas 36, manu elegantis scriptas; Secunda 66. Utrique index præmittitur locuples, ad paginas et numeros marginis referens. Numeri sectiones notant, et per Centurias distribuuntur. Foliis non scriptis prioris adversarii paginas adpinximus, ut facilius inveniantur foliorum fragmenta, quæ auctorem designare videntur. Has lacinias numeris (1) ad (9) notavimus.

A paper Book in quarto; of 335 pages, containing "Animadversions upon a Treatise lately published and intitled, God's love to mankind." A complete work, very carefully written, in a distinct but not elegant hand; apparently transcribed for the Press, xvii.

A paper book, in quarto; containing Extracts from Books, and other Collections, written at various times and in various hands. The most considerable, in a hand apparently older than the rest, is a Treatise on Arithmetic, in English, extending to 76 pages, marked (18)—No. (14) & (15.) are intermixed, the latter being evidently written on the blank pages left by the Writer of the former.—(8) and (9) are inverted.—(22) contains Latin Verses.—(28) Extracts from the Latin Poem of Hoffchius. The Articles amount to about 33, without a scrupulous exactness of enumerating trifles. xvii.

Albii Tibulli Opera. xv.

Three paper Volumes, written with great neatness and care, containing very various and numerous collections from History, and many other sources, carefully paged, numbered, & indexed by the Author. These Volumes are properly 1. 2. and 4. the third, fifth, & sixth occur at Nos. 4728, 4729, 4730, & are there described. The titles of these three are thus expressed. xvii.

1. "Choice and select observables various and delightful. The First Volume, collected and registred by R.D. Anno 1662, 1663."
2. "Choice and select observables, various and delightful. The Second Volume, collected, & registred by R.D. Anno 1664, 1665."
4. "Choice and select observables, various and delightful. The Fourth Volume, collected & registred by R.D. Anno 1668. 1669."

Vol. 3. (N^o 4728) contains also the Collections of two years, 1666, 1667: and the 5th & 6th extend to 1676. To whom the Initials R.D. belong, I have not been able to discover. The Author is evidently a Protestant, of the Church of England. But, with respect to matters of Natural History he is superstitious and ill-informed. He calls the Tarantula a little Serpent, &c. Vol. 1. has 300, Vol. 2d has 268, and Vol. 4. 444 pages; written with an exactness of care, seldom seen in Books of such selections.

How these six Volumes were separated does not appear: but it is perfectly evident that they compose altogether one set, written by one hand.

booke belonged to Dr. Foorth, and was drawn up by Archbp. Whitgift, Dr. Cofin being then Dean of the Arches, Will. Aubrey LL.D. Mr. or Judg of the Court of Audience, & Dr. Lewin Judg of the Prerogative. It may, I suppose, be of some use, to show y^e practice of that time, when Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction was something higher than it is at present. How far it agrees with Clarke's Praxis, I have not observed, not having yet compared them."

A paper book most beautifully written, dedicated to the King, & bound in blue Morocco, with the Royal Arms, as if a presentation Copy. It had however passed into other hands, for in the first leaf is written, (apparently by Lord Oxford) "This Book I bought of Mr. Webster, who published the Life of General Monk, wrote by Skinner." xvii.

Num. 4178—4181.

The title, at full length, is this, "The designed Loyalty of the renowned General George Monck, in restoring King Charles the Second, justified in a Memoriall delivered in to the Right Honorable John Earl of Bathe. To which is annexed a Postscript. By John Price D.D. Chaplain to the late & now Duke of Albemarle."

4181.

A handsome folio, well written in 358 pages, "Bequeathed to my Ld. Oxford, by Mr. Hugh Thomas," as appears by Wanley's writing at the beginning. The Contents are,

I. The History of Welsh Heroes, by threes, or triads, in Welsh and English. fol. 1. to 13. which is followed by a copious alphabetical Index, p. 14. to 21. In p. 6. are the following illustrations, "This History Mr. Vaughan of Hergert conjectured were wrote about 1000 years since, but in as much as they mention the venerable Beda, whose death was in 731, & Morgan Muynvuir King of Glamorgan, whose death was about 972, they would not be wrote above 700 years past, unless there was another Copy older than this. Lhyvyr Koch o Hergert, from whence this was taken, was wrote about 450 or 500 years since; the Author of both is uncertain. There is another History under the same title with this, now or late in the Custody of Sr. Richard Win of Gwider, collected by a learned Priest called Thomas ap Jevan ap David ap Kynrig ap Jorwerth, who was a great traveller, & had sometime studied at Rome, as himself, faith & wrote with all integrity imaginable, about the year 1500, a good part taken out of the former, & several other things much later, tho' never digested into any method, which here follows verbatim, but in a little better order, shewing by the figures in the right side margin, wherein he agrees with the former." There are various other remarks and interlineations, &c. by a different hand.

II. Entitled on the binding, "Welsh Pedigrees;" but the principal Contents are as follow,

1. "The Division of Wales, taken out of Lhyvyr Koch o Hergert, p. 377." 22.
 2. "Achey yr Santy, or the Pedigrees of several British Saints, taken out of an old Welsh MS. wrote upon Vellum, about the year of our Lord 1250, late in the Custody of Mr. Edw. Lhuyd of the Museum." 27.
- There are some notes on the sides, by a different hand, viz. penes W.T. &c. 27. 29. &c.
3. "The Pedigrees of several British Saints, taken out of an old Welsh MS. of Mr. John Lewis of Lhuynweny in Radnorshire, wrote about the Time of Queen Eliz." 30.
 4. "The Genealogy & Issue of Brychan, copied verbatim, out of an old small Welsh M.S. written upon Vellum, by one Lhyvelin Offeriad, or a Priest, about 500 years past, now kept in the Archives of Jesus Coll. Library, this year 1710, which seems by him to be copied from another as old & unintelligible as this, by the many blanks he left where his is britest, for the Letters worn out in that MS. from whence he transcribed it, & therefore seemes to be the only true Copy now extant." 33.
 5. "The Pedigrees of several Saints & Princes of Wales, taken out of the former MS. of Lhyvelin Offeriad, fol. 35. b." 38.
 6. Remarks upon the above Brychan's descendants, &c. & the above account of Mr. John Lewis p. 31. cotemporary

A thin folio of 72 pages, neatly written, in historical detail, & decorated with divers Arms painted, & Pedigrees, &c. as more fully expressed in the following title page:

"The Armes, Honors, Matches, & Issues of the ancient & illustrious family of Veer.

Described in the honourable progeny of the Earles of Oxenford & other branches thereof, from the first originall to the present time.

Together with a genealogical deduction of this noble family, from the blood of twelve forcine Princes, viz. three Emperours, three Kings, three Dukes, & three Earles, conveyed through the principal houses of Christendome.

Gathered out of History, Recordes, & other Monuments of Antiquity by Percivall Goulding."

On the back of this, is a punning Motto in six Latin verses, upon the name of Vere, & in the following page a preface addressed to one of the family in praise of the study of Antiquities & Genealogy, the former part of which may be seen interwoven with several others from the Harl MSS. &c. at the beginning of Vol. II. of the History of Staffordshire, p. xxii. In the subsequent part of this preface the author says "In this study (Sr.) having sometimes been conversant according to my slender skill; I have, out of former collections intended for a greater worke, gathered the genealogy of Veer (the name w^{ch} of all others I am most bound to honor) & drest in this homely Ornaments of myne owne fashioning, taken occasion to offer the same unto you, not as a publick work to patronize, but as a testimony of particular affection; unto which boldness my chief inducements were these; first the love & duty which not I alone, but many of my auncestors, as humble well wishers, have long borne to the honorable house of Oxenford; whereof your self being an eminent branch, I presumed the rather my present would not prove ungratefull, &c. though a stranger to yourself, yet being a neighbour & heretofore well knowne & not a little beholding to your worthy brother Mr. John Veer. Lastly to shew some frute (tho' barren & unripe) of my travelles before employed this way, which intended to a compleat Collection of the Nobility of England, but interrupted by crosse accidents & layd aside long since, &c. &c. P. G."

This neat & curious MS. is now bound up with two other Collections, &c. relating to the family of Vere, viz. 6134, 6775, which see: also 4199; p. 13.

“ Les Quatrains de Guy de Faur, Sieur de Pybrac; ensemble, les 50 Oſtonaires sur la vanité & inconstance du monde. Ecrites par Esther Inglis 1614.”

A very elegant specimen of small writing, on paper, in printing hand. Dedicated to Messire David Murray, &c. xvii.

A very elegant MS. on vellum, with the following title, “ Pastorelle sur la Victoire obtenue contre les Alemans, Reytres, Lansquenets, Souyffes et Francoys, rebelles a Dieu et au Roy tres chrétien. l’an 1587. A Montbrison, Representée le Vintseptiesme jour de Fevrier 1588.”

It is in fact a pastoral Drama in verse, dedicated to the Duke of Mayne, by the Author L. Papon; most beautifully written throughout, & ornamented with gold, with illuminated figures of the Characters of the Piece, and at the end a larger folded painting of the Theatre, Scene, & Actors, &c. The Piece was thus acted at Montbrison, in February 1587, and is a very curious memorial of such a theatrical performance produced in that remote & turbulent time of the League. In the title is a painted device of Clouds, Thunder, &c. with the word GUISE suspended to a Chaplet. The Cover is curiously embroidered.

Boethius de Consolatione, translated into French by Jean (Clopinel) de Meun; the same work of which a much finer Copy occurs at N° 4335. This Copy came from the Library of Nic. Jos. Foucault.

A MS. on vellum, in old French, containing,
1. Two Sermons for the morning & afternoon, on these Lines, xv.

“ A Dieu sen va par mort amere
Jesus voyant sa douce mere;
Si devons bien par penitence,
De ce dueil avoir remembrance.”

2. A consolatory treatise for those in tribulation, “ par ung religieux de l'ordre des celestins.”

4332.

“ Traitté des Problemes Geometriques, necessaires pour l'intelligence de la Fortification.” xvii.

4333.

An old vellum book, chiefly in French Verse, and written in two Columns; containing,

1. A Poem called “ Pymage del monde,” beginning thus, xiii.

“ En l'an de l'incarnation,
Jhesu nostre redemption
Mil cc ans quarante fis
Fui d'un livre faire pensis,
De tote l'ymage del monde, &c.”

2. Le Romans de la Mort. 4 pages & a half.

3. Æsop's Fables in French Verse, by Mary, the Norman Poetess. These Fables are also in the Cotton Library, Vesp. B. XIV. and in this Collection N° 978. 74. The Cotton MS. has 61 Fables, & wants part of the Prologue, & all the Conclusion: the present Copy has 83 Fables: but 978, is the most complete, and has 104 Fables. The Poetess gives her name in the conclusion;

*Au finement de cest escrit
Quen Romans ai fine et dit
Me nomerai por Remembrance
Marie ai nom, si sui de France.*

See the dissertation on the Writings of this Poetess, by the Abbé de la Rue: Archæol. xiii. Art. 6.

4. Some religious Verses, apparently addressed to the Virgin Mary. Being written in the same hand, & without any strong mark of distinction; they seem at first like a continuation of the Fables.

5. Political or historical Verses, beginning,

“ Honis soit li rois d'ingleterre
Rois Francois ont fait mainte guerre.”

6. “ La canonique de Rois.” So it was marked in the former Catalogue, from a line, which seems to have belonged to something different from what now follows it, this is,

Si faut la canoniq' des rois.

But the columns which follow contain apparently only proverbial Verses, having no reference to Kings. They begin,

*Mout vaut mieux pleure chante
Que ne fait chante pieure, &c.*

These occupy four pages & a half.

7. Two tales in French verse, the latter of which is termed “ doctrinal qui enseigne et chastie.”

Num. 4333—4343.

8. A paraphrase of the Pater noster, in old French Verse. At the end. "Explicit la pater noster a l'usurier."

9. The Creed verified in the same manner: of which the rubric at the beginning says, "Incipit credo usurarii."

10. "Ci commence Catons en romans." This, which professes to be Cato's Distichs, translated into Romance language, begins thus,

"Seignor ains Re je vous commans Espandre Caton en romans."

11. "L'evangile de fames," and "l'espriere des femmes," both in French Verse.

4334.

A tale in old French Verse, of which Karles, Guerart, and Pierre seem to be the principal Personages. Written on Vellum. Imperfect. XIII.

4335—4339.

A beautiful copy of Boethius de Consolatione Philosophiæ, in Jean de Meun's translation, which is also at N^o 4330.—Elegantly written on vellum, in five volumes; and illuminated, for some Person whose Arms are blazoned at the end of each Volume. The date of the MS. is 1476. Each Volume contains a book of the work, with the translation and notes. The leaves are numbered in a continued order through the whole, & amount to 425, besides the introductory parts, which are not numbered.

The Translator presents his work to Philip iv. (le bel) of France, and at the beginning gives an account of his productions, "A la royal mageste du tres noble Prince par la grace de dieu Roy de France Phelippe le quart, Je Jehan de mehun, qui jadis ou Romant de la Rose puis que Jaloufie ot mis en prison bel acueil, enseignay la maniere du chastel prandre et de la Rose cueillir, et translatay de latin en francoys le livre de vegece de chevalerie, et le livre des merveilles d'irland et la vie et les epistres maistre pieux abaylart et heloys sa fame, et le livre a helyed de spirituel amitie, envoye ores Boece de consolacion," &c. XV.

The name of a later possessor Gabriel Hinselin, with the date 1616, is at the beginning of each Volume.

An alphabetical Table, in French, containing references to some collection of political documents & papers; but apparently not to the Volume following. Probably to some part of the Seguier Collection. xvii.

4358.

A collection of papers on political subjects, seeming to have some connection with the preceding, yet so obscure that it cannot easily be traced. The leaves here are numbered, as far as 450; but there are some chafms, as between 17 & 38; 39 & 40 also are wanting; and 59 60. The whole written in French. From the Collection of M. Seguier. On the Cover within, is written Lecomte. xvii.

4359.

“ Chartres de Bretagne. ” 225 written leaves. This also has Lecomte at the beginning: with an Inscription mentioning the donor. xvii.

“ Cy commence le liure des Croniques des Ducs, & Princes de Bretagne Armoricanne, autrement nommée la moindre Bretagne. ” Dedicated to Anne of Britany, Queen of France. A beautiful MS. on Vellum. The Author's name does not appear. xv.

4372—3.

An ancient and very beautiful copy, finely written on vellum, and illuminated, of a translation of Valerius Maximus,

Num. 4373—4377.

Maximus, with Notes, & supplemental Histories, in French; begun by Simon de Hesdin, Master in Theology, religious of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, revised, perfected & finished, by Nicolas de Gonesse, Master in Arts & Theology.

This is stated in a rubric, at the end of the Table of Chapters. The first leaf of each book is richly illuminated; & the Arms on the first illumination seem to indicate that this Copy was written for some Person of the blood royal of France. The translator says that he undertook the work for Charles 5 of France: & this MS. is possibly as old as his time, namely, the latter end of the 14th Century. xiv.

The last leaf of the first Volume, and the first of the second, with the illumination, are evidently supplied by a much later hand. See N° 4430.

4374—5.

A more modern, but still more splendid copy of the same work. With illuminations of the most exquisite neatness, not only large at the beginning of each book, but smaller to most of the Chapters. This appears to have been executed for some private person, whose Arms are blazoned in the first illumination, & in some others. A finer work, according to the skill in painting then possessed, cannot easily be imagined. I have not discovered any date, but suppose it to belong to the fifteenth Century. xv.

The binding is of purple Velvet.

Another very splendid Copy of this Translation, written for Edward 3. of England, is in the Royal Library, 18 E. 4. by which it appears that S. de Hesdin translated as far as the 7th book, & that Nic^e de Gonesse finished the work. See N° 4379.

An ancient French MS. on Vellum, finely illuminated for the Time, entitled by the Author "Livre de la Boucchardiere," for what reason, does not appear, but probably from the Estate on which he lived, his name being, "Jehan de Courfy, Chev^e Normant." The work is an historical compilation in six books, which he began, he says, on his return from Greece in 1416. being then, "plain de Jours, et vuydie de Jeunesse." The arguments of the six book are thus given by the Author, in his introduction. xv.

1. "Le premier fera mention comme apres le Deluge, qui fut au temps Noe, fut la terre de Grece prenier restaurée, et des haultes histoires des anciens gregois qui en icelle contrée longuement habiterent.

2. Le second livre fera mention de l'ancienne creation de Troye et comme elle fut par les gregois destruite.

3. Le troisieme du peuple de Troye qui eschappa de la destruction, et comme plusieurs pays furent repeuplez de celle lignie.

4. Le quatrieme des assiriens, et de leurs grandes dominacions.

5. Le 5 nous declairera des macedonois et des grands faiz du Roy Alexandre le grant, etc.

6. Le 6, de Mathatias, et des Machabieus comme ilz se combatirent pour la loy de Dieu.

Cy apres aura, en chascun de ces six livres, plusieurs histoires et de plusieurs manieres, et chascune histoire partie par chapitres ordinairement comme cy ensuivant apperia et le pourrez trouver."

An ample Table of Contents is prefixed to each book, and a large & splendid illumination.

"Devises pour les Tapisseries du Roy de France: ou sont representez les 4 Elemens, & les 4 Saisons de l'année; peintes en mignature par J. Bailly, a Paris,

Num. 4378—4387.

1669." Such is the title: but the devices throughout the book are copper plates, illuminated in body colour; with MS. verses by Perrault subjoined. The book appears to have been bound & blazoned for the King of France. xvii.

Nicolas Sanfon's Geography, the first Volume. In French. xvii.

The Synoptical tables to each part are engraved.

4379 & 80.

A beautiful vellum MS. containing the fourth Volume of Froissart, divided into two parts; finely written and illuminated. From the Arms introduced into each illumination it appears to have been executed for the same Person to whom N° 4373, 4. also belonged. The Arms are, quarterly, 1st & 4th Gules, between a Chevron or, three Cockle-shells argent, 2d & 3d argent, on a chief Gules, three Eagles displayed, or. xv.

4381 & 2.

The History of the Bible, on vellum, illuminated, with this Title, "La Bible hystoriaux, ou les Histoires Escolastres." At the beginning is written, "Ceste Bible fust a Jehan filz de Roy de France, Duc de Berry," &c. John Duke of Berry was son of King John, & made Duke in 1364. The Author was Peter, Dean of Treves. The work is a compilation of the Text of the Bible, & the histories of the Schoolmen; begun, the Author says, in 1291, and finished in 1294. xv.

[4383—4402. Quarto.]

1. "Voiage de D. Jean Maundeville," in French, a little defective at the end. xv.
2. Formulæ Epistolarum Latinæ.
3. Rentale Manerii de Southtawton. fol. unicum. Codex membranaceus.

A paper MS. of 359 written leaves, very fairly transcribed, as for the press, with this Title,

"Le Jardin Spirituel de divines et cælestes consolations. Remply de tres rares, doctes, et subtiles conceptions, tres propre et utile à toutes personnes, de quelque condition et qualite quelles puissent estre. Par le Chevalier de Hasteville, Docteur en sacrée Theologie, et Medicine. 1643." xvii.

The work is dedicated to Anne, Countess Dowager of Clare: and contains 35 Chapters.

"Le Livre de Gouvernement des Roys & des Princes: que frere Gile de Rome de l'ordre S. Augustin a fait: Et Henry de Gancy par le commandement de noble Roy de France a translaté de Latin en Francois."

The King was Philip III. The MS. is evidently of considerable age, & is illuminated. xiii.

"Orloge de Sapience: le quel fist frere Jehan de Soufhouze, de l'ordre des freres Prescheurs." On vellum. At the end are some Verses, which give the date 1389; and some particulars of the work, which is a translation from Latin. xiv.

A well written MS. on Vellum, containing many Verses in old French, by Sanfon de Nantuil, who gives his name in his prologue. xiv.

1. The work begins with the Proverbs of Solomon, versified in this style,

“ Les paroles comencent ici
De Salemon le fiz davi,
Ki reis de Israél est clamé
Co est de toz celx qi venient de.”

The Author gives first a Text of the Latin translation, then his versification, then other verses entitled Glose.

This part of the work is imperfect, & ends abruptly at Ver. 27, of Chap. xix. of Proverbs.

2. A tale of considerable length, in the Romance Tongue, formed on the singular plan of alternate short lines, the second of which rhyme for thirty times or more successively to the same sound. At the end is “Amen. Ici fine le fermun. Guichart de beau lui.”

3. A tale of great length also, apparently including several others; written in short couplets. It ends thus.

“ Ici fine le romanz
A fages, et as non favans.”

4. A Fabliau on the subject of Cato, beginning thus,

“ Ki volt faveur la faitement
Ke Katun a sun fiz prent,
Sen latin nel set entendre
Ci le pot en romanz aprendre.
Cum belis de quincestre
Ki deis mettet a sa destre
La translata si faitement.”

This therefore should appear to be the work of another author. At the end also this belys is mentioned, “dunt Jesus ait merci.”

4389.

“Le Roman du Roi Marc, fil du Roi Felis.” xiv.

A prose Romance, with very rude illuminations. Ex Bibl. N. I. Foucault, &c. On vellum.

4390.

A long poem in old French verse, styled in the prologue & at the end, “Le Romanz qe est apele Lumere (i. e. lumiere) a Lais,” “Light for the Laity.” It is not however any otherwise a Romance, than as being written in the Romance Tongue. It is in fact a system of Divinity, beginning at the Creation & carried on to the final Judgement. The Author seems to name himself Pieres.

“ Par Pieres puet qi cest livre fist.”

The reason of the title he thus assigns.

“ Lumere a lais l'ai nomé
Par ceo qen poent estre enluminé,” &c.

It is in six books.

A well preserved MS. on vellum. xiii.

A French MS. consisting of extensive compilations for the History of the Territory called Costentin, which is thus defined at the beginning. “Par le terme de Costentin on doit entendre les deux évêches d'Avranches et de Coutance, c'est à dire toute l'entendue de la juridiction du bailliage et du presidial de Coutance. C'est justement le canton des Gaules qui estoit autrefois appelé par les Romains Armorica civitates, quoique depuis on ait souvent entendu le Bretagne par ce terme.”

A paper book, the greater part very closely written. xvii.

Num. 4392—4397.

4392.

A curious book, beautifully printed on vellum, exactly to imitate a MS. and very elaborately illuminated. Opposite to each illumination is a short Argument in MS. written to resemble the printed part, but easily distinguished now from the fading of the Ink. There is no printers name, date, or place, nor any thing that readily marks it for a printed book, except the Signatures at the bottom of the pages. As it is addressed to Charles the 8th of France, it was probably printed in his reign; namely, between 1483 and 1498. It is a French Translation of the Story of Eurialus & Lucretia, written in Latin by Aeneas Sylvius, afterwards Pope Pius II. It begins thus,

“ En l'onneur de la faincte trinite
Louenge de vous charles roy tres chrestien
De latin en francois jay translaté
Lystoire du tresfort amoureux lien
Deurialus et de lucrese le maintien
Que en amours ont durant leur vie.
Ainsi que la descript en temps ancien
Aeneas filvius nomme pape pie”

The Translator afterwards names the King more exactly, “Charles VIII, tres chrestien roy de france.” But he does not name himself. It is probably the book mentioned by Panzer Vol. II. Parisiis N° 736, & there assigned to the year 1492, though acknowledged to be without date. Another edition is mentioned at N° 2521 but as dated 1493. xv.

4393.

Compilations in French, on the nobility, magiſtrates, & antiquities of Metz. On paper, of different ſizes. xvi.

4401.

The monkish & legendary Miracles of the Virgin Mary, in French Verſe, fairly written on vellum. Translated, as the author ſays, from the Latin.

"A la loenge et a la gloire
En remembrance et en memoire
De la reine et de la dame
Cui ge coument mon cors et maume
A jointes mains chaſcun matin
Miracles que truis en latin
Translater veil et metre en letre."

Near the beginning & in the middle are ſome Hymns to the virgin, with muſical notes. Something is wanting at the end, but probably not much. xiv.

An old French MS. fairly written on paper: containing,
1. The Quadrilogue of Alain Chartier, addreſſed to Charles 7 of France. xv.

2. The Temple of John Boccace, translated into French, with an illumination prefixed. The hand changes here, & continues to the end very different from that of the firſt tract.

3. A tract with this title. "Senſieult ung petit traictie de nobleſſe, compoſé per Jacques de Valere en langue deſpaigne, et traſlate en Franchois par maitre Hugues de Salue prevost de fournez."

4. The controverſy de Nobilitate, which is extant alſo in Latin at N° 1883. 6. where the name in the general liſt is called Bonacurſius, in the Catalogue Bonajurſus. The title here is as follows. "Jcy commenche la controverſie de nobleſſe, plaidoyée entre Publius Cornelius Scipion d'une part, et Gayus Flaminius daultre part, par ung notable docteur en loix et grand orateur nomme Surſe de Piſtoie."

5. "Chy commenche ung debat entre trois chevalereux prinches." This is on the ſame ſubject, & is ſuppoſed to be pleaded before Minos, by Alexander, Hannibal, and Scipio.

6. An old French ballad on the ſame ſubject.

"Vous yſſus de bonne maiſon, Et de gentil ſang ſucceſſeurs."

A copious table of chapters is prefixed, amounting to 238. xv.

4404.

A French MS. very fairly written, on Paper: containing;
1. The adventures of Don L'alemant de la Roche, a French Romance in verſe.

After the prologue it thus begins.

"Moult fut dom de la Roche de grañt nobilité Le gentilz alemans."

2. A Letter from Preſter John, to thé Emperor Frederic. In proſe, beginning "Preſtes Jehans par la Grace de dieu," &c.

3. A very long French Romance in verſe, entitled, "les enfances Ogier." xv.

“Le Livre des filz de Rois de France, d’Angleterre & d’Escocce dit, Le Livre & Histoire Roial.” xvi.
An historical French MS. on Paper.

A curious MS. on vellum, with illuminations, but mutilated in several parts, made for the use of the monks of St. Denis at Rouen. To prevent further mutilation, it is proper to be particular in describing its present state. It contains then,

1. The laws of the Fraternity, beginning thus. “Ci ensieuent les biens qui font fais de jour en jour en la confrarie dieu et monseigneur faint denys de rouen.”

1 & 2.

2. The Lives of St. Denis, St. Rusticus, & St. Eleutherius, also in French, but with this title, “Incipit Vita beatorum martirum dionisii, rustici, et eleutherii.”

f. 3. Here a leaf is wanting, which had part of the contents, describing four books of the work. After fol. 5. is a chasm of one leaf or more. At fol. 9. the chief part of an illumination is cut out. Fol. 12. has lost the margin, & is inserted with the wrong side of the leaf first. The first illumination on fol. 17. exhibits St. Denis carrying his head in his hand; after this, two leaves have been cut out. At fol. 19. the illumination is taken out. The whole number of leaves now remaining is 24, & more are certainly wanted at the end.

Whether these mutilations were made before the book came into this collection, or since, it is now impossible to ascertain, from the extreme brevity of the description in the former Catalogue, which consists only of these few words, “Vie de S. Denis, avec Peinctures.” The illuminations remaining are finely coloured. xv.

A French MS. on Vellum, containing the “Corps de policie” of Christine de Pisan, who married Chastel, Historiographer to Charles V. & VI. of France. The first rubric is, “Cy commence le livre du corps de policie le quel parle de vertu et de meurs: et est parti le dit livre en trois parties. La premiere partie sadrece aux princes, la seconde aux chevaliers et nobles, et la tierce a luniversité de tout le peuple.” xv.

On a blank leaf prefixed is an account of the author & her various works, written in the 17th Century, and founded on the Authority of Labbe, Naudæus, &c.

The list may be much enlarged by means of N^o 4431, which contains the chief part of her works.

A Chronicle on vellum, with illuminations much better drawn, but less coloured than usual, many being little more than outlines. The title runs thus, “Cy commencent les croniques depuis l’incarnation nostre seigneur, des papes et empereurs Romains.” The Chronicle extends from the incarnation to the year 1350. xv.

4412.

An old History of the Bible, in French; partly vellum & partly paper, with very wretched illuminations. It contains the substance of the Historical books, in this order. Genesis & the rest as far as Judges, without distinction, then the four books of Kings. Then Machabees, Judah & Thamar, Jonah, Ruth, Tobit, Daniel, Hester, the seven ages of the world, & Job. At the end is an ample table of contents. The whole comprized in 273 leaves.

On the first leaf is written “A Pierre De la rivëy, Troyen, qui a achetè ce premier volume de la Bible de

Num. 4412—4415.

Jean Oudet le jeune imprimeur a Troyes, Le Somme de Sept livres, dix Solz, en une pistole d’or d’Espagne. Le 8 Avril, 1626.” xv.

4413.

A vellum MS. finely written, and bound in Morocco, with the same arms impressed on the cover as are on N^o 4398, which are the arms of a French Count. It contains the Laws & Customs of Anjou & Maine, as that had those of Britany. xv.

Opposite to the first page is the following account of the work, written in a much more modern hand.

“Coutumes du peys d’Anjou et du Maine.

Corrigées et arretées par Vertu des lettres de René le bon, Roy de sicile, &c. Dattées du 6^{me} Dec^{bre} 1458, elles sont cy apres publiées aux grands jours d’Anjou tenus en 1462, & autorifées par autres lettres patentes dud. Roy René du mois de Janvier, 1462, dont le teneur s’ensuit.”

A little lower is written,

“L’Original desd^t Coutumes et Styles est a Paris dans le Chambre des Comptes Loyelle Anjou, dont il y a une Copie collationné devant 2 notaires (Segard, Thomas et Jullaud) de Paris, sur led^t Original, qui est entre les Mains de M^{re} Claude G^r Pocquet delisonniere Con^r du Roi, et Prof^r du droit francois en L^v d’angers. Sont les lettres pat^r cy dessus avec la q^{te} copie celley a été collationnée. Il a aussi la Compilation de M^{re} cl. liger icy citée en Marge.”

In the same hand are many notes & observations throughout the book, some of them considerable in extent.

A Paper book, containing various French tracts. xvii.

1. A Treatise on fortification in two parts. The first part containing 288 pages, the second 120.

2. Geographical accounts of various countries, as Florida, Egypt, Ethiopia, Africa, &c. extracted from several French authors.

3. Fragment of a memorial of some French Catholic, on the subject of the Protestants in that Kingdom.

4. A Paper entitled, “En quel temps les Duchez et Contez ont esté rendus héréditaires en France.”

5. Another, entitled, “Discours sur l’employ des Estrangers aux charges et dignités de ce Royaume (France.)”

6. A fragment of an official kind, but without beginning or end.

The treatise on Fortification, which appears very elaborate, (being illustrated by many well-executed diagrams) is in fact nearly complete; though, from being carelessly bound up, it seems otherwise. To facilitate the finding of the parts, a new numeration of the leaves, with red ink, is now made; according to which, their connection will thus be pursued.

The beginning is, at fol. 61 to 106.

It proceeds at fol. 1—12.

It thence goes to fol. 107—130.

Thence ——— fol. 13—24.

————— fol. 131—142.

————— fol. 25—48.

Then occurs the only real chasm, consisting of 17 pages. Continued again, at fol. 49—59.

Which is the end of part 1. The second part stands in regular order.

4415.

“Le Livre du Tresor des Histoires, depuis le commencement du Monde jusques au temps de l’empereur Tybere.” A vellum MS. in good condition. xvi.

4416. The

Num. 4416—4418.

4416.

The Fables of Æsop, and other authors, in French. xvii.

This is a curious specimen of labour. It contains a very large collection of Fables, beautifully written, on Paper; with a drawing to each, and a frontispiece, executed entirely with a pen, but in exact imitation of prints. It is the work of a person whose name was le Moine, as is mentioned in the title-page. xvii.

“Maître François le Moine, advocat en la Cour, et commis aux requêtes du Palais à Rouën, a fait ce livre, 1656.”

The author has celebrated his own work by the following Sonnet, which is prefixed to the Fables.

“Divins ouvriers dont l’artiste peinture
Fait voir au jour dexelens tableaux,
Elabourez par vos doctes pinceaux
Qui charment loeil, et passent la nature.
Dans les labours de cette portraiture
Vous adiouitez pour oster les defaux,
Et le Sculpture oste avec ses ciseaux
Pour achever sa superbe figure.
Venez ici admirer ce dessein,
Fait par la plume et conduit de la main,
Ces traits subtils qui forment cet ouvrage
Ou lon na pû adiouter ni oster,
Lors vous direz hardiment sans flater,
Que vos travaux lui doivent rendre hommage.”

The drawing is rather stiff, but the figures of birds and some other animals are finished with great delicacy. They appear to have been copied from engravings.

4417.

1. The same book as N^o 4361, differing only a little in form. The King is here called Boctus, there Botus. This has several rubrics which might furnish a title, but the clearest seems to be the following.

“Chi commence li livres le quel le rois boctus fist escrire des sciennes de sydrac, et li mist non (nom) le livre Sydrac de toutes sciennes.”

Well written, on vellum. xiv.

2. A Poem in the old Romance French, entitled, “le tournoiement antecrist.” It begins, “Nest pas useus ains fait boine oeuvre,

Li trouveres ki fa bouce oeuvre,
Pour bone oeuvre conter et dire
Mais ki bien treve plains est dire.” xiv.

An old French History, written on vellum and illuminated. It is nearly, but not entirely perfect. It begins with the Author’s prologue, “Cy commence son prologue lacteur de ce present livre.” The first page, however, is nearly illegible. In the second the author prays the aid of God, & the indulgence of the readers, & protests strongly that he writes the truth. The second leaf, containing the conclusion of this prologue, & the beginning of the table of Chapters, is wanting. The Chapters amount to 118.

The first leaf of the History is wanting, removed probably for the sake of some fine illumination. Though the author speaks so solemnly of the truth of his history, it appears to be a Romance containing the adventures of Raymondin & Melusine, who built the fortrefs of Lusignan, as is mentioned at Chap. 27. The title of “Origines de Lusignan,” which formed the whole description in the old catalogue, I cannot now discover in the book. The last leaf, containing the end of the author’s concluding chapter is wanting. The illuminations are richly coloured, & elaborate. xv.

Num. 4419—4426.

Another French Romance in prose. The hero’s name seems to be Galehom, and the time of the action coeval with King Arthur & Queen Guinever, who are soon mentioned. xiv.

The whole is fairly written on vellum, but without illuminations; & the book is one of those which belonged to the collection of the Marquis de Foucault.

“Genealogie de l’illustre Maison des Seguiers, par titres authentiques, depuis l’an 1120.”

A Paper MS. in three parts, bound together. Carried down to 1636. xvii.

“Les Plans, Profils, & Devis de l’estat des Fortresses maritimes de Provence: par F. Blondel, 1651.”

A valuable MS. dedicated by Blondel to the Count de Brienne, whose arms are on this and many other of these books. This was probably presented to him by Blondel; and by the date 1651, it must have been Henri Auguste, who was Secr^y for Foreign Affairs under Louis XIV. The family name was Lomenis. xvii.

4422.

An alphabetical table of documents relating to the Peers of France. The original title is wanting, but the traces of it remain on a leaf which preceded it & may in part be read, thus, “Divers Pieces concernant les Ducs et Pairs de France, Depuis, &c.” On Paper. xvii.

The arms impressed on the Cover are the same as on many of these French collections, namely, those of the Family of Seguiet. See N^o 4366. 7. & 8. to which this perhaps belongs.

A large alphabetical Catalogue of books, written in French, Latin, &c. marked on the Cover “Bibliopolarum Promptuarium,” but without any written title within. xvii.

4424.

A fine MS. chiefly on Paper, containing an anonymous continuation of Monstrelet’s Chronicles. The author says, in his prologue, “Je commence mon traite en l’aa mil. iv cent et xliiii. la ou fine Enguerran de Monstrelet, son second livre. Et le fine en l’an mil. iv cent lxxj.” With the printed copies of Monstrelet a different continuation is given. xvi.

4425.

A truly beautiful Copy of the Romant de la Rose: finely written on vellum, & full of the most elaborate illuminations. It contains 183 leaves, numbered throughout by the original Scribe. xv.

There are arms in the first illumination which might lead perhaps to the knowledge of the person for whom the book was written.

This poem was begun by Guillaume de Lorris, & finished by Jean de Meun, surnamed Clopinel. It appears to be complete in this copy.

A curious old MS. on paper, containing the laws of the Parliament of France. It is written in various hands, partly in French, & partly in Latin, but is foliated throughout in old figures as far as eight score & fifteen leaves (i. e. 175) marked thus, viii^{xv}. In a modern hand, on the first leaf, we are told that the old title was “Stile de la Cour de Parlement; ou quel sont contenues plusieurs choses . . . mies et notables.” There is a full and distinct table of contents prefixed. xv.

4227. An

Num. 4427—4431.

4427.

An old French translation of the 1st Decad of Livy, on vellum, and illuminated; but greatly mutilated at each end by decay; in the middle, by removing the illuminations from the 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th, and 10th, books. Those belonging to the 2d, 3d, 7th, and 9th, remain, and are evidently in a very antiquated style. xiv.

The arms on the cover are those of a Marquis of France.

4428 and 9.

An old French Chronicle in two volumes, written on paper and vellum, deducing the foundation of Paris from the Trojans. The illuminations are confined to the capital Letters which begin each reign, & these contain generally the portrait of the Sovereign whose reign then commences. It extends to the year 1461. The Author's name does not appear. xv.

From the Collection of the Count de Brienne.

A more modern Copy, on paper, of the same work, which we have so finely written on vellum, at N^{os} 4372, & 3, and 4374, & 5, namely, the French translation of Valerius Maximus, by Simon de Hesdin. The present is only a first Volume, and contains but four books out of nine. There has been a large illumination prefixed to each book, but that belonging to the third book is wanting, with so much of the text as was written on that leaf. The illuminations are highly coloured, but rather in a coarse style. xv.

In every Copy of this translation there are large additions by the translator, intermixed with the work, & distinguished by the words, Acteur or Translatcur prefixed.

A beautiful & magnificent volume, containing a large part of the works of Christine de Pisan (See N^o 4410) written on vellum, and most richly & amply illuminated. xv.

It contains 30 articles enumerated in the table prefixed, & marked throughout the book. The table of Contents is thus prefaced,

“Cy commence la table des dictiez en general, balades, rondiaux, et autres particuliers livres, qui sont contenus en ce present volume.”

This title should be given also in the original form, “Item, une assemblée de plusieurs rimes auques toutes leonimes en façon de lay, a qui voudroit apprendre a rimer leoniment.” Leonimes and not Leonines was the old French word, for a peculiar sort of exact rhyme. 26. A prayer to our Lady. 267.

27. “Les 15 joyes notre dame.” The 15 Joys of the blessed Virgin. 269.

28. The book of Prudence. “Le livre de prudence, a l'enseignement de bien vivre.” 270.

29. The City of Dames. 292.

30. An hundred ballads of a Lady & her Lover. 376.

This book, which seems originally to have been written for some exalted personage, has a mark in it which shews that it was once also in the collection of the Duke of Newcastle. This is a paper, originally part of an external leaf, on which is written “Henry Duke of Newcastle his booke 1676.” To whom it had belonged in France does not appear. It contains 398 leaves. xv.

The author wrote, as her dedications, &c. prove, in the reigns of Charles V. & Charles VI. of France. She was an Italian by birth, originally of Pisa, but married to Jean Chastel. Her father also was an Author, Thomas de Pifano. The present volume is undoubtedly of great value & curiosity, as many of the pieces here contained are not mentioned in the usual catalogues of the author's works, yet here are marked with her name, or other sufficient demonstrations of coming from her. The illuminations preceding each article, contain representations of the Poets, whether portraits or not may be matter of enquiry. Her Tract “Des fays d'Armes” occurs at N^o 4605, in a beautiful Copy.

“Affaires Estrangeres d'Angleterre, Escosse, Alemagne, Pais bas, Suisse, Espagne, Rome, Venise, Savoye, Turquie, et Frontieres Marines.” On Paper. Very fairly written. xvii.

[4435—4448. Quarto.]

A large collection of tracts, in French, written in different hands, & of various sizes, marked on the first leaf with the name Priezac. The collection is continued through N^{os} 4436—4442.

The present volume contains,

1. “Traité des grands Officiers de France, du Connestable, du Chancelier, & de l'Admiral.”
2. “Question Politique si un Prince Chrestien peut contracter Alliance avec les Infidelles.”
3. “—— si un Prince souverain peut, sans bleffer les droits de sa Couronne, deferer dans ses Estates a un autre Souverain.”

7. The second part of a tract, on the empire of Charlemagne. It has this title, "Etablissement de l'empire de Charlemagne. Second partie. De l'invasion des Gaules par divers peuples, dont l'origine est rapportée particulièrement des François, des Gots, et des Bourguignons." The first part is in N° 4436. 20.

8. De eloquentia Tractatus, eum titulo hoc ampliore. "De Eloquentia civili, heroicâ, et humanâ.—De umbratili Eloquentiâ Rhetorum, qui cum orationis blanditiis affectantes multo tempore floruerunt, decreto fuere condemnati; unde postea Latini non Rhetores sed patroni et advocati voluerunt appellari. Eloquentes Oratores palmis tanquam Victores, statuis tanquam heroës, et delubris tanquam divinitates olim donati. Cur paucissimi sint eloquentes, disertis vero plurimi."

9. Several political discussions on the origin of Government, & the parts of it, without a general title.

20. A piece entitled, "Mémoires de l'immortalité de l'Âme." On the other side of the leaf the author explains his intention, which was, "Ramasser succinctement tous les plus beaux passages qui soient en l'Écriture, pour prouver l'immortalité de l'âme, et les plus belles pensées que les Pères aient eu sur ce sujet."

11. "Si les Roys doivent communiquer à leurs Femmes l'autorité de leur Sceptre."

This Volume is apparently transcribed throughout in one hand, but from what original is not clear.

A large volume written on paper, containing matters not much related, & confused in the binding. In French, Italian, & Latin. On one of the outer leaves is written, "pieces sur diverses matieres;" with a memorandum subjoined, "a faire une table."

1. Fourteen leaves, not included in the old paging, containing various theological discussions in French. They seem imperfect, & are written in various hands. At fol vii. is one entitled "de l'Eucharistie." On the outside they are marked "Concionabilia."

2. Sermons on all the festivals of the year, from fol. 1. to 317 incl. and continued at fol. 512 to the beginning of N° 4. where the theological matters terminate abruptly.

3. "Paratitla, five series omnium titulorum Decretorum seu Pandectarum, in septem partes divisa." From fol. 317* to 510 incl. This, however, is only a transcript of N° 4, & has suffered many transpositions, which are marked by some former possessor at the bottom of the pages. It appears imperfect.

Num. 4438, 4439.

4. The same tract, entitled "Paratitla;" apparently complete, but disfigured by many transpositions, which however might be set right, by means of the catch word which is placed at the bottom of each leaf. The leaves of this part not numbered.

An account of the contents, & some of the transpositions is written at the beginning, in French.

Another volume of the Seguier collection. At the beginning is written, "Memoires tres corrects et tres curieux," and subjoined, "à relire et à faire une table." The table has accordingly been made, & is very copious. The Catalogue here subjoined is taken partly from that table of Contents, and partly from the titles of the pieces themselves, where they appeared more satisfactory.

1. "Traité de confederation et Alliance de Jacques Roy de la Grande Bretagne avec aucuns Electeurs et Princes d'Allemagne, pour la conservation des duchés de Juliers, Cleves, Berg, et autres Seigneuries. A Wesel l'an 1612. le 28 Mars."

2. "Proposition de la part de l'Empereur Mathias aux Etats Généraux de l'empire d'Allemagne a Ratisbonne. L'an 1613. Le 13 Mars."

3. "Traité du Roy avec l'Electeur de Treves, pour la protection de l'archevêché de Treves, et le deposit entre les mains de sa Ma^{te} des ferts de Hermenstein, et de Philipsbourgh, jusque a ce qu'il y ayt traité de paix finale en Allemagne: a Hermenstein l'an 1632. le 9 Avril."

4. "Articles convenus et accordés entre S. A. serenissime de Treves, et S. E. Monf. le Marquis de Chaumont, Lieutenant général pour S. M. en son pais de Provence, et en ses armées d'Allemagne, pays Messin, et Champagne."

5. "Protestatio et petitio Domini Archiepiscopi Treviren. Principis, Electoris, pro se, Capitule, et Archidiecefi sua, et toto Romano Imperio, ad Dños Legatos et ablegatos Ma^{te} Christianissimæ."

6. "Renouvellement de Confederation et alliance entre Louis 13 Roy de France, de le Roiaume de France d'un part, et Christine Reine de Suede, et de Royaume de Suede d'autre part, pour le recouvrement de la liberté des princes et estates d'Allemagne. A Heilbron l'an 1633 le 9 Avril."

7. "Extrait du Traité de Confederation et Alliance de Christine Reyne de Suede et de la couronne de Suede, avec les Etats Evangeliques des cercles, et Provinces des Electorats du Rhin, de Franconie, Sueve, et de la haute Province du Rhin, contre l'empereur Ferdinand II. le Duc de Baviere, et autres Princes et etats de la Ligue Cath. Conformement a l'avis et exhortation du Roy. A Heilbron l'an 1623. le 13 Avril."

8. "La conspiration du duc de Fridland contre sa Majesté imperiale de Vienne en Autriche le 4 Mars 1634." In the margin, "Relation de la mort de Valstein envoye de la part du S^r de S^r Julien qui estoit tant en ses bonnes graces."

9. "Lettres du duc de Saxe, et du Roy de Dannemark au Chancelier Oxenstiern, et à l'assemblée de Francfort tenue en Avril 1634."

10. "Lettres de l'Empereur Ferdinand II. au duc Charles de Lorraine du 17 Octobre 1633."

11. "Proposition faite en l'assemblée tenue a Frankfort, en Mars et Avril 1634."

12. "Ce que les Deputés del'Electeur de Saxe ont remontré le 3 May dernier, a l'Assemblée des princes et Etats Evangeliques d'Allemany qui se tient a Frankfort."

13. "Harangue de M. L'Ambassadeur de France, en la dite assemblée, pour exhorter les princes et Etats protestans avec Union generale." 1639.

14. "Lettre

Num. 4439.

14. "Lettre de l'Empereur à son Ambassadeur à Rome, pour représenter au Pape, que le Traité de pacification pour la Religion avec l'Electeur de Saxe, fait à Prague l'an 1635 le 3 May, est à l'avantage de la Religion Catholique. Et que s'il n'a obtenu quelque chose de plus il en a été empêché par le Roy de France, joint le peu d'assistance qu'il a eu de sa Sainteté. A Baden en Autriche l'an 1635 le 8 Juin." 36. b.

15. "Lettera dell' A. G. C. B. sopra li presenti di Guerra, dopò la morte del Ré di Suecia." 41.

16. "Lettres du Roy et de la Reyne sa mere, à Monsieur d'Abain Sr. de la Rocheposay, leur Ambassadeur à Rome, depuis l'an 1576, jusques à l'an 1580. Vol. 1. CIΩICXXX." 41.

Prefixed is a Latin harangue by Muretus, with this French title, "Harangue d'obedience faicte par M. Antoine Muret." This transcript, which is very fair, terminates abruptly at 99. b.

17. "Il Disfinganno. Risposta a Don Diego de Aedo, e Gagliarte di Toscia Modero Generose. Si manifesta la Verita de' Complimenti seguiti tra l'Serenissimo Cardinal Infante Don Ferdinando D'Austria, E'l Serenissimo Duce, et Excellentissimi Senatori, e procuratori della serenissima Republica de Genova. In Torino, MDCXXXVII." 102.

18. "Lettera scritta A. S. M. Cesareo dal marescial di campo, Sig. conte Piccolomini, sopra la vittoria da lui ottenuta contro l'esercito Francese sotto Thionville. Li sette Guigno, 1639." 118.

19. "Discorso sopra il manifesto è lettera supposta e finta, che va intorno in nome del Re christianissimo, scritta al Duca de Mont-bafon, Governatore et Luogotenente de Paris e l'Isle (sic) de Francia. Per Monsignore n. Legato di n. invitato dall' eminentissimo è reverendiss. Signore Cardinale n. Stampato in S. Marino con licenza del Senato. Anno 1635." 134.

20. "Memoires concernant la Savoye, pendant les années 1608, 1609, 1610, et 1611, &c." 180.

21. "Des Estats et Empire du Turc." 228.

22. "Memoires historiques et Geographiques." 243.

23. "Diverses pieces d'estats concernans le Gouvernement de Henry 2. François 2. et Charles 9. plusieurs desquelles ont esté tirées sur les Originalz."—marked below, on the page, "Vol. 86. A."—The particulars of many of these papers are specified in the table of contents but not of all; they are now however numbered on in the book, so far as they correspond with that table of contents, but not further; namely, from this number 23, to 52 inclusive. 262—388.

53. "Discorso intorno à quello che potrà succedere nella presente guerra in Italia, fra l'Ingegnerò Molina, Francese, et il Sigr. Proveditor Generale di Terra firma per la Republica di Venetia 1625. Dialogo tra l'Eccellentissimo. Proveditor e il Sigr. Gasparo Molina Ingegnerò famoso Francese." 390.

54. "Ballo de' Principi d'Europa, dialogato tra Pasquino e Marforio." 426.

55. "Relatione Efattissima di tutte le Rendite ordinarie cavate da tutte le Citta e Castella della Rep^a di Venetia fatta del 1621 Mayo. Ove si racconta sopra quali Gabelle siano fondate, et quanto si paghi per ognà Gabella." 429.

56. "Sommario de' Capitoli li quali furono giurati per li Cardinali in Conclave, dopò la morte di Gregorio xv. è da esser ancor giurati dopò per il Pontefice che serà eletto. Che si habbia da conservare la pace trà li Principi Christiani, per aiuto all' Imperat^o nelle presente guerra." 459.

The state papers included between pages 262 and 388 may deserve a minute examination from any person occupied in French History.

Num. 4440, 4441.

4440.

Another volume of the same collection. This volume has a table prefixed, in the same hand as the former, but, from what reason is uncertain, the first articles here mentioned are totally unnoticed.

1. A Letter in Italian, fairly transcribed, from Paulo Sadoletto, to Cardinal Bellay, dated Carpentras 14 July 1620.

2. "Lettre écrite de Bruxelles le dernier Janvier, 1632."

3. "Des Flateurs, medifans," &c.

4. "Table d'Angleterre."

5. "Table des extraicts de plusieurs pieces concernant le mariage d'Angleterre, es années 1624 et 1625." This seems to refer to the article following, but is written very obscurely.

6. "Extraicts de plusieurs Actes, Lettres, Instructions, et memoires concernant le mariage d'Angl. es années, 1624 et 1625." This is the first article noticed in the table prefixed, which afterwards is followed, but a general paging is much required.

7. "Extraits de la negotiation du Marquis de Blainville en Angleterre, es années 1624 et 25. presté par Monf. Dupuy."

8. "Extraicts du 402 Volume touchant l'affaire de la Valteline, qui est la Negotiation du Mareschal de Basompierre en Espagne." At the end is a copious table, but written very obscurely.

9. "Memoire touchant les evechés de Metz, Thoul, Verdun, Abbaye de Gorze, et de St. Arnoul, de Metz, et contenant aussi quelques particularités de la Lorraine."

10. "Relation de la Lorraine."

11. A copious table, referring apparently to the subsequent collections, & entitled, "Table des principales choses contenues dans les extraits que j'ay fait de plusieurs volumes manuscrits, touchant les affaires de la Lorraine."

12. "Extrait du Volume 204 de Monsieur du Puy, touchant les affaires de la Lorraine."

13. "Extraits du Vol. 206 Volume du Monf. du Puy, touchant Neufchastel en Lorraine, Bar, Barrois, et Commercy."

14. Extraits du Vol. 209, touchant les affaires de Lorraine, presté par Monf. du Puy."

15. "Extraits des Registres du Parlement, du Mercredi 5 Sept^r 1601."

16. "Relation de ce qui s'est passé touchant le traité fait avec Monsieur le Duc de Lorraine l'an 1633, pour le deposit de Nancy."

18. "Declaration du Roy, contre le Duc de Lorraine."

19. "Autre declaration du Roy contre le même duc."

4441.

From the same collection. The table prefixed to this volume enumerates the articles contained, without referring to the pages, according to this notice; "Cette table se compte par les mémoires, et non par les feuillets."

1. "L'idée du Politique tres chrétien, au Roy tres Chrestien." On the first leaf is written, "C'est à l'avantage du Cardinal Armand de Richelieu," whom in fact it mentions at the end, as the example of the pre-

* On comparing this hand with that which appears in those dispatches of the Count de Brienne which he has only signed, it appears that it is the hand of his Secretary (see particularly in N^o 4540.) If so, it will appear that these, as well as the numbers following, to 4525, were originally collected by M. de Brienne, & came afterwards to the Chanc. Seguier.

Num. 4441—4444.

cepts laid down. This also is prefixed, "Cet Ouvrage a esté leu et approuvé des Docteurs que Monsieur le Chancelier a commis à la Censure des Livres." It is very fairly transcribed, & contains 103 Chapters, besides an address, "au Lecteur."

2. The second book of a Poem in Latin Hexameters entitled, "Hercules Gallicus." A dedication in French is prefixed, addressed to the Queen Regent, & signed Maffol. In the Catalogue of the printed books in the French King's Library he is called Maffolæus, & it there appears that the work was printed in 1642 & 3, and that a fifth book entitled "Gravelinga" was added in 1647.

3. "Extrait des Politiques d'Aristote; imperfect, extending only to Ch. 3. of Book 3. out of eight books.

4. "Des Ceremonies de la Messe solemnel, selon les rubriques du Missel Romain."

5. Treatises on Virtues & Vices, in Latin, of which the following account is given in the Table prefixed. "Des vertues et des Crimes, selon que l'on les doit considerer pour son Salut, avec les reflexions des Peres et autres grands hommes, pour faire voir la beauté des unes, et la difformité des autres:—Ces Traités regardent particulièrement la maniere de se confesser."

They are very fairly transcribed, and contain some disquisitions purely theological, in detached pieces.

6. "Dessain perpetuel des Espagnols à la Monarchie universelle, avec les preuves d'iceluy; MDC. XXIV." The table of contents, copying the second title of the piece, says, "ou Progres des conquestes du Roy d'Espagne et maison Autriche en Allemagne, Suisses, Grisons, Italie, et frontieres de la France, depuis la mort de Henry IV."

7. "De antiquitate civitatis Tornacensis (Tournay.) Anonymus Canonicus Tornacensis. Ex bibliotheca Benedictorum S. Martini Tornaci Nerviorum." Ad finem sunt, "Epicedia veterum in Obitum B. Gofvini."

8. "Les fausses démarches de la France, sur la Negotiation de la paix." The table of contents adds, "Discours fait apres la Prise de la Franche-Comté."

4442.

"Lettres de divers Officiers à le Chancelier Seguier, depuis 1659 jusq'à 1661." These are the original Letters, docketed & placed in order. A very curious collection to a French Historian.

4443.

"Negociation de Monsieur Arnauld, Abbé de St. Nicholas, Envoyé du Roy de France à Rome, depuis le 29^e Decembre 1645 jusques au 13^e May 1648." A tract uniformly & fairly written. One of the books marked Le Comte.

4444.

A book fairly written, in 309 pages. Prefixed is an "Epistre au Roy" pag. 1. &c. signed B. It is in two parts, & the principal Contents are as follows.

Premiere partie.

1. Memoire sur les liaisons de la France avec la Hollande a cause du Commerce. 5.

2. De l'origine de la venalité des charges de Judicature, et de Finance. 19.

3. De l'origine des biens d'Eglise, et de leur usage. 29.

4. Des Droits et pretensions de la Cour de Rome. 65.

5. De l'union inseparable des Interests du Roy avec ceux de ses Sujets. 85.

6. Des Interests de la France a l'esgard des Estats de l'Europe. 97.

Seconde Partie.

7. Projet, pour soutenir la guerre avec les seuls revenus du Roy. 133.

8. Des Conseils particuliers. 172.

Num. 4444—4446.

10. Des Conservateurs des Hypotheques pour les immeubles. 204.

11. Pour assister les pauvres. 212.

12. De l'existence de Dieu, l'immortalité de l'Ame, Verité de la Religion, & croiance des Chrestiens. 126, &c.

13. Memoire sur l'estat de France, l'an 1699. 294.

14. ——— pour la conduite des Armées, 1702. 308.

N.B. This is bound up with N^o 3331.

4445.

A book, marked Le Comte, containing various French tracts.

1. "Consultation sur la renonciation de la Reine Marie Therese a le Couronne d'Espagne, le cas arrivant. par J. Doujat." xvii.

2. "Defense de droits de la Reine Marie Therese sur sept Provinces des Pais Bas. Pour servir de Responce à un Traité Latin intitulé, 'Deductio ex qua probatur clarissimis argumentis non esse jus Devolutionis in Ducatu Brabantia,' &c. Par Jean Doujat, Advocat au Parlement, Docteur Regent, et premier Professeur du Roy en Droit en l'universite de Paris, Historiographe de sa Majesté."—137 Pages with a table of contents.

3. Another tract on the same subject, by the same Author. An abridgement of the former; "Traite abregé des droits de la Reyne, &c."

4. "Question de Droit, si le Roy a pu traiter de la Lorraine avec le Duc Charles: par J. Doujat."

5. Inventaire des MSS. de la Bibliotheque de la Chancelier Seguier." This is obscurely written, but may throw a light on that Collection.

6. Observations generales pour la reformation du Clergé."

7. "Sur les Articles du Clergé, presentés l'an 1666."

8. "De la puissance du Roy dans les choses Ecclesiastiques. Sur les articles presentés par le Clergé en Janvier 1666." This also appears to be by Doujat, & is in four Parts. 1. De l'onction des Rois. 2. De quelle maniere sont jugés les Evesques. 3. Si le Roy peut ou droit reprendre à soy la nomination de quelques Abbayes regulieres. 4. De la reformation de la Justice, &c.

9. "Des crimes." An abridgement of the general law on Crimes; apparently by Doujat.

One of the Books marked Lecomte. A Collection of imperfect tracts relating to Natural Philosophy & Chemistry. In French. xvii.

1. A discussion on Philosophical topics, but imperfect, both at the beginning & end.

2. In a very different hand; "Suite de la connoissance de Nature et des melanges."

3. A tract on Natural Philosophy, beginning at p. 7. and extended to 366, with some intermediate chafms.

4. "Diverses experiences de Monf. de la Violette, dit Quetctan, touchant la medicine, ensemble plusieurs communications qui luy ont esté faites de divers grandes personnages."

5. Two leaves: the first an unconnected fragment, the second an analysis of the first Chapter of Genesis, entitled, "Portes d'Intelligence." It is thus managed, "1. Dieu, 2. au commencement, 3. crea, 4. le ciel, 5. la terre, 6. la terre estoit sans forme, 7. vuide, 8. L'esprit de Dieu estoit espandu sur les eaux," &c. extended in this way to 50 articles.

"Plaidé"

Num. 4447—4449.

4447.

“Plaidé de Maître Clement Vaillant advocat en parlement, contre maître Jehan Leroy, Conseiller au parlement.”

Fairly written on Paper. Marked Lecomte.

“Collectiones Juridicæ, ab Augusto Galland, anno ætatis 17. A.D. 1621”.

They are very miscellaneous; partly written in French, & partly in Latin.

[4449—4472. Folio.]

4449.

A large volume of papers, evidently belonging to the Seguier collection, & indexed by the same hand in which the tables are drawn up to N^o 4436 et seqq.

1. “Bulle d’Alexandre 3, l’an 1170, qui confirme a l’eglise d’Angres divers privileges: a qui les Evêques consentent.”

2. “Acte par la quelle la Comtesse Adelaide fille du Marquis Manfrede donne la meilleure partie de ses biens au Monastere de S^{te} Marie du St. Veram.”

3. “Censure contre le livre intitulé Optatus Gallus, l’an 1640.” A printed paper, the title only written.

4. “Epistola circularis, &c. Cardinalium Parisiis degentium, de libertate Ecclesiæ Gallicanæ.”

4467.

A miscellaneous volume, of the Seguier Collection. This volume has the leaves numbered as far as 45. b. where the last tract begins, and has a table of Contents drawn up in the same hand as the other books of the same description, but, as the references do not express the most important division of the book, they are not here followed.

1. Poësie, Essays Poëtiques des années 1626—1631. par les Louys Machon (ou Maschon) This collection is in two books, the second of which begins at fol. 58. On fol. 47—56 are several poems, written in the inverted way of the leaves.
2. "Calendrier perpetuel et annuel, auquel est comprise toute la philosophie naturelle et superstitieuse des escraignes 1628." 67.
3. "Conceptions diverses sur plusieurs bons auteurs." 1626, 1627. L. M. i. e. Louis Machon, 85. This tract contains 52 pages. In it, at fol. 109. b. is a discussion, which the person who drew up the table of Contents has thought worthy of particular mention, "pourquoy les pauvres vivent plus long temps que les riches." It begins by citing M. Joubert.
4. Two tracts by L. Machon, of which the second seems to consist chiefly of the heads of the subject. They bear nearly the same title, except that the title to the second is fuller, for which reason it is here inserted; "Traité politique, des differens ecclesiastiques arrivés depuis la commencement de la monarchie, jusques à present, tant entre les papes et les Roys de France que le clergé de leur Roiaume. Par Louis Machon, grand prevost de Saint Dien, Archidiacre de Port, et chanoine de l'eglise cathedrale de Toul, &c. A Paris 1647." 143. 168. The heads of three books on this subject are drawn up in the latter tract. N° 14.
5. "3 Caier de pieces diverses 1647." f. 219. Two articles in this collection are particularly noticed by the French author of the table of Contents. 1. "Avertissement touchant le Grand Prevosté de S. Dien." 220. 2. "Des bornes et limites de l'ancienne Lorraine et des usurpations desdits Ducs sur les trois Eveschés de Metz, Toul, et Verdun." 255. b. By Machon also. This Cabier contains 82 pages.
6. "4 Caier de pieces differentes, 1648." Of 65 written pages. The articles specified in this are, 1. "De l'Abbaye de Remirement." f. 281. b. 2. "Qu'un Benedictin reformé ne peut tenir ny posseder aucun Prieuré simple, ny aucun Benefice en titre." 283.
7. Another Collection, though the previous mark does not remain. It is said in the table of Contents to be "Recueils de l'histoire de France, commençant par la Ligue." 313. The Collections are extended through 160 pages, and there terminate abruptly.
8. A small fragment of an illustration of Solomon's Song. See N° 12. 393.
9. A Letter from L. Machon to a Lady, dated 1641. 339.
10. "Sentences et maximes differentes." On 32 pages. 403.
11. "Sermons

Num. 4467, 4468.

11. "Sermons diverses, et fujets de Sermons. Louys Machon 1626, 1627." 419.

12. Twelve Pages of a Comment on Solomon's Song, by Machon: dated 1637. Inverted in the Book.

13. "Histoire. Louys Machon 1627." The Table of Contents says, "Histoire universelle, ou reflexions sur ce qui s'est passé depuis le commencement du monde." 436. These Reflections on universal History occupy only a few Pages.

14. A Part, but imperfect, of the Book the Title of which is given at length in No. 4. The Fragment here remaining, which appears to be a fair Transcript in a different Hand, is so placed that it begins with the Second Book, of which Two Chapters are given, but end abruptly. Then follows the Third Chapter of Book I. which is continued to its regular Termination.

The whole Collection seems to have been the Work of Louis Machon, so often mentioned in the separate Parts.

A very miscellaneous Volume of the Seguier Collection, containing Papers of all Sizes bound up together. There is a Table of Contents, in the same Hand as usual, but not quite perfect; for which reason it is not implicitly followed in this Account.

1. "Ancien traité du Blazon, avec les Armes des Princes, Pays, et Grands Seigneurs, tant de France qu'ailleurs."

2. "Les monnoyes des Barons et Prelats de France. L'attentes pour monnoyes de Dombes. Responces aux gens du Duc de Bretagne sur le fait de ces monnoyes. Taxes des Commissaires pour le Roy, beaucoup moindres qu'à present." A short Treatise, beautifully written, with Delineations of Coins elegantly sketched with a Pen.

3. "Philopatris, ou le Normand pour pais." The Table of Contents adds, "C'est une diffense de la Province de Normandie, du temps de la revolte des vauds-pieds."

4. "Traité que je crois estre de la main de M. du Puys, Qu'il est permis de porter les armes pour un Prince de diverse Religion, et de s'allier avec luy."

5. "Observations Morales et Politiques sur les Annales de Corn. Tacite." A Tract of some length, very fairly written, beginning always with a Text of the Author, and subjoining a French Note. Subjoined is a Plan, "du Batiment des Jesuites," not noticed in the Table of Contents, and not seeming to refer to any thing in the Volume.

6. A Narrative of M. de Castellan, sent to Cardinal Richelieu, with the following Title, "Relation que je fais à Monseigneur de toutes les choses qu'il me souvient qui se font passées dans l'Armée commandée par Monfieur le Comte d'Arcourt, et Mons' le Marechal de Vitry, depuis le premier dessein que l'on fit d'attaquer les Illes de S^c Marguerite et S^c Honorat, jusques apres la prise desdits Illes."

7. "Du franc Discours du S^r Arnaud contre la puissance d'Espagne et ses partisans."

8. "Traité fait par feu M^r le duc d'Orleans en 1634 avec le Roy d'Espagne."

9. "Copie de la Commission donnée par le Roy a Mons^r Cardinal de Richelieu allant en Italie."

10. "Lettre, ou avis du Duc de Lerme, pour se maintenir en faveur et autorié pres de son maitre."

11. "Copies de quelques Lettres du Roy a M^g le Duc d'Orleans, lorsqu'il s'eloigna de la Cour."

12. "Memoires des villes rebelles et Languedoc et Guienne."

13. "Relation du Siege d'Angers." To this are subjoined several Papers containing Accounts of what passed in the years 1651 & 1652, entered in the Table of Contents 13. bis.

14. "Articles accordez entre M. le Marechal d'Hocquincourt, Lieutenant-general de l'Armée du Roy, servant pres de la personne de sa Majesté, et employé presentement au Siege d'Angers, et Monseig^r le duc de Rohan.

15. "Response de M. le P. President aux deputez de Parlement. M. le President de Mesmes portant le parole a Sully, au fujet de la faveur qu'ils donnoient aux fujets rebelles a sa Majesté.

16. "Inventaire par ordre alphabetique des pieces imprimees pendant les troubles de la France excitez par le Cardinal Mazarin. Anneé 1649." That is, what was called the Fronde."

17. "Responce au discours sur l'entreveu du Cardinal Mazarin avec Mons^r d'Hocquincourt."

18. "Copie de la Lettre escrite par M. le Card. Mazarin a la Reyne, lorsque sa Majesté luy ordonna de fortir de France."

19. "Quelques Lettres originales de M^g le Prince a M. de Croissy pendant les troubles de la Fronde, et quelques autres pieces dont une est une espece de deposition contre M. le Marechal de Rantzau."

20. "Inventaire des pieces qu'ont esté faites pendant les troubles excitez a cause des desordres que le Mazarin a fait naître dans les affaires de l'estat, et finances de France, ez anneés 1648 et 1649." Several of the Inventories of Tracts published during the Fronde, are here put together.

21. "Harangue de M^g le Prince aux Soldats des armeés du Roy, avant la defaite de M^r de Soubize à l'isle de Ré; avec autres harangues de M. de Guise et au Cardinal de Richelieu."

22. "Relation de ce qui se passa au Parlement, lorsque Mes^r des Enquestes voulurent entrer, et estre appellés a la grande chambre, a l'instigation des S^r Lainé et Foucault Cons^r desdits Enquestes."

23. "Harangue hardie de M. Bignon au Roy, lorsqu'il alla aud^t Parlement pour la verification de quelques edits."

24. "Lettre en forme de Remonstrance, envoié au Roy, par le Marechal de Marillon." 1632.

25. "Lettre de Roy a Mons^r son frere (le Duc d'Orleans) du 5^{me} May 1631."

26. "Extract de la ligue et Confederation faite entre la France et le Roy de Suede."

27. "Articles de paix, entre l'empereur et le Roy de France, pour le Montserrat et le Mantouan."

28. "Lettre de Cachet du Roy au Parlement, avec un arret de Conseil contre le dit Parlement, au fujet de la Sortie de France de M^g le duc d'Orleans 12 May 1631."

29. "Declaration, de son Alteze touchant la guerre contre la couronne de France. A Bruxelles, chez la Vefve d'Hubert Anthoine Valpius, Imprimeur juré de la Court, a l'aigle d'or pres de fallanz 1635. Avec privilege." Copied evidently from a printed Tract. The Alteze in question is Ferdinand Infant of Spain.

30. "Lettre a la Reine."

31. The Order of the Troops under the Marechals la Force, Schomberg, & Marillac 1630.

32. "Luctus Mantuzæ," a Copy of Latin Verses.

33. "Articles entre le Cardinal & Monseigneur de Bassompierre." 1630.

34. "Harangue de M. le Chanc^r Seguier au nonce Bagny, sur les mauvaises intentions du Pape contre la France, et ses procedis contre la Maison des Barberini."

36. "Harangue, que la Reputacion du Juste est plus folide et plus legitime que celle du Vaillant."

37. "Epietre consolatoire, ou fomentation de douleurs sur un mescontentement de Mariage."

38. "Raison pour monstrer que l'Authour anonyme qui a tenu que Theodoric d'Alface a esté duc de haute Lorraine, et que les Princes Lorrains descendent d'ice-luy, se trompe, estant malfondé en ses pretensions, a raison de quoy on le peut convaincre de mensonge, et accuser de calomnie, et de profonde ignorance en l'Histoire de Lorraine."

39. "Jugement sur l'Histoire de Pays-Bas, du Cardinal Bentiveoglio."

40. "Catalogo delli Libri che si mandano in Fiandra, par l'Illustr^{mo} Signor Baron d'Ognies."

41. "Discorso sopra li presenti movimenti," a Sort of Psalm, in Latin and Italian, mixed.

42. A Latin Inscription, &c. on the Town of Verruë.

43. A Copy of Latin Hexameters, "in Rupellæ obfidionem," with Epigrams, &c.

44. A Catalogue of Italian Books.

45. "Al Illustr^{mo} et Eccles^{mo} Sign^{re} Don Gonzales di Cordova, Gover^{re} del Stato di Milano, Config^o del Consiglio di State et Guerra di S. M. et Capitano Gener^{le} delle sue Arme in Italia."

46. "Testamento della Città di Candia, copia tratta da S. Pasquino, Notaro Publico."

47. A Copy of Italian Verses, in 106 Stanzas, with some other Poems in that Language.

48. "D'un prestre qui fist un enfant a une femme," apparently imperfect.

49. A Fragment of a Copy of Latin Verses, beginning with a Pentameter—

"Responfura tuis carmina, petra, legas."

50. "Liste des Officers, Sergens, et Soldats tuéz ou blesséz, tant dans l'attaque de la Ville qu'a la bataille d'Infanterie."

51. Advices from Nantes and Thouars, 1674.

52. "Oratio Dominica, versibus Hexametris reddita," with other Compositions of a similar kind.

A Catalogue, or rather the Materials for a Catalogue, of the Library of the Chancellor Seguier, 1645. There is a List of Titles, an alphabetical Table of the Titles, another of the Names of Authors; and then a Catalogue of 571 Pages, divided into six Parts, called Caiers, being so many Classes of the Collection. It cannot, however, be considered as a finished Catalogue.

4470.

Reports in consequence of an Inspection into the Public Accounts of Britany, by the Duc de Chaulnes, under the Royal Authority. They are entered under the Heads of the following Places, and referred to in a general Table by the Leaves of the Volume, which extend to 223. The Dates run from 1671 to 1685. The Places are Ploermel, f. 3; Saint Malo, 27; Redon, 51; Dol, 77; Vitré, 125; Josselin, 149; Guingant, 177; Malestroit, 199; La Guerche, 220.

The Titles of the Duke, Inspector, are placed at Length before the first Report. "Charles d'Ally, Duc de Chaulnes, Pair de France, Vidame d'Amiens, Chevalier des Ordres du Roy, Gouverneur et Lieutenant General des Pais et Duché de Bretagne, et des Camps et Armées de sa Majesté."

A Volume of the Seguier Collection, indexed by the same Person as the rest, not with perfect Accuracy, but so nearly so, as to be followed in general here. The Numbers subjoined refer to the Leaves.

1. "Memoires des troubles d'Allemagne, depuis l'an 1610, jusques l'an 1631." 1.
2. "Voyage de M. Longueville a Munster, avec ses receptions." 7.
3. "Voyage de Hollande fait par Madame et Mad^{ie} de Longueville en 1646." 25.
4. "Voyage de M. de Longueville a Osnabruck, le 17 Septembre 1646." 37.
5. "Voyage fait a Warendorf le 16 Novembre 1646." 41.
6. "Visites en Cerémonie de M. de Longueville a Messrs. les Mediateurs a Munster." 45. b.
7. "Voyage de Cologne." 47.
8. "L'Ordre des Ambass^{rs} assemblés a Munster, et a Osnabruck, pour la paix Generale en l'année 1647." 60.
9. "Memoire des Ambass^{rs} de Suede a Osnabruck pour les Saufconduits de l'Empereur aux Etats de l'Empire, et aux particuliers." 63.
10. "Proposition des Plenipotentiaires de France a ceux de Hollande, touchant les Traités avec l'Espagne." 70.

17. "Role des Comtes, Seigneurs, et Gentilshommes, avec leurs Residences, fiefs et Vilages." 103.
18. "Abregé des droits de France sur l'Etat de Milan." 100.
19. "De la difficultè que fait le Conseil de Suede, de traiter de paix avec l'Empereur, sans l'aveu et consentement des Princes de l'Empire." 115.
20. "Premiere proposition du S^r de Sabran a l'Empereur." 117.
21. "Responſe a tous les Articles de la declaration premiere de l'Empereur." 119. b.
22. "Ultima resolutio Casarea ad replicam ablegati Gallia." 122. b.
23. "Lettres de M. de Servien a M. d'Avaux." 125. So it is described in the Table of Contents, but at the Head of the Article itself is written "Autre Lettre dud^e S. &c."
24. "Responſe de M. de Servien a la Lettre Imperieuse qu'il pretend luy avoir esté écrite par M^r d'Avaux." 131. This Letter extends to 130 Pages, and is signed "Servien. A Munster le six Aout 1644. Et fuscipit a M. le Comte Davaux," &c. It appears that this should precede the other. It is followed at p.199 by a Table of Contents, to some Volume, not noticed in the List which is here copied.
25. "Traite Geographique et Historique des Affaires d'Allemagne et de Dannemark." This, and all the Leaves from 211 to 220, are wanting in this Place, but appear at No. 45. Here, however, is omitted in the Table of Contents Part of a Latin Letter, without a Name, dated 11 Aug. 1625.
26. "Traité pour conſerver l'Empire et le Royaume de Boheme a la Maison d'Autriche, l'an 1606." 230.

33. "Propositions de M^{rs} les Amb^{rs} de France en l'Assemblée de M^{rs} les Estats généraux de Hollande, touchant la resolution prise par les dits Estats sur les dits propositions, Mars 1644." 329.
34. "Proposition faite par M. de la Thuillerie, Amb^r de France en Hollande en 1648, touchant la restitution que le Roy avoit fait proposer en l'assemblée de Munster, des Pays de Lorraine, &c. a M. le Duc Charles." 333.
35. "Quelques Extraits des Resolutions du Parlement touchant le les rentes de l'hostel de Ville en 1595, 1596, et 1597. Ensemble, ce qui s'est passé le 7 Fevrier, et jours suivans 1618, avec sa Majesté, au sujet de la revocation du droit annuel." 334.
36. "Extraites de quelques deliberations de la Cour de Parlement de Paris, du Mois de Juin 1648." 338.
37. "Instruction des Estats de Hollande touchant le pouvoir de leurs deputez aux Estats généraux des Provinces unies des Pays Bas, en Sept^{re} 1643." 343.
38. "Traité

Num. 4471, 4472.

38. "Traité pour sept ans fait entre le Roy, par le Sieur de Charnacé, et M^{rs} les Estats généraux des Provinces des Pays Bas, par leurs deputez a la Haye, le 15 d'Avril, 1634." 349.
39. "Negotiation de M^r Dubain de la Rochepolée pour l'opposition de Henry 3. a la nouvelle election du Prince de Transylvanie à la couronne de Pologne." 355.
40. "Journal original de mon Voyage de Cologne, faite en marche, et a mesure que les choses arrivoient." 365.
41. "Ensemble quelques lettres et traités concernant le negotiation de Cologne." 370.
Here the Table of Contents fails, and the paging or numbering of the Leaves ceases. The Numbers are now added, and the Articles continued.
42. Two Copies of a State Paper from the Swedish Government, dated March 8, 1674. In Latin. 374.
43. Letters and Papers, dated 1673 and 1674. 379.
44. A Continuation of the Journal mentioned at No. 40. The Pages also continued. 384.
45. The Article which ought to have stood at No. 25, entitled, "Traité Geographique et Historique des Affaires d'Allemagne et de Dannemark." The Title to the Tract is, "Sommaire des Affaires d'Allemagne." The Leaves wanting in the former Place are here numbered, in the same Hand, from 211 to 228. How these Confusions arose cannot now be ascertained.
46. A Letter, dated Cologne 6 Aoust 1673, and two other Papers. 481.
47. "Seance des Princes de l'Empire." 485.
48. Other Letters from Cologne. 491.
49. "Extraits des traités, des projets, et memoires, concernant la Negotiation 1673, 1674." 515.
50. The Keys of two French Cyphers." 515.

4472.

Two large Volumes, marked A. & B., containing Papers of the Seguiet Collection. They are entered in a general Table of Contents, but not with any sort of accuracy, by the same Hand as the rest. The Papers seem to have been confused since the List was made.

1. "La maniere de prononcer par les Presidens sur la reception des officiers, et des differens affaires qui se presentent à la Cour."
2. "Des Lieutenans criminels, de leurs fonctions et dignités. Ce Memoire fut fait par M. de Loupe, Lieutenant criminel de Tholose."

22. "Estat des Jurisdicions Souverains Royales et Subalternes, en chacune generalité du Royaume."
23. "Domaine de la Reyne Marguerite, et de Navarre, vendu en vertu de l'edict de 1639."
24. "Lettres patentes, en faveur de la Reyne Mere Anne d'Autriche, pour jouir des finances des survivances accordeés durant la minorité—18 Juillet 1651:" With another Letter prefixed.
25. "Quelques Cahiers des assembleés tenues chez M^r le Chanc^r Seguiet en 1667, pour la reformation de la Justice." These consist of various Papers, and are continued to the end of this Volume.
26. Here commences the second Volume, marked B., with the following Article,
"Index eorum quæ in Digestis à principio, ad titulum de Testamentis continentur." The Index, however, in its present State, goes no further than the Word "Offerens." It is very neatly written, and, in the same Hand, is prefixed the following Notice:
"Inspectorem indicis monitum esse oportet, ut si quando incidit in eum locum quem expetivit contentus ne abeat, ne indicis fiducia decipiatur, sed ipsum legis et sententiæ autorem contempletur. Neque enim verbosas juris juris interpretationes hic inferuimus, contenti modico summario, ut quam facillime rivulus fontem demonstret."

27. "Provisions de garde des Sceaux de France, en faveur de M. du Vair, au mois de May 1616."

28. "Edit de Creation de Greffier des Instructions, et Controlleur des Tiltres, conformement a ceux des Mois de Mars 1553, Avril 1554, et Juin 1581." Some printed Papers are subjoined, on the same Subject.

29. "Requete de M^{rs} les Tresoriers de France a la Reyne Mere Anne d'Autriche, pour estre maintenus dans leurs Privileges, et dechargés de la taxe qui leur estoit demandé, pour l'attribution de six vingt mil livres de Droits." This Paper seems to have the original Signatures. A printed Paper is subjoined, entitled, "Raifons pour l'Establissement de l'insinuation, avec les responfes aux Objections qui pourroient estre faites."

30. "Declaration originale et autorisée de la propre main du Roy, du 1^{er} Decembre 1642, par la quelle sa Majesté remet et pardonne a Mg^r le Duc d'Orleans l'alliance qu'il avoit faite contre son Service avec l'Espagne; luy permet de recevoir, et de jouir librement, dans son appanage. et hors de la Cour, de ses pensions et revenues; le declarant toutefois incapable de la Regence, et le privant de son Gouvernement d'Auvergne, et de ses Compagnies de Gendarmes, et de chevaux legers." This is on Vellum, and seems to be the Original.

31. "De l'origine des Chanceliers, de l'Excellence de cette Charge, et de leurs fonctions, expliqués par divers Exemples et Citations."

32. "Copie d'Arrest en faveur des Secretaires du College des Finances, suprimés, qui ont servi 20 anneés du 16 Juillet 1664."

33. Creation de la charge de Garde des Sceaux, en faveur de M. de Biragues, pour decharger le S^r de l'Hospital Chancelier. Fevrier 1573.

34. "Extrait du Registre des Immatriculés des Secretaires du Roy, commençant le 29 Jane 1535."

35. "Edit de Creation de Huit vingt Offices d'Advocats au Conseil, 1643."

36. "Extraits de Sermens d'Advocats au Conseil, Certificats de Greffiers, &c. 1653." Several Papers together of a similar Kind.

37. "Ordre du Roy, pour mettre entre les Mains des Commis^{rs} les pieces justificatives des droicts de M. le Chancelier, &c. 1653."

38. "Lettres et Declaration du Roy, en faveur de M. de Sillery Chancelier de France pour les honeurs, droits, et profits, attribués a la dite Charge, non obstant la creation d'un Garde des Sceaux. Du 13 Sept^r 1622."

39. "Discours des Chanceliers; de la grandeur, autorité, et fonctions de leurs charges. Il y en a trois; dont les deux derniers sont faits par M. le Chancelier Seguier, au sujet de sa Contestation avec M. Molé, Garde des Sceaux."

40. "Relation particuliere de tout ce qui se passa au Parlement sur la Verification des Lettres de Monsieur le Garde des Sceaux, du Vair. Et les difficultés qui y sont meües, pour empêcher qu'elles ne fussent verifiées purement et simplement, à Cause de la Clause de presider aux compagnies Souveraines, qu'ils ne voulurent pas approuver, 1616." With other Papers of the Chancellor Seguier relating to the same Subject.

41. "Lettres patentes du Roy Francois I. du 7 Avril 1527, par lesquelles il commet son Chancelier, pour en son Absence ouir les requestes," &c.

CAT. HARL. VOL. III.

Num. 4473:

42. "Lettres, ou Provisions d'Offices de Garde de Sceaux et Chancelier de France 1550 à 1551." Various Instruments of a similar kind are here assorted together. They are about 26 in Number.

43. "Memoire d'un reglement à faire, pour les Officiers de la Chancellerie."

44. "Ordonnance de M. de Marillon &c. Aout 1666." With other Papers on the same Subject.

45. "Memoire des Chauffe-cires Scelleurs hereditaires des Chancelleries de France, pour le droit de dernière Lettre par chaque jour de Sceaux qui doit estre tenu en la Chancellerie de France." With a printed Paper on the same Subject, and some other Documents.

48. "Contrat d'abolition de la traité foraine en Bretagne, au mois de Decembre 1583."

49. A Paper of the Chancellor de Sillery 1591. With Letters Patent of the same Date.

50. "Inventaire des Estats de Comptant qui sont es mains de Monseigneur le Chancelier."

51. "Declaration originale faite à la Chambre des Compts par M. le Chancelier Seguier de ses biens et effets 7 Aout 1650."

52. "Observations que j'ay fait sur la maniere dont la Reyne, les Princes, les Cardinaux, et autres grands escrivoient a Monseign^r le Chan^{ce} Seguier, depuis 1658; jusque en 1660."

53. "Requete des Conseillers et Referendaires de la Chancellerie de Paris, contre les Conseillers Secretaires du Roy, sur la declaration obtenue par les derniers, portant qu'ils minutteroient, dresseront, et pourroient expedier, tant en la Chancellerie de France qu'es autres Chancelleries."

54. "Estat et Rolle des personnes qui ont été emprisonnez au fort l'Evesque, par le pres Commandement de sa Maj^{te} et de l'ordonnance de Monseign^r le Chancelier."

55. "Responce du Roy rendue par M. le Garde des Sceaux aux deputez du Parlement."

56. A Paper on the Appointment of Seguier to succeed the S^r de Chasteauneuf. Marked on the back "Extrait lorsque Monseigneur fut fait Garde des Sceaux."

57. "Extrait du registre du briffe de la prevosté de  du Roy et grande Prevosté de France."

The four last Articles are not at all noticed in the Table of Contents.

4473.

[4473.—4488. Quarto.]

1. "La Dance des Aveugles: par Pierre Michault." This has been several Times published. xv.

2. "Cy dedans sont contenus plusieurs petiz Dictiez." These are in Verse.

3. "L'instruction de Chevalerie & exercise de Guerre." In Prose.

4. "Cy commencent tous les debats, appointemens, et accortz, qui ont esté fait, les temps passés, entre le Roy de France et le Roy d'Angleterre, pour les duchiez de Normandie et de Guyenne."

5. Another

Num. 4473—4477.

5. Another historical Tract, without a regular Title, but professing in the Introduction to treat principally, "des guerres qui ont esté es temps passez a la Duché de Bretagne."

6. "Declamation faicte touchant le cas qui puis nagueres est advenu a Paris."

7. "Processus Balue." Satires in French Verse, against a Cardinal.

The Book is written on Paper, and is well preserved. The Hands differ in the various Tracts, but are all equally ancient.

4474.

"Lestrif et debat de Vertu et Fortune." In three Books, verse and prose. The following Dedication precedes the Prologue, "A treshault, trespuissant, et tresredcubté prince, Phelippe Duc de Bourgogne, de Brabant, &c. Martin le Franc, prevost de Laufanne, Secretaire de sire Saint pere Nicolas, treshumble recommendation." At the end Martin le Franc is styled, "Tres excellent poete et orateur." Written on Paper. xv.

4475.

A Paper MS. with the following Title annexed, in a Hand nearly as old as that of the Book. xv.

"Ce present livre de droit fut translaté par Mestre Silvestre Guerin, mester des Arts, chapelain du Collage de Nostre Dame de Matignon, et personne de Thyrmulle, a la requeste de mon tres honoré Sg' Monsg' de Matignon et de Thorigny en la ville de Caen, l'an 1477."

It appears to be directed chiefly against Simony.

A Book, written on Paper, containing a History of France and the neighbouring Countries, from the year 1448 to 1467: by Jacques du Clerc, Escuyer: who professes particularly to give the History of what came to his own Knowledge. The History is in Five Books, and dwells particularly on the Affairs of Philip the Great, Duke of Burgundy, to whom the Author was attached, and with whose Epitaph his History concludes. There is a very ample Table of Contents, referring to the Pages of the Book. A kind of preparatory Account of English Affairs is prefixed, with the following Introduction. xv.

"Coppie. Pourtant que apres ce que Je Jacques du Clercq, Escuyer, Seigneur de Beauvoir en Ternois ay clos mon premier volume, des choses advenues en mon temps et venues a ma Cognoissance, Es quelles choses advenues j'ay parlé de plusieurs choses advenues en Angleterre, et comment Edouart Duc d'York fut couronne Roy de l'Angleterre, et le Roy Henry et son fils Edouart en debouttez et puis morts; j'ay esté adverty et sceu le commencement des divisions et la cause dont elles meurent audit Royaulme et ce qu'il en advint paravant mon dit volume du commencie [qu?] Je declareray cy en bref la cause des difordres qui advindrent audit Royaulme, et comment a été causé presque tous les princes dudit Royaulme y moururent par l'espeé."

This Book may probably throw some light on that period of English History.

1. "Coutumes de Normandie, en vers." xv.

2. "Les 4 Livres d'institutes du Justinian, en vers." The Author seems to call himself Bertran de Chalphepie (probably the same as Chaufpié), a native of Gascony. Written on Paper. This MS. and No. 4474-5, came from the Collection of Foucault.

Num. 4478—4482.

4478.

A French Common Place Book, of various Matters, chiefly historical. The first Part, of 168 Leaves, the second of 58; both alphabetically arranged. xvii.

4479.

A Collection of French State Papers, consisting of,
1. "Extrait des Registres de Parlement, de l'an 1364 jusques 1545. xvi.

2. "Compilation des arrestz de la Cour de Parlement de Paris, faicte par nous Jehan Durant, Conseiller receu en icelle court le douzieme jour de Mars 1543. Et ledit Jour receu conseiller en la Chambre des requestes du palays a Paris."

3. "En ce present volume est compris en brief le style et usage de la pratique de France, fuyvant les ordonnances royaux. Composé en forme d'alphabet, par Monsieur de Confages a pût president a Bordeaux, et lorsqu'il la escript estoit president de la petite Chambre des enquestes a Paris, l'an mil cinq. cens cinquante trois." below this is written,

"Esript en Octobre 1564."

"Scriptoris de D. Confaga Epigramma.

"Huc, huc Lector, ades, doctumq, evolve libellum
Quem tibi composuit Confageana manus.

Jurisprudentes inter quos Gallica teilus

Nunc habet, huic non laus ultima jure datur.

Quippe hujus studio clara est nunc reddita praxis,

Aspera quæque fuit plana et amœna via est."

4. "Arrest de Parlement conferé sur seance des magistratz advocatz en presence du Roy. 1553." 186 Leaves, with a Table at the end. This Book does not appear to have belonged to the Seguier Collection.

4480.

1. "Registres du Parlement, de 1522 a 1523." with an Edict dated 1527. xvi.

2. "Les 3 Livres des Vierges du S. Ambrose, Eveque de Milan, a sa sœur Marcelline." A translation more modern than the preceding Collection.

4481.

A large Quarto Volume, written fairly on Paper, between Red Lines, containing,

1. An Account of the Emperor Charles V. with the following Title: xvi.

"Ce livre contient aucunes actes, grands voiaiges, et haultes entreprinse faictes par feu d'excellente et noble memore le victorieux Prince Charles d'Austrice, en son vivant Empereur des Romains tousjours auguste, cinquiesme de ce nom, le quel nasquit en la ville de Gand chief lieu de son bon pays de Flandres, en l'an de grace mil cinq cens et termina a son eaige de cinquante huit ans en ses Roialmes des Espaignes, qui fut en l'an mil cinq cens cinquante huit, et gist en son Royialme de Grenade aupres d'aucuns ses nobles predecesseurs de son costé maternel Roys des dictes Espaignes. Dieu luy soit misericors et a tous trespasses. Amen."

The Leaves are numbered to 402.

2. Another Work in a different, and apparently a more recent Hand, entitled, "Traicté des Comtes de Flandres et d'Arthois." This appears to be imperfect.

4482.

The History of Troy, in the French Romance Rhyme; in Verses of Eight Syllables, and containing near Twenty thousand Lines. It is written by Benoit, or Benoit de Saint More, of whose Works considerable illustration has been given by the Abbe de la Rue, in the 12th Vol. of the Archæologia, p. 314—323. He is usually usually styled only Benoit, but M. de la Rue considers the addition of de Saint More, which appears here, as no Objection to the Identity of the Person. In the beginning he takes the full Name, but in the Body of the Work he calls himself simply Benoit. This Work is cited by M. Galland, Mém. de l'Acad. des Inscr. Vol. II. p. 729, and by Warton, in his History of English Poetry; but the latter does not appear to have known of this Copy in the Harleian Collection.

Num. 4482—4486.

Benoit professes to translate from Cornelius, who having found the History of Dares Phrygius at Athens, translated it from the Greek into Latin. This Cornelius is a pretended Cornelius Nepos, whose Work, the Forgery of a dark Age, in a corrupt Latin, without any Greek original, has often been published with Dicys Cretenfis, a similarly spurious production. It occurs in MS. at No. 641 of this Collection; and begins, as the printed Copies do also, by a Dedication to Crispus Sallustius, which the Forger wished to be taken for Sallust the Historian. Benoit says that he had made great use also of the Work of Dicys Cretenfis, which he must have done, and of other Writers also, for his Poem is longer than both the pretended Histories together.

This MS. is fairly written on Vellum, in Two Volumes, with the principal Letters illuminated. It is well preserved, and seems to have no Mutilation but in Part of the last Leaf. It was marked in the former Catalogue as of the 14th Century, but is probably of the 13th or earlier. Benoit wrote in the 12th. XIII.

A large Catalogue of printed Books, in Greek, Latin, French, Spanish, and Italian, written on Paper, and extending to 276 Leaves. It might perhaps be the Collection of Seguiet, since the marginal Notes are evidently in the same Hand, in which the Tables of Contents to his MSS. are drawn up. See particularly fol. 38, 119, &c. These marginal Notes are all in French.

4484.

A Collection of Inscriptions, short Poems, and other Extracts, in Latin, French, &c. beginning with,

1. "Inscriptions de la Place des Victoires, par Regnier des Marais." These occupy Eight Leaves, the Latin Inscriptions standing first, and the French Translations on the opposite Side. Fol. 5, 6, 7, & 8, had been bound by mistake at the end of the Book, but are now rightly placed.

2. Latin Inscriptions on Erasmus, with many at Paris by Santolius (Santeuil) and others, fol. 9.

3. Selections in Prose, on various Subjects, in the Manner of a Common Place Book, in French, with Spanish and other Verses intermixed. 14. b.—At fol. 19. b. &c. are some Italian Verses. XVI.

The whole Book contains 46 Leaves, very fairly written, and comprising many curious Articles.

A thin Book finely written on Vellum, with a splendid Illumination at the beginning, containing the Rules of the Order of St. Michael, established by Louis XI. The following Title is taken from the Rubric to the Table of Contents which is prefixed.

"Le Livre de l'ordre du tres Chrestien Roy de France, Loys XI^e de l'honneur de Saint Michel." It is dated at the end 1476. XV.

Num. 4486—4491.

4486.

Two very different MSS. bound together, as will appear from the following Account:

1. A Book of 117 Pages, besides the Introduction, fairly written on Paper, containing a Book of Alchemy, with the following Inscription by Way of Title, "Coppie sur l'original du Sommaire et Recapitulation des Chapitres suivants contenus en ce Livre. Et achevé de copier le quinziesme Septembre d'an de Grace Mil six cents trente et un. Pour Monseigneur le Baron de Tracy." It contains an Introduction of 14 Pages, and is divided into Two Books, the first of theory the second of practice; the former containing Ten Chapters, the latter Two. In the old Catalogue it is called, "Livre de Chemic de M. le Prevost de Paris," but this Name does not now appear in it. XVII.

2. An old Copy on Vellum of the "Livre de Sydrac," which occurs frequently in this Collection, and is particularly described at No. 4417. 1. The Rubric here prefixed is, "Sydrac, luy sage philosophe, le quel homme appela le livre de la fountaigne de toutes sciences." The Name of "Thomas Baker," is written at the end in his own Hand. The Copy is complete; and there is some Writing added, in a more modern Hand, in Latin and old English, consisting of Verses and other Extracts, written on the four last Pages by some Possessor of the Book. XIV.

A Book from the Collection of Foucault, written on Vellum. On the first Leaf is written, in a modern Hand, "Roman de Florimont par Aymer," which Account is confirmed by the introductory Lines in the first Page. XIV.

4488.

An elaborate Work on the Laws and Statutes of Normandy, with the Text and Comment placed alternately, throughout: and with a Calendar prefixed. It is written on Vellum, 478 pages, and belonged to the Count de Brienne, whose Arms are on the Cover. There is no Title, but the Design of the Author is marked in the first words, "Pour ce que nostre intention est a esclaver en ceste euvre au mieulz que nous pourrons les droiz et les establissemens de Normandie," &c. The Work is in good Preservation. XV.

4489 & 4490.

[4489—4519. Folio.]

Two Volumes of the Seguiet Collection bound in one.

They are the third and fourth Volumes of Official and Original Letters, written by and to the Chancellor; but are misplaced, as the fourth stands first. Each has a Title fairly written in these Words:

1. "Copies de Lettres ecrites par Monseigneur le Chancelier, et Lettres originales ecrites audit Seigneur, par plus^r particulieres et officieres de diverses Provinces du Roy^m pendant les Mois de Juin, Juillet, Aout, et Septembre 1656. Volume III."

2. "Lettres missives originales ecrites à Monseigneur le Chancelier par mes^r des Parlemens de Provence, Rouen, Toulouse, Grenoble, et autres Officiers de Justice de divers Provinces du Royaume, depuis le 15^e Aout 1656, jusques au 20 Novembre 1657. Volume IV."

Belonging to the Seguiet Collection; original Letters of Secretaries of State to the Chancellor Seguiet, in the

Num. 4491—4498.

the Years 1653, 1659, 1660. With the following Title: "Lettres de Messieurs le Tellier, de la Vrilliere, de Brienne, et de Guenegaud, a Monseigneur, Secretaires d'Etat."

4492.

Another, with the following Title: "Lettres de plusieurs Archevesques, Evêques, et Abbés, écrites a Monseigneur, depuis l'année 1659, jusqu'a 1662."

4493.

A Volume of the Seguier Papers, with this Title: "Lettres des Officiers des Provinces, tant des Parlements, Præsidaux, Bureau des Finances, qu'autres, a Monseigneur depuis l'année 1658. jusqu'a 1662."

4494.

"Information contre l'Evêque de Mende, l'an 1640." Seguier Collection.

4495.

From the Seguier Collection. A Volume of State Papers, completely indexed at the beginning, under the following Heads: "Attaches, Commissions, Jurisdiction, Lettres, Ordonnances, Passeports, Provisions, Sauvegardes." They extend from 1679 to 1685. The whole contains 197 Leaves, of which the first is mutilated.

4496.

From the Seguier Collection. Various tracts, printed and written on the subject of the Coinage in France, 57 in Number. Bound up with No. 4518, which is of a similar kind.

4497.

A fair and beautiful MS. on vellum, containing a French treatise on Falconry, by John de Francyeres. It begins thus—"Cy commence ung liure de faulconerie lequel frere Jehan de Francyeres, chevalier de l'ordre de Saint Jehan de Jherlîn, commandateur de choasi en France, et dempuys grant prieur d'acquitaine, a detraict et assemblé de trois maistres falconniers cy apres declairez, en leur temps moult experts et tressavantz en l'art de faulconerie." On the first Leaf is written "Ce manuscrit a esté tiré du Chateau d'Ham-bie le 28 Janv. 1704. Cette terre a esté possédée par les Seigneurs du Houmet, connetables de Normandie et Houtteville." It is also marked with arms, &c. as coming, "Ex bibliotheca Nicholai Foucault comitis consistoriani." On the last Leaf are two prescriptions for Falcons, in French, in a modern Hand.

From the Seguier Collection, bound up with No. 1131. A Paper MS., evidently the latter part of some larger work; for, besides the Title of the first Article, the Leaves are registered at bottom in the manner of a printed book; and the first Page is marked as the beginning of a third Alphabet, a a a 1. Though the Book is Folio, twelve Leaves are registered with one Letter, like a duodecimo. The Registers run to fff. throughout.

1. Part of a Metrical Chronicle, in French, being the third Volume, or part of it, beginning with "Prologue sur le tiers Volume de la cronique Francoyse." The Prologue occupies three pages, then begins the first Chapter, with the following Argument in Verse:

"Sur le propoz facile a decouvrir
Icy endroit prenant heure que ouvrir
Puisse au deffault dung meilleur secretaire
Je traiteray que le second Clotaire
Fait Bruneschilde a dure mort livrer."

Num. 4498—4500.

It is continued into the Reign of Pepin, in 33 Chapters, each having a similar Argument, and concludes, "C'est fin du trois volume."

2. "Epistre en forme de complaincte, sur la fuycte de clement Marot, compolez par le frere myneur, et par luy envoyez au Francoys."—The writing of this seems rather more recent than that of the preceding Chronicle; nor does either Part seem to be older than the Sixteenth Century.

A French Translation of the first Twenty-one of Lord Bacon's Essays, omitting the 14th, which treats of a King. It is a Paper Book of 213 written pages, transcribed in one Hand, and corrected in another. Prefixed are seven Leaves, containing the first Essay, retranscribed, with the corrections incorporated, and the Beginning of some Remarks on that Essay. The Remarks, however, break off at the third Line, and are followed by some Mottos and a Table of the Essays, referring to the Pages.

4500.

1. "Traité de Paix entre France & Espagne, au chateau de Cambresis, 1559." xvi.

2. "Extrait du Livre de Mr. Jehan le Feron, des Armoiries des Comtes de France," from A.D. 562 to 1541.

3. "Noms & Surnoms des Admiraulx de France," from 1284 to 1554.

4. "Noms et Surnoms des Marechaulx de France," from 653 to 1554.

5. "Noms des Prevosts & Guardes de Parys, 1269 a 1555."

6. "Abbrege des Comtes de Boulogne & d'Auvergne."

7. Historical Fragments, in French, very confused, and very ill written.

8. "Calendrier notable." An old Calendar, so styled on the opposite Page.

9. Other loose Papers, in French and Latin.

10. "Copie du proces extraordinaire contre l'amirale Degmont."

11. Account of Miracles, Histories, and other Matters relating to the Abbey of St. Martin of Tournay, &c. written in different Hands.

12. "Extrait d'un manuscrit, de l'an 1478, paques le 22 de Mars. Parlement tenu a la Bassée, entre les Ambassadeurs et commis du Roy, et des Ducs et Ducesses d'Auftriche, ou sont contenus les argumens, demandes, allegations, et responces, que feirent les dictz Ambassadeurs, les uns aux autres, demonstans le droit que chacune partie pretendoit en la Duché de Burgoigne et pays environ."

13. "Discours de M. Matthieu Chalien, Docteur en Theologie, Professeur et Chancelier de l'Université de Douay, sur le fait des danses de ce temps, prononcé en forme de Catheceses (sic) en faveur des Estudians."—Opposite to this Title is the following Latin Epigram:

In choreas.

"Ecce choros chytaræ strepitus ciet, ite pudicæ,
Ite stolæ, et zonæ vincula sacra, procul.

Jam Satyri venient Baccho præeunte, petulca
Est turba, inq, omnes infidiosa modos.

His ne, quæso, manus, ne injungite, quæso, pudicæ,
Ne victas tandem det pudor ipse manus.

Antonius Garnier, Biruntinus."

This Discourse is followed by a Fragment, in the same hand, on Quinquagesima Sunday.

14. "Le

Num. 4501—4506.

14. "Le Demefne du Droit de Bourgogne, Flandres, et Artoys."

15. Tranfactions and Treaties between the Kings of France and the Dukes of Burgundy.

16. An Alphabetical Lift of fome Names of Criminals, with Annotations, apparently by the Judge, in parallel Columns.

17. "Advis donné par ung vieux Cavailler Francois, a le Monfg' le Duc d'Orleans, frere unicque du Roy, fur l'estat des Affaires prefentes."

18. An Account of Francis I. about the Year 1515; imperfect at each End.

4501.

"Ordinaire d'Orleans pour l'année finie au Jour de feste Saint Jean Baptiste 1657. Hierofme Egrot, Receveur comptable, Double, Godereau, Procureur."

An official Book of Accounts for the Province of Orleans, admitted, signed, and attested by the proper Officers. Fairly written on Vellum. From the Seguier Collection.

4502.

A Volume of the Seguier Collection, written in an unformed and juvenile, but very legible Hand, and containing various Matters.

1. Emblems, feventeen in number, in French, with a Latin Device to each, and a Prose Exposition subjoined.

2. Two Tracts, entitled Paradoxes, one on Duty, the other on Flattery. In French.

3. Letters in Prose, on a Plan taken from the Epistles of Ovid, but in the Names of different Perfonages, namely, from Achilles to Polyxena, and her Answer: from Scæbus to Mygdon; from Clytemnestra to Agamemnon; Antiope to the Rulers of the Amazons; Palamedes to the Grecian Princes, &c. xvii.

Of the Seguier Collection. A Book on the Laws of the French Court of Parliament, in 391 Sections, with a complete Table of Contents, except the last Leaf. The general Title indicates that something had preceded. "Sequuntur plurima notabilia quæ vidi pronuciari per arresta in curia parliamenti, et alibi." xvi.

4504.

A French Translation of the two first Books (out of four) of the Cortegiano of Baldefar Castiglione. There is no Title, nor any Introduction by the Translator; but it begins at once with the Translation of the original Dedication—"Au reverend et tres illustre Seigneur, Monseigneur Michel de la Forest (de Sylva) Evêque de Veseu (Viseo); Baltazare de Castillon le Courtiefan." xvi.

It belonged to the Seguier Collection, and is marked "Lecomte."

4505 & 4506.

From the Duke of Newcastle's Collection.

1. "A Collection of Precedents in the Court of Queen's Bench, from the 12 to the 37th of Q. Elizabeth.

2. "The Reading of John Stone of Grayes Inne Esq. upon the Statute of the 13th of Eliz. Cap. 7. touching Bankrupts, learnedly and amply explaind." The two N^{os} bound together.

CAT. HARL. VOL. III.

Num. 4507—4514.

4507 & 4508.

Bound together, and marked as belonging to the Seguier Collection.

Two translations of the Psalms in French Prose, or rather the same Translation in two different stages of Progress; the former being full of Interlineations and Corrections, which in the latter are generally incorporated. The latter is also much more fairly written, has an ample Collection of parallel Passages in the Margin, and is interleaved, for the Purpose, probably, of inserting Annotations. xvii.

A French Book of Astrology, of 259 Leaves, the first seven wanting. From the Seguier Collection. xvii.

4510 & 11.

Two Volumes connected with the preceding, written in the same Hand, and containing good Drawings of the Signs of the Zodiac, and the principal Constellations; with an Account of Comets, Stars, &c.—the first Volume beginning at fol. 12. No. 4787 is also connected with these four. xvii.

4512.

A Continuation of the same Work, containing the various Systems of the World, an Account of the Creation, of the Seasons and Months, with Figures similar to the foregoing. The Whole from the Seguier Collection, and apparently the Beginning of a great Work, a large Part being left Blank. xvii.

4513.

A Book of the Seguier Collection, containing a quaint Device of some Astrologer, for the Service of Louis XIV. There is an emblematical Frontispiece, with Verses at the Beginning and End of the Book; the rest being filled with Lists of Names, and other Words, rhyming to each other; and some magical Tables and Squares. The Verses are in quatrains, answering in pairs to each other; the first entitled always, "entré ou rencontre au corps du secret;" the second, "claufture du corps du secret, respondant a la (telle) entrée." It is perhaps in vain to seek the explication of this whimsical Work, especially as the Author says, of those who shall attempt it,

"Mais ilz ont beau pefer parole apres parole,
Sonder dedans dehors, torner l'adroict l'envers,
Leur huile ilz y perdront s'ilz n'ont en mon eschole
Apris, de vive vois, de retourner un vers."

The Author speaks of it as a Work of great labour.

"Louys l'année est ja, voire et plus que passée
Depuis que Jour et nuit mons clerc et moy pennons
Sans avoir en l'esprit autre but ny pensée
Ou'a rediger par ordre et en rime les nons."

The Verses are written in red ink, and the Borders of every Leaf ornamented with coloured foliage. Most of the Leaves are double, and fold out upwards. xvii.

4514.

A Volume of the Seguier Collection, containing various Papers.

1. "Usurpations sur l'Empire, par les Empereurs et les Rois d'Espagne, de la Maison d'Autriche. En Italie, en Alemaigne, et es Pays Bas."

2. Two Papers relating to the Te Deum for the Capture of Perpignan.

4525.

From the Seguier Collection.

Original Letters to the King of France, the Count de Brienne, &c. &c. written by the President de Thou. With many more transcripts of Letters, and other Papers, collected and carefully arranged under the years in which they were written. In Seven Volumes, Vol. I. of the year 1657.

N.B. Many of the Letters have reference to England, and might illustrate our History at that Period.

Vol. II. of the same Collection. For the first part of the year 1658.

Part 1. Vol. VI. From January to June 1661.

Part 2. Vol. VII. From July to the end of the year 1661.

From the Seguier Collection.

A Volume of Documents and Letters, original and copied, relating to Germany, in the years 1657 and 1658. Docketted exactly in the same Manner as those in the Six preceding Numbers, and therefore closely connected with them. As the chief part of the original Letters in both Collections are addressed to the Count de Brienne, it amounts almost to a certainty, that they were arranged and marked by his order. Especially as we have many Volumes actually marked with his Arms.

4532.

A similar Collection, relating to Poland, in the years 1657 to 1660.

There are indeed numeral Marks continued throughout these Volumes.

The Brienne Collection. Letters from M. de Bourdeaux at London, in the years 1657 and 1658. With State Papers referring to the same.
4550.
Probably from the same Collection, though not so ascertained by any internal Mark, except the Nature of the Subject, which is a representation to the King of France, on the Convocation of the States General. It is a Paper Book of 81 Leaves, with the following principal divisions. 1. The general Address, fol. 1. Chapitre de l'Eglise, fol. 9. Chapitre de la Noblesse, fol. 16. Chapitre de la Justice et Police, fol. 28. Chap. de la Police, fol. 40. Articles particuliers du Cayer de Normandie, fol. 64. I have not been able to discover the Date.
4551.
The last Volume, in this part of the Collection, of the Brienne Papers. It is particularly interesting in this Country, as it contains Letters and Dispatches relative to the British Dominions. The Date from 1643 to 1657.
4552.
A Book of Precedents and adjudged Cases in Law, from the 33 to the 41 of Eliz.

4. "Lecturæ 9 - - - Demshill, super Statuto de Finibus, edito 4 H. 7. Cap. 24.
5. Several Forms of Law Instruments, mixed with Reports and other legal Papers, in a confused Manner.

4557.

Reports from the 11 to the 22 of H. 6. In the first Leaf is this Note in the hand of Rob' Paynel, "Note in this Booke are the 13th and 14th yeares of Hen. the 6th, which are not in the printed Bookes." A Paper Book.

4558.

Reports of the 39 of Elizabeth: And the 15 & 16 of Ja' 1.

These Two Books belonged to Rob. Paynell of Gray's Inne. The second of them is thus marked by himself, "Robertus Paynell de Belaugbe, Grayanus Norfolciensis."

A Book of Tracts, chiefly printed, in French, Dutch, Italian, Spanish, &c. from 1649 to 1661. Evidently collected by the Count de Brienne, some of them being docketted as received with the Dispatches of M. de Thou, which are in N° 4525, &c.

There are many Pieces among them which probably do not now exist elsewhere. The Volume is marked as belonging to the Seguier Collection; but there is abundant proof, in the preceding Volumes, that the Brienne Papers came by some Means into the Hands of the Seguier Family.

A Law Treatise in 50 Chapters. The Table, which is mutilated, extends only to 45. An Entry of a former Possessor, John Newdigate, has made it hitherto pass for a Book of annual Reports.

4561.

Reports of the King's Bench of the 13 & 14 Jas. 1. In Law French. With a copious Index. A Paper Book, of 575 written Pages.

4562.

Reports from 26 to 32 Eliz., "in communi Banco." 121 written Leaves.

4563, 4564.

With a Table of the Names. A Paper Book. 402 pp. xvii.

Num. 4568—4577.

4568.

"Registre des jugemens rendus pour nous Estienne d'Aligre, S^r de la Riviere, Conseiller du Royen, ses Conseils, et Jean Cardinet Sieur de Loigny, tresorier general de ses finances à Orleans, Commiss^{rs} deputez par sa Majesté pour le regalement des bailles en la generalité de Caen, sur les Exemptions prétendues par les gentilshommes et autres privileges de la dite generalité suivant la Commission de sa Majesté, du - - - - Registrée au bureau de M^{rs} les tresoriers de France a Caen la - - - -." xvii.

Two dates are wanting in the Title. The Book contains 377 written Pages. See N° 4581.

4569.

From this Number to 4577 incl. and again 4587—4590, we have a set of Books, uniformly bound, and stamped on the Covers with the Arms of the Count de Brienne. Evidently belonging therefore to his Collection of State Papers, and deriving additional Authority from his official Situation. See N° 4525 et seqq. The general Title is the following, "Memoires, Actes, et Traictés de la Republique de Geneve, avec les Rois de France, les Suisses, et les Ducs de Savoye." From 1536 to 1628. These are all large Paper Books, fairly and uniformly written.

4570.

Vol. II. of this Collection, entitled, "Negociation de Mr François de Noailles Eveque d'Ac, Ambassadeur pour le Roy a la porte du Grand Seigneur, depuis l'année 1572 Jusques en 1574."

4571.

Vol. III. entitled, "Traictés des Empereurs des Turcs avec les Papes, les Empereurs d'Allemagne, les Rois de France et de Pologne, et les Venetiens, Tunis, et Argèr, Perse, Grand Mogol, Moscovie;" from 1494 to 1628. Prefixed is a curious Discourse, entitled, "Relation de la cour et du Serail, des Officiers, despences, et autres particularités de la Maison du Grand Seigneur." This, with the Will of Mahomet subjoined, occupies 100 Pages. xvii.

4572.

Vol. IV. "Premier Volume des Reglements, qui contiennent ceux de la maison du Roy de France, et des principaux officiers fervans en icelle." xvii.

4573.

Vol. V. entitled, "Negociation de Mons^r de Bassompierre, envoyé Ambassadeur extraordinaire en Espagne, par le Roy sur le sujet de la restitution de la Valteline, 1621."

4574.

Vol. VI. entitled, "Edicts, Lettres, Arrestz, et autres Actes, touchant l'Admirauté de Bretagne et droictz appartenant a icelle." xvii.

4575.

Vol. VII. entitled. "Semestre de Provence: par Mr. de Séuc, Conseiller d'Etat, cy-devant Prevost des Marchands; et qui estoit Intendant de Provence lorsqu'il a composé cette Histoire." In two Parts, P. 2. beginning at fol. 69. Fairly written, on 151 Leaves. The Semestre, or 6 months Residence, begins Jan. 1. 1648.

4576, 7.

Vol. VIII. and IX. of this Collection, entitled, "Depesches des six premiers Moys de l'année 1661." The former Volume is marked, "Premiere partie," the latter, "Seconde partie." The whole fairly and uniformly transcribed.

A Volume

Num. 4578—4583.

4578.

A Volume which might be marked Vol. X., as the binding shews it to have belonged to the same Collection. It contains Copies of Dispatches in the latter part of 1659.

4579.

Vol. XI. of the same, containing at one end, "Expeditions," or Grants, of various Kinds, in 1657. At the other, Ordonnances of the same Period. A very large proportion between each end is blank.

4580.

1. "Estat Politique des Suisses, avec l'abregé de leur anciennes Alliances." XVII.

2. "Traitez et autres Memoires touchant les Suisses, les Grifons, Savoie, et Geneve."

This may be called Vol. XII. of these Papers. They are continued at N° 4586.

4581.

"Copie du Registre de M de Chamillart, pour la Recherche des Nobles de la generalité de Caen," 1666. There is no mark that this belongs to the preceding Set.

4582.

A French Collection, respecting the Noble Families of Normandy, in five Parts. Transcribed 1642.

1. A List of the Persons certified to be Noble by Lineage, or claiming Nobility from their Wives, Mothers, or Fiefs acquired.

2. "Liste des noms des annoblis par les franc-fiefs et nouveaux acquets, avec un estat des sommes auxquelles ils on este taxés par divers Roolles en l'année 1470. Et des annoblis depuis. Monfaut."

3. "Estat et Registre des annoblis en la province de Normandie, depuis la recherche qui fut faite par Raymond Monfaut Commissaire és années 1463 et 1464, sous le regne de Louis neuf (interl. onze) Roy de France."

4. "Autre Cahier de Recepte, contenant, pas ordre Alphabetique, les noms de annoblis, leur Vicomtes, avec les taxes." The old paging of this is continued from Art. 2.

5. "Recherche des nouveaux annoblis de la Province de Normandie, depuis celle de Raymond Monfaut Com^{te} en l'année 1463, sous le Regne de Louis onze Roy de France."

The first Article is not paged at all; the second begins an order of Pages, which is interrupted by the third, and the fourth and fifth are regularly paged on to the end.

A Paper Book of various Discourses, in French, neatly and uniformly transcribed.

1. "Discours sur la mort de Henri le Grand." 1.

2. "Discours touchant l'assemblée de Saumur." 13.

3. "Discours fait durant mes persecutions de S' Jean." 1. again.

4. "Discours sur le Voyage du Roy, en Juillet mil six cents quinze." 23.

5. "Discours sur le gouvernement de la Reyne mere, fait en 1617." 1. again.

6. "Libre discours sur le temps present 1617." 13.

7. "Advis sur le sujet des divisions de Hollande en l'année 1618."

8. "Raifons de la paix faite devant Montpellier."

9. "Appologie de Monsieur le duc de Rohan sur les derniers troubles de la France, à cause de la Religion."

10. "A short Tract without any Title.

11. "Lettre de Monsieur le Prince à Monsieur de Rohan." Dated Nov. 4, 1628.

Num. 4583—4591.

12. "Response de Monsieur de Rohan à Monsieur le Prince." Nov. 6, 1628.

13. "Memoires du duc de Rohan sur les choses advenues en France, depuis la mort de Henri le Grand, jusques a la paix faite avec les Reformez au mois de Mars 1626." These Memoirs continue to the end, occupying by far the larger part of the Volume, and are divided into four Books.

4584.

A Spanish controversial Work of a learned Jew; fairly written, on 217 Leaves. With the following Title.

"Providencia de Dios con Israel, y verdad de la ley de Moseh, y nulidad de las de mas leyes. Compuesto por el mui excelentissimo señor Haham Saul Levi, mortera moreno Arab, de felis recordacion, Escripts en Amsterdam. E nel ano de cincomil, quatrocientos, y veinte, y quatro." Which date is explained in a more recent Hand to correspond with A.D. 1665.

4585.

Reports from 24 H. 6. to the end of the Reign of Elizabeth. The general Title, "Relationes Mori." In the first page the Name of Robtus Paynell de Grayes Inn. Then follows, "Ex Libro Francisci Moore, Militis, Servientis ad Legem, scripto propria manu ipsius." And at the end is the Seller's Certificate, thus; "I do warrant this Booke to bee full as much in quantitie as any Booke that I have ould, and to have the same and as many Cases & marginaill Notes as any that I have ould to any Man.

per mee Lawrence Cragge."

4586, 7, 8.

A Continuation of the Brienne Papers from N° 4580.

These Three Volumes contain the entire Memoirs of the Marechal de Bassompierre, beautifully written on Paper. The following Sentence, and no more, is wanting at the end.

"Ce fut le Duc de Guise, qui s'estoit retiré à Florence, au même temps que je fus mis à la Bastille, où je plains sa mort et ma liberté." The general Title is, "Memoires de Monsieur le Marechal de Bassompierre, touchant ce qui s'est passé durant les regnes des Roys Henry 4. et Louis 13." This Copy having been carefully transcribed for a Minister of State, before the Work was printed, may well deserve collating.

4589, 4590.

Two large Volumes, containing a Catalogue of 340 Volumes of MS. Collections, belonging to the Count de Brienne, giving an account of the Contents of each Volume. They are bound like the rest of the Books here ascribed to his Collection, and might possibly throw much light on those which are in our possession. Two Papers are prefixed, containing Lists of such of the Count de Brienne's Dispatches as had been carried (probably lent) to Mons^{ie} de Boucherat; the former of them signed Gosselin, the latter apparently intended to be so signed also, being in other respects similar as to form. XVII.

4591.

This Volume, and those that follow it to N° 4599, inclusive, belonged originally to a Collection of 46 MS. Volumes, left by Peter Bourellet to M. Nicolas Efinery. See the printed Attestation transcribed at N° 4593, which either is, or evidently has been, passed into all these 9 Volumes.

The present Volume contains;

1. A French Treatise on the Laws and Government of England, very fairly transcribed. It should consist of Three Books, but the space in which the first should have

Num. 4591—4600.

have been written, is left Blank. The Table of Contents is, however, complete, by which it appears that the 16 first Chapters treated of the general Principles of Government. The remaining Chapters, which were 8 in Number, gave an account of the several Classes and Ranks in England. This Work extends to fol. 125.

2. "Remonstrance de haute et puissante Dame, Dame Marie de Cleves, Sœur de tres hault et tres puissant Seigneur le Duc de Cleves, de Juilliers, et de Gueldres, faicte au Roy d'Angleterre, et à son conseil sur ce qu'il la vouloit repudier." 144.

A large Volume, very fairly written, with this Title.

"Traictez et autres actes entre les Roys de France d'une part, et les Roys d'Angleterre d'autre, ensemble quelques traictez entre le Roy^m d'Angleterre et les Princes estrangers, depuis 1350, jusques au 6 Avril 1545. Tome premier." xv.

4593, 4, 5, 6.

Five large Volumes, very fairly transcribed, with this Title.

"Les lettres, memoires, actes, instructions, et contracts faicts au traité de Mariage d'entre Madame Henriette Marie, Soeur du Roy, et Charles premier Roy de la Grande Bretagne, en années 1624 et 1625."

On the Cover of the first Volume is this printed Notice.

"Ce volume manuscrit, du nombre des quarante six, a esté donné et legué par Pierre Bourelier, Ancien Clerc et domestique de vingt-six ans de Monsieur Esmery, Conseiller en la Cour des Aydes, par son Testament Olographe du quatrième jour d'Octobre mil six cens cinquante six, déposé es mains de Turmenie notaire, le vingt deuxième de Decembre suivant, au profit de M^r Nicolas Esmery, Advocat en la Cour de Parlement, son filz, avec clause de substitution au deffaut d'enfans males, selon et ainsi qu'il est porté par iceluy Testament, et par la Tranfaction passée en execution d'iceluy, entre ledit Sieur Esmery pere, son Exeuteur testamentaire, et ledit Sieur Esmery filz, contenant l'Inventaire et les noms d'iceux volumes manuscrits, par devant ledit de Turmenie et son Compagnon notaires, le troisième jour de Septembre mil six cens cinquante sept. Icele Tranfaction et l'extrait d'iceluy Testament Olographe infinez au Greffe du Chastelet de Paris, le treizieme jour de Septembre audit an mil six cens cinquante sept, et registrez au cent neuvieme Volume des Insinuations d'iceluy, comme il appert par l'acte icelle insinuation, Signé FAUSSET et LUCE."

4598.

1. "Ambassade extraordinaire de Mr. de Bassompierre en Espagne, envoyé pour le Roy, sur le sujet de la restitution de la Valteline, 1621." 1.
2. "Negotiation de Mr. de Bassompierre, envoyé Ambassadeur Extraordinaire en Angleterre, de la part du Roy l'an 1626." 225.

4599.

"Histoire Ecclesiastique du Diocese de Coutance, contenant la vie des Evêques de ce lieu, et ce qui s'est passé de plus remarquable sous l'Episcopat de chacun." xvii.

4600.

A small folio of 87 Leaves, containing the visitation of Bedfordshire, made by W^m Harvy, Clarenceux King of Armes, A.D. 1566; whose grant of a Coat of Arms to W^m Palmer Esq. is copied at length, f. 86. At the end is an alphabetical Index, and after it is 5186, which see.

CAT. HARL. VOL. III.

Num. 4601—4604.

4601.

A thin folio, indifferently written on Paper, but in good Preservation, having the following account of it at the beginning, by Lord Oxford himself.

"This I take to be Observations upon Home of Goscroft's History of the House of Douglas and Angus, by Mr. Tho^r Crawford, a learned and judicious Antiquary."

This Remark seems only to relate to the first part, containing 36 pages, beginning with a prefatory Address to W^m 1st Marquis of Douglas and Earl of Angus, &c.

2. The second part, in a better Hand, contains 70 Leaves, not till now marked, having the Name of, "Mr. Th. Crawford, 1645," written at the beginning and end. P. 1. commences with an Account of the Origin of Surnames, and other general Matters. After which the genealogical Account commences, A.C. 771. with Sholto Douglas (i. e. Behold the Black Grey coloured Man), and continues, with Heads of each Descent fairly written at the Top, dated, and blended with much History of Scotland, &c. down to the year 1400. The former part ending in 1314.

See the mutual Alliances between the Houses of Douglas and Drummond, in the curious History of the latter, 4238. p. 553.

A thin folio, on Paper, closely written, on 176 Pages, with the following Title; all apparently written by the Author's own Hand.

"Militarie Observations upon the first seven Bookes of Julius Cæsar his Commentaries: together with some brief Militarie Orders concerning the ordering of a Garrison in general, & in particular; as also some Militarie Articles of Warr, whereby to governe an Army or a Garrison, according to the true Discipline of Warr. Written by S^r William Throckmorton Kng^t during the sad Time of his exile out of England, and in the year of our Redemption 1655, by him compiled together, finished, and humbly dedicated to his Excellency William Lord Marquis of Newcastle, &c."

He refers, in his Dedication, to a former Treatise of War, which he had dedicated to the King: Which Treatise is in this Collection, N^o 6008.

Collectio amplissima, et labore summo compilata, à Jesuita quodam, de regulis Ordinis sui; luculenter scripta, in pagg^o 501. Additis insuper, tractatu, "ex memoriali Communi R. P. Schereni 1617;" et tabula contentorum locupleti. Citantur passim, in priore quaque paginâ literæ Apostolicæ, Constitutiones, et reliqui Instituti sui (ut auctor ait) libri; qui in margine adscribuntur. In adverfa pagina eadem res confirmat, in binis columnis; 1. "Ex Ordinationibus &c. non impressis P. P. Generalium et Visitatorum approbatis à Generalibus. 2. "Ex notis P. Hieronymi Natalis." Ad finem scribit, "Ad majorem Dei gloriam, Beatæque Virginis Mariæ, 20 Augusti 1620."

4604.

A thin Paper Book, bound up with N^o 1635.

On the first Leaf is written, "D. M. Dan. Manwaring's Booke, A. Domini MDCXXX." Then follows a quaint Title, in this Form.

"Direcçons for Speech and Style,

The Dedication is address'd, "to the forwardnes of many virtuous Hopes in a Gent. of the Temple, by the Author." It is signed, "Jo. Hoskins."

The Tract is fairly written on 53 Pages, some of the first being omitted in the numbering. xvii.

A very curious and well preserved Copy of the Tract, "Des fais d'Armes," by Christine de Pise or Pisan, the chief part of whose poetical Works have been found to be contained in N^o 4431 of this Collection.

The Tract is divided into Four Books, the beginning of each ornamented with an Illumination. The first Illumination contains a Portrait of the Author, similar exactly in dress to most of those in N^o 4431. Her Name appears in the Rubric prefixed to the Prologue, "Cy commence le livre des fais d'Armes et de Chevalerie. Le premier chapitre est le prologue, ou quel Christine s'excuse d'avoir osé entreprendre de parler de si haute matiere comme est ceste." xv.

This Copy is beautifully written on Vellum, and is dated at London in 1434; by the following curious Colophon.

"Explicit. Digatz (probably for Deo gratias). Un pater noster et un Ave Maria per mossen Pey (or Rey) de la fita, qui a escrit a quest livre en l'an de nre sengr mil ccccxxxiiii. Et fut fait alondres, a xv de May."

The Book afterwards belonged to a Monastery in Burgundy, for on the first Leaf is written,

"Monasterii S^æ Crucis Burdigal, congregat. Sⁱⁱ Mauri, Catalogo inscriptus an. 1718."

4638.

A Catalogue of the printed Books belonging to the Count de Brienne. It is fairly written on 87 leaves regularly paged, and divided into 25 Classes, marked chiefly by the letters of the Alphabet; with an Appendix to the Contents of each Class. At the end is a Contract of Donation from the Count de Brienne (Louis Henry de Loménie) to his Son. It appears by this, that he then gave away his printed Books; what became of his MSS. at the same time does not appear, but they seem to have passed into the possession of the Segulier family, whence they came here. The Catalogue of the MSS. N° 4689 and 4690 has no such deed inserted in it. In 1665 the C. de Brienne had resigned his Office, and retired to the Oratory; the Deed is this:

"Le present Cathalogue, contenant cent foixante quatorze feuillets a esté signé double par les parties et not^{re} soub-signés &c. suivant le Contract de donation faite par M^{re} Louis Henry de Loménie de Brienne, de l'Oratoire

Vol. V. Calig. D. 1. p. 1. to 337. D°.

At the beginning is the following Entry:

“This Volume contains Transcripts from a Volume of the Cottonian Library, Caligula D. 2. which is now burnt, & consisted of Letters and other Papers of State, concerning the Transactions between England & Scotland, 1587, 1588 & 9.”

In the new Catalogue of the Cotton MSS. it is stated that this Volume and the next (Calig. D. 11.) which had been much damaged by the Fire in 1731, had till now been kept in Cases in loose Sheets. Many Articles have by this Means been lost, and the whole was thrown into the greatest Disorder. What remains has now been arranged, and the original paging preserved, a few Sheets excepted, whose proper places it has been impossible to ascertain, &c. J. P. 1794.”

This Volume, D. 1. differs considerably from the Articles given in the above Catalogue. This beginning with a Letter of the French King for Reconciliation of the Discourse between Card. of Lorraine and Marsh. Montmorency, fol. 2. In the 2nd Article they agree, but afterwards this goes from fol. 29 to 88, the other taking in the intermediate Articles. They afterwards go on nearly together to 452 (therefore see that Catalogue), which here thus concludes, “234, Nine Fragments, the true Places of which could not be ascertained, consist- ing of 14 leaves.” But this Volume continues from its p. 234 to the end, with divers other similar Letters, &c.

A Paper Book, of 80 written pages, dedicated to King James II. and probably presented to him, by the Author F. Demorinde. This was apparently the presentation Copy, the Royal Arms being stamped on the Covers, and this Note entered in the first leaf. "This did belong to King James, I had it from Coll. Grabme." The Title is this:

"Le Major parfait, qui apprend avec facilité le maniement des armes, les evolutions militaires, avec la maniere d'entrer dans le champ de bataille, et former les bataillons, 1686." xvii.

A very old copy of Breton de Legibus Angliæ, as far as B. iii. ch. 36. "De Assise utrum." The rubric at the beginning says, "Incipit Tractatus qui dicitur Brutonis:" and Brut^{us} is written at the top of each leaf. In other MSS. in this collection the Author is called Braton, Braeton, Breton, &c.; but the Tract is still the same. xiv.

4657.

Codex vetus membranaceus, continens poemata Latina et Gallica.

1. Poema versu rhythmico, incipiens; "A Tauro torrida lampade Scincii." fol. quatuor. xiv.

2. "Le Manuel de Peche." Versu Gallico. "La vertu del seint esprit."

3. Poema Gallicum, seriore, sed antiqua manu adscriptum.

4689.

A thin folio of 89 pages, containing an Account of Proceedings against the Rebels in the year 1685, and other prisoners in the counties of Southampton, Wilts, Dorset, Devon, & Somerset, by Judge Jeffries & others.

4690.

A parchment volume of 115 leaves containing;

1. The old Chronicle, usually called the Kalendar or Chronicle of Brute, to the sixth year of Henry V. The readings appear to be better than in many of the old copies. Thus the King of Syria first mentioned is called Diodycyas, or Diodiciar, who is frequently made into Dioclesian; and his daughter is Albyne, from whom Albion is said to be named, who is in some copies Albitc, &c.

In the old Catalogue this was called "a Chronicle of England by Douglas. Monk of Glastenbury." This was taken from an old annotation on a spare leaf at the beginning, in these words. "The memorialle Chronicle written by John Douglas, Munke of Glastonburye Abbay." Douglas however was, if any thing, only transcriber, for no such Chronicler is known; and this undoubtedly is the very well known Chronicle styled Brute.

2. A Poem in Old English Verse on the acts of Richard 1st. fol. 106. It begins;

"That itte was Richarde the Kyngge
He wende he hadde be at Salefbury.
Att the castell and made hem mery.
They priked ther stedes & to geder mette
Sir Fonkedoly fuche a stroke he sette
Amydde is schelde with outen tale
That itte to scheverd in to pecis smale
And with that dynte so harde he thraffe
That the shafte a too he braffe
The knight fell down sothe to faye,
The Kingge rode northe on is wey."

A Prologue, or some other matter, seems to have preceded this. The book was bought at Mr. Rawlinson's sale in 1734. xv.

4691.

A Paper Book, distinctly written, on the Laws of Scotland, containing;

1. A kind of Law Dictionary, on 309 pages, ending with the word Seffion.
2. A second alphabet, with this title. "Practiques collected before the Lords of Session, by the E. of Haddington." occupying 213 pages.

Bought in Mr. Rawlinson's sale, and contains, Arms of Families of Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Bedfordshire, & Hertfordshire, 1699: with an alphabetical Index. Pages 52 in all. Pages 39, &c. are sketches of the maces and seals, &c. of Hertford, St Albans, Bedford, Bucks, City of Oxford, Banbury.

4693.

Abstracts & Copies of several Charters, with draughts of their Seals: written by Sir Ja. Balfour, of Kinnard Lyon King at Armes, fol. 49. This is a curious collection relating to Scotland. Fol. 24. is a neat drawing of K. James's Seal to his Charter, dated at Sterling 1602.

Num. 4694—4598.

1. "Judicium contra omnes qui fuerunt contra fidem Regis Roberti."

4. "Declaratio Parliamenti, quod Johannes primogenitus Roberti Regis debet succedere in Regnum, 1371."
5. "Chartæ Comitatus de Carrick, Atholia, Vigtorne, concessorum quibusdam nobilibus."
6. "Resignatio Isabellæ de Douglas, Comitissæ de Mar, terrarum suarum de Jamilton & Boneton."
7. Indenture of Concord between Murdugh Duke of Albany & Alex. Earl of Mar.
8. "———— inter Rob. Senescallum Comitem de Menteish et Isabellam Comitissam de Fife, 1371."
9. "Declaratio Parliamenti, quod Edwardus de Bruce debet succedere, hæredibus masculis Roberti Bruce Regis Scotorum deficientibus, 1315."
10. "Ordinatio super defensione jurium, & definitione successionis ad Regnum Scotiæ, 1318." fol. 36. This MS. is in the same hand-writing as the last, & bound up with it & 4697.

4695.

Codex membranaceus pulcher, continens Marfilii Ficini Commentarios in Epistolam S. Pauli ad Romanos.

Dividitur Commentarius in capita xxvi. sed procedit tantum ad ver. 12. capituli v Epistolæ. Extat Commentarius inter Opera Ficini.

Ad finem Codicis scribitur; "le livre appartient a maistre Germain de Ganay," subjungitur, manu recentiore, "en son vivant Eveſque d'Orleans, frere de Jehan de Gannay chancelier de France, et freres de ma bisayeule maternelle." xvii.

4696.

A folio of 233 closely written pages, containing Sir Tho. Hope's Practice in the Law of Scotland. That name however does not now appear. xviii.

4697.

A Book, containing some remarkable Trials in the Criminal Court in Scotland, particularly the Trials of L. Balmerinoch, 1634, for concealing a Petition that was to be given to K. Charles I. when he was crowned: L. Ochiltree, 1631, for calumnies against the Marq. of Hamilton: Rob. Nicholl, 1633, for Libels: James Hart, 1637, for Murder: Alex. Irving, &c. 1635, for partiality on the Jury: John Meldrum, 1630, for stealing: Jon Teofschof, 1632, for burning the Tour of Frend, &c. fol. 158, which last contains some other memorandums. This MS. seems in the same hand as 4693, 4.

4698.

A small folio, neatly written in old court hand on 32 leaves of paper, & well preserved, containing an account of Jewels taken by Q. Elizabeth at New-years Tides, from the 14 to the 28 year of her Reign, & delivered in charge to M^{rs} Katherine Howard, one of the gentlewomen of her Majesty's Privy Chamber, by bill indented between her & John Asteley Esq. Treasurer of the Queen's Jewels, &c. Fol. 8. are the "Juells given to her Majesty in progressive time A^o Regni sui xvi. And the name of the Persons who presented Gifts to her Majesty are mentioned throughout with marginal Notes of Presents made by the Queen. On the binding are her Arms & Initials E. R.

18. Res variæ de Legibus aliis.

Scribitur passim nomen Thomæ Henryson, et semel cum anni nota, 1500, 22 Aprilis, sed Codex evidenter multo est antiquior. De hac re exscribi digna est annotatio, manu multo recentiore præfixa primo Regiæ Majestatis libro.

"Nota hunc librum transcriptum esse è libro constitutionum et Statutorum Regum Angliæ ante a Normannis latorum, et regnante Henrico Secundo, vel paulo post à pragmatico collectorum. Neque compositum à nostris pragmaticis ut vulgò putatur, et a D. Segnæo malè asseritur, nam hujus libri pars maxima exscripta est ex Ranulpho de Glanvilla, ut ex libro ejus, CAT. HARL. VOL. III.

Num. 4701—4705.

typis ante annum quinquagesimum supra 1500^m excuso patet: hujus enim libri authorem post Ranulphi tempora vixisse constat, cum ejus expressa mentio fiat in parte secunda cap. 67. (vel 8. Nec quia in hoc præmio author se manda'u Regis David, cum consilio Cleri et populi, scriptis commissurum leges et jura regni refert, ideo existimas eum de S. Davide rege intellexisse, qui anno partæ salutis nostræ millesimo centesimo vicefimo quarto cœpit regnare, sed de Davide 2^o qui anno dñi 1330 cœpit regnare, et 1370 obiit. Ranulphus autem de Glanvilla, Cestriæ comes, claruit anno dñi 1230, ut refert Baleus, hoc est temporibus Alexandri 3." XIV.

Formularia Instrumentorum Juris Anglicani. Liber erat Johannis Bodiam unius Clericorum sive Curfitarum Curie Cancellariæ, A.D. 1543. xv.

Codex membranaceus, non inelegans.

4702.

A Journal of the Parliament of January 1628, to its dissolution in March, with an exact Table of Contents prefixed. Nearly, but not exactly the same as that in N^o 4619. 3. It has this title. "A true relation of every dayes proceedings in Parliament, from the beginning thereof, being the xx^m January 1628." It ends with the King's Speech, and the immediate dissolution, March x. the same year, fairly written, on 170 leaves.

4703.

Codex membranaceus, continens Sermones ad minimum 107, in varios Scripturarum textus. Præmittitur titulus manu feriore, sed veteri; "Sermones diversi de tempore et Sanctis in Epistolas et Evangelia." Est etiam, simili manu, tabula præmiorum omnium. Scriptura varia, sed bona, et sæculo 14 vix juniore. xiv.

Liber olim Thomæ Tempest Baronetti.

Codex membranaceus pulcher, continens M. Accii Plauti Comœdias octo, nempe, Amphitryonem, p. 1. Asinariam 40. Captivos. 72. Curculionem 109. Casinam 135. Cistellariam 166. Epidicum 183. Aululariam 209.

Mireris quare Aulularia extra locum occurrat; et quo magis mireris, rubrica ad finem ait, "Plauti Asinii poetæ clarissimi explicit Aulularia Comœdia tercia." At non transpositam in hoc codice fuisse, fidem faciunt paginarum in utroque loco continuatio.—In marginibus occurrunt notulæ breves, sed non contemnendæ. xv.

A small folio of 107 pages and upwards, (some about f. 30 being marked irregularly) formerly belonging to Peter Le Neve, Norroy, who has written the following Table of Contents at the beginning, after which are some remarks upon the Letters, &c. by Dugdale; and by Jo. Cooke, dated Whitehall 1686. At the back of which is an engraved Portrait of Charles I.

Then follows in a good hand (seemingly G. King.)

1. Threnodia Carolina: (p. 3. to 81.) by Sir Tho. Herbert, with his Letter to Sir W^m. Dugdale, dated at York, 1681. 83.
2. Major Huntington's Relation to Sir W^m. Dugdale, 1679, of sundry particulars about K. C. 1. 85.

11. Sermones, de ligno Crucis, &c. Liber emptus per D. Th. Walwell, 12 die Junii, 1513. Postea D. Thomæ Tempesti Baronetti: Membranaceus.

A Paper Volume, of 163 leaves; containing, besides four leaves of introductory Matters, a large Collection of Miscellanies in Prose & Verse, but chiefly the latter, by Mark Hilly or Hildesly, (for he writes himself both ways) Bencher of Lincolns Inn. His name occurs at fol. 136 b. 148 b. and else where. At fol. 143. is the following Epitaph of the Author on himself.

"Exuvie M [arci] H [ilfly] Armigeri, quondam unius Sociorum de regali hospitio Lincolnienfi.

Hoc in loco inhumatur
M. H. cadaver vitæ satur.
Cui Marcus (Aldermannus) pater;
Et Dorothea fuit mater.
Et Stephanus (Mercator) frater.
Per Cantab. Oxon. huc meatur,
Quam Lincoln's Inn, plus ultra datur.
Conjugibus bis decoratur,
At licet filiatu quater
In duobus tandem is beatur.
Natus 15 Apr. MDCXXX.
Denat. MDCLXXXV^o."

An English Translation equally odd, is subjoined. He seems to have been a singular humourist, very fond of scribbling. The second leaf contains a Sketch of a title, but with a line drawn across, "169. Essayes and Contemplations Divine & Morall, Miscellaneous, in prose & meter. p M. H. & fr^d to Philanthropus. Being the 2^d Edition of, with considerable Additions to, Religio Juris-prudentis, the Lawyer's advice to his Sonn. Wherein also the 22 moot poynts therein proposed & promised to be decided in the first Edition are briefly discussed, together with other notions or vulgar errors detected & refelled. Viderit utilitas, ut res magis valeant quam pereant. Sed non nobis nati, partem patria vendicat, partem parentes, Amici partem." The moot points there mentioned commence at fol. 132. He ends with a whimsical parody on "Jam que opus exegi," &c. He speaks sometimes (as fol. 131 b.) XVII. of his printed Works. This was probably the Grandfather of B^p Hildesley, whose name was also Mark.

4727.

Two or three Common place Books of Law: the last, of 116 leaves. On the last leaf is, "Thomas Goldyng of Rye in the Countie of Suss. Gentleman," and "Philippus et Maria Dei gratia." XVII.

Three

Num. 4728—4733.

4728, 4729, 4730.

Three MS. paper volumes, by some inadvertence separated from the set to which they belong, namely Nos 4060, 4061, 4062. The volumes there, are the first, second, & fourth; here, the third, fifth, & sixth; making altogether a complete collection of observations, formed by the same hand, & written in the same careful way, from the year 1662 to 1676. The titles of the three volumes here occurring are these, xvii.

3. "Choice & select observables, various and delightful, the third Volume. Collected & registered by R. D. Anno 1666, 1667."

5. "Choice & select observables, various & delightful. The fifth Volume. Collected and registered by R. D. Annis 1670, 1671, 1672, 1673."

6. "Choice & select observables, various & delightful. The sixth Volume. Collected and registered by R. D. Annis. 1674, 1675, 1676."

The whole forms a surprising mass of various, and frequently curious historical, & other matters, but the name of the writer no where appears. The last volume ends abruptly at p. 245. in the beginning of a sentence. "That the Archangels." See the account of the other three volumes at the numbers 4060, &c.

De potestate Ecclesiæ, liber ἀκροῦς, et aliter imperfectus, chartaceus, scriptura minuta, et obscura. xvi.

4732.

A small 4^{to} of 175 pages, written upon paper, and containing,

1. An Ordinary of Arms of Scotland, divided in two parts. The first called the lords, who are placed according to their precedency. The second is of those who are placed alphabetically. Collected briefly and in proper terms of Heraldry.

2. Petit Traicté des Armories. This is bound up with 5392 & 6091. which see, as relating to Scotland.

A book of vellum and paper intermixed, containing; xv.

1. Cato's Distichs, in Latin, with a translation in English verse subjoined to each. At the end, "Explicit liber Catonis, compositus per magistrum Benedictum Burgh, Vicarium de Malden," &c.

2. A collection of moral Sentences in Verse, in divisions of four, six, & eight lines, with the name of an author from whom the sentence is taken prefixed to each. Probably by the same author.

3. A very long poem, in couplet Verse, on the death of Christ, & the destruction of Jerusaleem.

It begins,

"Listeneth alle þat ben alyve
Boþe cristen men & wyve
I shal yow tellen a wondur cas how Ihus crist yhaten was Al of þe Jewes fel & kene
And þt was fethen on hem ysene."

It ends,

"Now yblessyd be our lord so hende
Here is the story ybrought to an ende
Yblessyd mot the all now be
Of Jhū crist in trinitè
þat his deth han now Iwroken
As I have before ispoken
And eke I hope þat þey han I wys
All to hæc mede hevyn blysse
And God graunt us all there to be Amen, Amen, per Charité."

"Explicit hic sedes et (scr. ut) obsidium de civitate Jerusaleem. Jhs est Amor meus."

Some leaves appear to be deficient or transposed towards the end. The book is perhaps older than the 15th Century, or early in it.

6. An History of the Kings of England, from W. 1. to Ric. 1.

The Contents of this book are of very different ages, partly on Paper, partly Vellum. The dramatic poems are not older than the end of the 17th Century.

4737.

Codex membranaceus vetus, continens tractatum de formulis Juris, in quatuor libros divisum. E duobus libris prioribus unus videtur desisse. Liber tertius incipit ad fol. 43. b. cum tabula capitulorum; quartus ad fol. 56. incipiebat. sed è capitibus septem, unum solummodo extat, idque imperfectum. Codex folia habet 56.

In primo folio scribitur Anno Domini. incarn. Milles^{mo} sed numerus centenarius, &c. omittitur.

Codex chartaceus, bonus; in eodem volumine compactus cum numero 5389. Continet Etymologicum Linguae Latinæ, è notis Donati in Terentii Comædiis desumptum, et ordine alphabetico digestum. Græca, ut fieri solet in Latinis Codicibus, sæpe depravata; sed è Donato facili negotio restauranda. Sic in Abbigurire, ἄγγυριον scribitur pro ἄγγυρον. In Catus, προ παρα το καειν habemus monstrum verbi, παρα τοο'εμ. Prælo dignus videtur hic liber, si nondum impressus sit.

In primis foliis scribuntur, manu recentiore, Epigrammata 15 circiter, notæ non optimæ. Ad finem etiam varia, scriptura codici similiore, sed corrupta plerumque et semibarbara, versu et prosa scripta. In versibus de Alexandro Magno habemus,

"Omnia mattabam, mattor et ipse miser." xv.

Codex chartaceus, manu fatis eleganti scriptus, paginarum scriptarum 222. Continens "Dictata L. F. Gronovii in Petronium."

Cum inter Editores vel illustratores Petronii non recenseretur J. Fr. Gronovius, inedita possunt esse hæc viri Cl. Scholia; quod si ita sit, pro thesauro ritè haberi potest hic liber, qui scriptura clara et facili lectores invitat; et exscribi pro prelo facillimè possit. xvii.

Num. 4470—4745.

“Figuræ Novi et Veteris Testamenti, ad materias diversas per Alphabetum compilatæ, per fratrem Bindum Ordinis Heremitarum.” xv.

Cur figuræ appellantur non satis apparet. Sunt enim loci communes, cum indice locupletati. Codex chartaceus, bene conservatus.

Commentarius brevis, auctoris incerti, in Persii Satiras. Præmittitur Vita Persii, ferè eadem quæ in Edd. occurrit, et Valerio Probo à quibusdam adscribitur. Auctior tamen videtur, ferè quintâ parte, ad finem; et habet, in aliis locis, variationes insignes.

Codex est chartaceus, et eâ scripturâ quæ non ferior sæculo 15 putanda est. Casleius 16^o sæc. ascripsit. xv.

Sicconis (five Xicconis) Polentoni, “Epitome in vitas Scriptorum illustrium Latinæ Linguæ,” libri 18. Codex est chartaceus, eximie scriptus, anno 1438, ut ex rubricâ ad finem liquet.

De libro hoc ita Fabricius (Bibl. Med. et Inf. Lib. xvi.) “De illustribus scriptoribus Linguæ Latinæ, Libri 18, huc usque nondum editi, sed tamen in variis Bibliothecis latitantes. Adfunt enim in Vaticanâ, Card^o Ottoboni, et Patavinâ. B. de Montfauc. Bibl. Bibliothec^a MSS. &c. Ex eo Vitam Petrarchæ edidit. Jac. Phil. Thomassinus, in Petrarchâ redivivo.”

Ex auctoris Prologo, ad Polidorum filium, optimè apparet libri consilium. Est autem hujusmodi; “Profitetur, mi Polidore, suavissime fili, opus hoc ad te scriptum, vitas scriptorum illustrium Latinæ Linguæ. Hæc quidem rei summa est. At si attendimus ordinem, præcedunt doctrinarum inventores. Deinde poetæ. Postea Historici veniunt. Novissimè autem commixta quædam Oratorum et Moralium sequitur acies. Ea vero loci est habita ratio quæ librorum.

1. “Qui est primus, is literarum omnisque doctrinæ ac sapientiæ principia et originem memorat. 2. Secundus laudat poësim, et qui fuerunt poetæ primi, comicos, tragicos, lascivos, in Nasonem usque et Martialem coquum refert. 3. Tertius Maronem, Horatium, et quos civitas Roma Magistratus habuit tradit. 4. Poetas quartus Persium, Lucanum, Senecam tragicum, Statium Tolosanum, Juvenalem Aquinatem, ac deinde inferiores tenet. 5. Quintus narrat ossitium et dignitatem historiæ. Deinde qui res memorant externas dicit. 6. Sextus regum ac reipub. Romæ scriptores notat. 7. Cæsareos numerat septimus. 8. Octavus, dat qui exempla, qui rerum tempora, qui locorum situs tradunt, atque Plinium utrumque commemorat. 9. Nonus Censorinum, Catonem, et qui Romanorum fuit doctissimus, M. A fair & handsome Copy of the History of the Hastings family, of their vast property in several Counties, but chiefly Leicester, compiled by H^r E. of Huntingdon, in his Castle at Ashby de la Zouch, 1533, from the curious documents in 3881, before described, & 4849. Of all which copious extracts are printed in Nichols's Leic.

At the beginning are bound in with it some loose fragments of Pedigrees, &c. of the family, also relating to the late Priory of Christ Church, &c. in Hants. The Manor, Rectory, & Hundred of Piddleton in Dorset, &c.

This beautiful MS. (seemingly in the hand-writing of Gregory King, by the similitude to the Chetwynd MSS. at Ingestre in Staff.) consists of 137 folios, & in the 1st is a neat Introduction on the origin, &c. of Surnames, as now printed in the Preface to Vol. II. of Shaw's Stafford. On collating this MS. with that part of the Baronage 580, I find that to be extracted from it almost verbatim, which is a sufficient proof of its being the hand-writing of Gregory King, the well known amanuensis, &c. of Dugdale.

In p. 52. is a curious description of the Chapel at Windsor, &c. where the Priest was to say Mass, &c. for the souls of the E. of H. & the Lady Kath^e his wife, whose curious will is also inserted at length, p. 58. &c. as printed in Leicester, Vol. III. part 2. p. 572.

P. 117. &c. is a valuation of all the Manors, &c. in divers Counties of H^r E. Huntingdon, 1 Eliz.

P. 128. is the same account of the Funeral Charges, &c. of H^r E. of Huntingdon, from York to Ashley, &c. as before noticed in 3881. p. 56.

Num. 4774—4776.

P. 130. is a fuller & better account of the marriage Settlement of George E. of Huntingdon & Dorothy da' of Sr. John Port of Etwall, &c. than in 3881. p. 56. b.

N.B. in 3882, towards the latter part is a Pedigree of Hastings.

The rubric at the beginning of the Work itself is thus,

"This book is compiled of the lyues of Seynts, callid in latyn LEGENDA AURCA. First bygynnyth the lyff of Saynt Andrewe."

A single Leaf is wanting at the end, or two at most. In the beginning is inserted; by some much more modern owner, a large Print of the Fair held on the Thames, in the Frost of 1716.

A book written and ruled with great neatness, on folio paper, of a large size, and bound up with Nos. 6154 and 6165.

It is in some degree imperfect. The first leaf is marked 11, and treats of the different species of Government. The second leaf is numbered 22, and the matter begins abruptly with an account of the Subjugation of Germany by the Romans. The whole of Germany is then ruled out into separate divisions, with a distinct and subdivided account of each part. It is a very exact account, with the Genealogies of the ruling Families. At fol. 74 is a Drawing of a great Commander of Prussia, in his regular Habit. The whole of Germany is here divided into Eight Parts; and the Work terminates abruptly at the beginning of the 7th part, and at the 92d Leaf. xvii.

A Paper MS. very ill written, containing a Translation of the Dialogues of Giambattista Gello of Florence, by W. Iden; with a Dedication to Lord Herbert of Cardiff, M^r Edward & M^r Henry Compton, his brothers.

These Dialogues were published originally in 1549, and translated also by Barker 1599. xvii.

A Book chiefly on Vellum, but with more modern Titles, and other Illustrations on Paper, inserted, and also marginal Observations. These seem to have been written in the 17th Century, the Book is not younger than the 15th. First is inserted the following general Title.

"The Lives of the glorious Kings and Martyrs, EDMUND King of East England, and FREMUND King of Mercia, wrighten by that excellent Poete of his tyme, JOHN LIDGATE, Monke of Burye, and by him dedi- cated unto King HENRY the Sixte of England and of France, together with some other Poems by the same Author."

At the back of this Title is affixed a very neat old drawing, with a pen, slightly shaded, with this inscrip- tion; "Lidgat presenting his Booke, called the Pilgrime, unto the Earle of Salisbury;" and below, "Thomas Montacute, Earle of Salisbury." Then follow an ac- count of Lydgate from Pits, and a copy of Latin Hexa- meters on King Edmund, signed "Alph. Mera." The ancient part then proceeds.

1. Lydgate's

Num. 4826—4829.

1. Lydgate's Poem on S' Edmund, with an illumination prefixed, beginning thus:

"The noble stoorie to putte in remembraunce off Seynt Edmond, mayde, mastir, and Kynge,
With his suppoort my style I wyl advance
First to compyle afur my Konnyng."

2. The Life of S' Fremund by the same, with this rubric prefixed. "Here folwith a Prologe of Seynt Fremund Son to Kyng Offa & Cofyn to Seynt Edmond."

3. "Here follwith a Miracle that Cryst shewed for Seynt Edmond afur his deth; for King Sweyn, with othir Miracles as it folweth."

4. "Here begynneth a Myracle doon in Seynt Auftynis tyme."

These four Articles are written on in continuation, without any distinct division, except the marginal rubrics. Then follows another of the modern Titles, thus:

5. "Alexander and Aristoteles, or a Treatise of the Governance of Kinges & Princes, wrighten by JOHN LIBGAT, Monke of Bury, & by him dedicated unto Henry the Sixte King of England & France." At the end of this, in a more modern hand is, "An Epitaph of Sir W^m Doury of Hansted in Suff." in three Stanzas of 6 lines each.

6. Another modern Title in these words.

"The Worckes of Thomas Occleff (sometyme of the Privy Signet Office) that is to saye, 1. A Dialogue inter Occleff (scr. Occleff) et Mendicum. 2. De Regimine Principis, to a Prince of Wales, who was afterwarde Henri the Fifte King of England, &c." Subjoined on another leaf, is an Account of Occleff from Pits, or Pitfæus. This is a Translation of Ægidius de Regimine Principum. The painting of Chaucer, which should stand on the sixth leaf from the end of the Poem, has been cut out. It belongs properly to this work, & is spoken of in the text. See the excellent Miniature in N^o 4866, fol. 91.

7. Some Verses in a more modern, but rather obscure hand. The first being Maxims in short Stanzas, the next two not inelegant Stanzas, of ten Lyric lines each.

The volume is of singular value; being more illustrated than usual by its original Rubrics, & still more by the later Observations, which, as well as the Titles must have been added by some studious person about the time of Charles II. or even Charles I.

The old Chronicle entitled Brute, continued to the 6th year of Henry V. very fairly written on Vellum, but not so correct as 4690. At the beginning, "Willm Lambarde 1570, pretium xij^{lb}." Whether the mark above the 12 is for pounds or not, is however rather doubtful. At the end, among various scribblings, is this Latin couplet.

"Doctus docta canit, pueri puerilia fundunt, Vana refert vanus, turpia turpis habet."

4828.

A Paper Book bound up with 6761. On the outer leaf, the name Denfell Hollys, with some Mottos. It contains an old Treatise on the Art of War; the Title is torn, but thus much remains of it. "This boke is intitualed to the practyfed Soldiers for remembraunce and to the unexfert for Instructions, touching the noble—the Wars set on—hands—B—" It appears to be a curious Tract.

A very curious Manuscript, finely written on Paper & Vellum, containing a translation of the seven first books of Livy in the old French of the time of John King of France. (1350, &c.)

The Author calls himself Friar Berter, Prior of St. Aloy at Paris, and enumerates five works of which he was the Author. 1. Reductorium morale. 2. a Repertorium morale. 3. Breviarium morale. 4. a map of the World, with a description, & 5. This Translation; which is spoken of as comprising the three first Decades, or 30 books, of Livy; of which only 7 are here preserved. As the Language is singular, & has been mistaken for Spanish, some Specimens of it are subjoined. After a kind of Dictionary of Latin words, not rendered in the Translation but used unaltered, the Introduction to the Work thus begins,

“Al princep de molt gran excellencia, Johan Rey de Fransa, per la divinal gracia, Frare Pere Berter son petit Servidor, Prior a present de Sent Aloy de Paris, ab tota humil reverencia et subiectio.”

After assigning certain general reasons for the Undertaking, he thus explains the design; functioned also by the King's Command.

“Axi donchs, molt excellent Senyor, me manats vos, que les III decades de Titus Livius, en les quals son continuades les yltories Romanes yo translades de Lati en Frances.”

Here, therefore, & again in the next sentence, & elsewhere, the Author calls the language he uses French. His works are thus recounted by himself.

1. “De les quals lo primer es Reductori moral. 2. lo segon es Repertori moral. 3. lo ters es breviari moral. 4. lo quart si es lo mapa mundi, es la Rescripcio. 5. lo quint es aquesta translacio.”

A large vellum book, written in three Columns, formerly belonging to the Count de Brienne, whose Arms are stamped on the Covers. It appears to be a second Volume, as the leaves are marked at bottom with the beginning of a second alphabet, A a 1. 2, &c. and the matter begins abruptly. The whole has been a Romance of great Extent, illuminated at every principal division with Pictures very rudely drawn. The chief names occurring in this part are those of Castidorus, Pelyarmenus, Josyas, Helcanus, &c.

This Volume has every eight leaves marked, like an octavo sheet, though the size is that of a very large folio, and the first division or sheet of this kind is marked 30. The former Volume ought therefore to have contained 35 of such sheets. The enumeration is carried on here to 65, marked on the last Page of each eight leaves, of which therefore there ought to be 240.

At the end is the following colophon, but no date.

"Ci fine les livres de Marques de Romme, de Laurin, de Castidorus, et Polyarmanus, et des faits de plusieurs emperours de Romme et de Constantinoble. Si comme il est devant contenu en l'ystoire." xiv.

The Genealogical History of the House of Shirley: by Thomastos Caloleimon. xxii.

"The genealogick History of the House of Shirleys, Lords of Etingdon, Shirley, Hoya, Ednesfour, Staunton Harold, Ragdale, Braylesford, Aftwell, & divers other Places. Justified by Charters of divers Churches, publick Records of the Kingdom, private Evidences, & other good & certain proofs; enriched with divers figures and discourses of Antiquity. By Thomastos Caloliemon, Philopatron." This is doubtless a fictitious name or rather a synonymous one, formed from the Greek, for Shirley, the real Author being Sr. Thos. Shirley Kt. of Botolphbridge in Com. Huntingdon, (called also a singular lover & searcher of Antiquities, p. 108. b.) as appears in the title page to his other collections 4028, & dedication in 4023, of which last this MS. is principally a translation, tho' considerable variations and additions, &c. are to be reciprocally found in each, as here briefly noticed.

Each book of this volume has grotesque drawings at the top.

The first Book in 24 folios divided into 4 Chapters, & entitled, (p. 1.) "The Prerogatives & Excellencies, of the house of Shirley," differs very little from the latin copy, except in the last pages where the seals are differently placed.

Chap. 2. is an excellent treatise "on the Names of this renowned family & their Etimologies;"

Chap. 3. (p. 9. &c.) "The Situation, Antiquity, & brief description of the Towns of Etingdon & Shirley, with the Etimologies of their Names." The latter being derived from y° Saxon Shire, clear, & ley, a place or pasture, & which accounts for the Author's coining for himself the above Greek surname, adding Philopatron, or Lover of his ancestors.

Chap. 4. (p. 11.) "The Arms & Crest of the House of Shirleys." A learned and ingenious discourse upon armorial bearings in general, & illustrated by Seals of this family in particular, most of which are engraved exactly as those drawings, in Dugdale's Warw. p. 478, tho' no use is made of these MSS. Other drawings of the same, &c. may be seen in 4028. p. 40-72, &c.

Book 2. (p. 25.) "The Lords of Etingdon, Shirley, Ednesfour, &c. from the year 1042 until 1180." The colours of the Arms being different in the title pages, & also more drawings in 4023. This is divided into 5 Chapters, the 1st. of which contains many curious remarks upon Saxon & Norman, & other Dignities, &c.

Book 3. (p. 43.) "The Lords of Etingdon, Shirley, &c. from 1180 to 1367. the arms differing as before."

Book 4. (p. 58.) The Lords of Shirley, &c. from 1367. to 1443. p. 60, &c. is an account of the Bassets of Drayton, &c. of which see also History of Staff. Vol. II. p. 2. &c.

Pp. 82. b. 86. b. Are monumental Inscrip' from Brailesford & Barrow Church, C° Derby, (See Nich. Leicest. Vol. III.)

Book 6. (p. 89.) The Lords of Shirley, Ettington, &c. from 1481 to 1622.

Num. 4928—4931.

P. 108. &c. is a full account of Sir George Shirley, & his noble monument in Bredon Church, a drawing of which, & divers others may be seen in 4028, p. 184, &c. There also several coats of Arms in 4023, which are not at the end of this book.

Book 7. (p. 112.) The Lords of Irton, Weston, &c. from 1112 to 1569. The Arms are drawn in the title page of 4923, and several other coats in different pages not in this.

Book 8. (p. 129.) "The Lords of Ednesfour from 1103 to 1244, with all the ancient branches of the Eldertymes, sprung from the principal arbor of the Shirleys, that as yet could be gathered out of any Records, Charters, or other Monuments of Antiquitie." from 1292 to 1325.

Books 9 & 10, which are here unaccountably deficient, as the proofs to them are afterwards noticed, may be seen in the Latin copy 4023. They contain the Lords of Westneston or Wiston, Ayhurst, Chillington, Hyon, Woohull, Iringham, Bodington, Howcourt, West-Grinsted, &c. Co. Suffex, &c.

Of this last place, & of Wiston near Steyning, & of another Manor belonging to the Shirleys, viz. Isfield near Lewes, a full account with this monumental Incriptions, &c. is printed in the Topographer, Vol. 3. p. 143. 332. 336, &c. See also drawing of the monuments, &c. in 4028.

P. 142. "The Prooves of the House of the Shirleys, extracted out of the private Evidences of the family, out of the Charters of divers Churches, Abbeys, Priors, & other Monasteries, out of the Registers of the Highe Courte of Chauncerie, the Pleas of the Courtes of the Kings Benche, Common Pleas, Exchequer, & other Courts of Justice, out of many Inquisitions, Cartæ Antiquæ, & other Records in the Tower of London, & out of divers Titles, Rolles, & other Monuments of Antiquity. With the figures of the ancient Seales & Armes with which the Lords & Dames of Shirley have sealed their Contractes, Actes, Deeds, & Indentures. By Thomastos Caloleimon, Philopatron."

These 10 Books are much more full & curious than in 4028, being enriched with many ancient & beautiful Seals not drawn in that Volume, as noticed on the blanks therein. Many of the same Charters, Seals, &c. may likewise be seen in 4028.

History of England, from Brute to 25 Ed. 3. This is again the old Chronicle called Brute, written on Paper, on 109 leaves. At fol. 29. is an engraved specimen of a charter: & a note respecting the binding of the book, on the first leaf signed Rich. Byffelde. xiv.

A Paper Book containing a miscellaneous collection of compositions in prose & verse, State Papers, and Parliamentary Reports, paged throughout, with an alphabetical index prefixed. The State Papers referring chiefly to the years 1640 and 1641. Perhaps once belonging to the Bp. of Armagh. See Art. 93.

The book has the appearance of having lost several leaves, as the following pages are wanting, 9. 10. 41. 42. 79. 80. 81. 82. 93. 94. 95. 96. 133. 134. 145. 146. 151. 152. 153. 154. 187. 188. 195. 196. 201.

Num. 4931.

201. 202. 203. 204. 275. 276. 303. 304. That is 16 leaves. But they must have been lost early; for the index is not, by the hand, much younger than the book, & none of those pages are there mentioned, except 145. "the Petition of Cte rejected."

1. Epigrams & short compositions, on four pages.
2. Verses entitled, "a Censure upon a fart let in the House of Commons, in Parliament, towards the beginning of King James's raigne, by Sr. Henry Ludlow." 5.
3. "Pope Gregory the 15th having writt to the Prince of Wales a Letter dated Apr. 20, 1623. the wth the Nuncio of his Holines in Spaine, presented to him, being accompanied by the Italian Lords, that yⁿ wth the Court. And the Prince of Wales having recovered the letter, sent this following by mistake which was shortly after published." 11.

4938.

A paper Book, of 153 written leaves, containing the Genealogical History of the Family of Seguiet. It is uniformly written, though not very fairly; and the title at large is as follows:

"Histoire Genealogique de la tres noble et illustre famille des Seguiers, issue de celles de Bethune, Carency, Allost, et Gand, qui proviennent de celle D'huelfdin frize, et celle là des anciens Contes de Cleves, Allie au sang Royal de Danemark. Ou, sont aussy comprises les Genealogies et Alliances de plusieurs autres nobles et anciennes maisons, tant de France, que de la Germanie, Angleterre, et Espagne. Avec un Traité singulier de l'origine des noms et furnomes des pais, villes, peuples, nations, gentz, familles, et maisons particulieres."

It is dedicated to the Chancellor Seguiet, and the Dedication signed with the Name, "Darnald." In the beginning of the Dedication, the Author calls himself, "Un petit escrivain de Province." It probably was preserved in the Seguiet Collection, though it has not the usual external marks. xvii.

A beautiful French MS. on Vellum, with fine illuminations, apparently a presentation Copy to Francis I. of France, whose Arms are blazoned on the second illumination, while the third represents the Author presenting his work to him on his knees.

It is a French Translation of the first and second Book of Appian, from the Latin of John Lascaris, by Claude de Seyffel Bp. of Marzeilles. There is a long Poem by the Translator, with the following title:

"Proheme de messire Claude de Seyffel evesque de Marzeille en la translation de deux livres de l'histoire Romaine de Appian Alexandrin, nouvellement trouvez. adressé au treschretien roy de France, François premier de ce nom."

The

Num. 4939—4941.

The second Title expresses more fully how the translation was made.

“Translatée de grec en latin par messire Jehan Lafcary, et de latin en François par messire Claude de Seyffel, &c.

The first Book is of the Wars of the Romans in Spain, the second of the Acts of Hannibal in Italy. The Book is in the most perfect preservation. xvi.

4940.

A large and curious MS. on Vellum, consisting of 240 leaves, with most splendid illuminations, though very rude in point of drawing, and a profusion of gilding.

It contains a large theological Poem in the old Romance French, entitled, by some much more recent hand, “Le traité du Breviare d’amour;” but, in the original language, “Lo tractat del breviari d’amors.” The Love intended to be illustrated in it, is the Divine Love to man. It was probably a celebrated Work in its time, though the name of the Author has not been discovered here.

As a specimen of the language, the beginning may be given.

“A nom de Dieu nre senhor
Quezes payres e fons damor
Et es ses comenffamen
E fes fi fera eyshamen
A le Scriptura per ayfo
Lapela alpha et o
Quezes substantia unitat
Et en persona trinitat.”

A large Volume of Poems by various Authors, uniformly & fairly transcribed. A great part by Ben Jonson & Dr. Donne.

1. Verses by King James. 1.
2. Ben Jonson's Masque of the Metamorphosed Gipsies. See Whalley's Edit. vi. 69. 2.
3. _____ to a friend. Vol vi. p. 367. 31.
4. _____ the Man. From the Underwoods, Celebration of Charis Art. ix. 34. b.
5. _____ the Body & Mind. From his Eupheme. 3 & 4. Vol. vii. p. 23. 35. b.
6. Ben Jonson, on a Country Life. From Horace Epod. ii. 37. b.
7. _____ Verses to the Erle of Newcastle. inverted. 39.
8. _____ To the Rt. Hon. Will. Viscount Mansfield. 40.
9. _____ Part of the Masque entitled, "The Vision of Delight," beginning, "Bright Night I obey thee." Whalley vi. 21. 40. b.
- It contains only one Scene, and the Speech of Phantisie.
10. _____ The Painter to the Poet, with the Answer. 41. b.
11. _____ To a Lady. Vol. vi. 429. 42. b.
12. _____ Execration on Vulcan. 43.
13. _____ "Now God preserve, as you well deserve." 46. b.
14. _____ Lines by him, with two Epigrams. 47. b.
15. _____ A Masque, not in his Works that I can find. 48.
16. Part of another Masque, apparently, with a Song of the Moon, by the same. 52. b.
17. _____ "To the Memory of that most honoured Ladie, Jane, eldest daughter to Cuthbert Lord Ogle; and Countesse of Shrewsbury." 54.
18. Charles Cavendish to his Posterity, &c. an Epitaph. 3 54. b.

Num. 4955.

19. Epitaphs on Lady Katherine Ogle, by Ben Jonson, & Mr. Lukin, & Mr. Holme; with an Elegy by the latter. 55.
20. Poems by Dr. Andrews, as inscribed in the Margin. What Dr. Andrews it was, is not clear. A poem at 87. seems to prove that his Name was Francis, consequently it was not the Bishop, whose Name was Launcelot. The first Poem is entitled, "The Univerfal Sacrifice." 57.
- This Poem is curiously formed on the Lord's Prayer, which is so contrived as to run down the middle, between two other Columns.
21. By Dr. Andrews, the Belief verified with similar quaintness of contrivance. 57. b.
22. _____ "The Knot of Prayer & Grace," and "Prayer & Blessing". 58.
23. _____ On the Blessed Trinity. 58. b.
24. _____ Gloria Patri verified, as the Lord's Prayer was above. 58. b.
25. _____ "Drolleries," being a Collection of Epigrams, & other short Poems. 59.
26. _____ a Journey to Sherwood Forest, in the Style of Barnaby's Journey, the English part at least. 61.
27. _____ Doggrel Verses on Hardwick, Warsop, Welbecke, & Bolfer. (i. e. Balfover.) 67. b.
28. _____ "Those Verses were spoken before the Countesse of Lecester, when Sir Garvas Clifton was married to my Lady Penelope Rich, at Drayton Ballet House." 68.
29. _____ "To the much honoured Beautie of Mrs. Ann West." 68. b.
30. _____ A Letter in Verse to Lady Cooke. 69.
31. More Epigrams, the first of which is on the Prince Charles courting the Infanta of Spain. 69. b.
32. Song on the Cross. (at Cheapside) 71. b.
33. _____ Verses on a Judge being made a Sheriff. 72.
34. _____ To two Ladies, Joan & Marget. 73. b.
35. Dr. Andrewes Elegy on a Child. 78.
36. _____ Elegy. 80.
37. _____ Another on a Child, perhaps the same. 80. b.
38. _____ An Enigma. 81.
39. _____ Some quaint rhymes, of which the meaning is not obvious. ibid.
40. _____ On the Incarnation. 81. b.
41. _____ Epigrams on various Subjects; several to the D. of Newcastle. ibid.
42. _____ Letter to a Lady. 84. b.
43. _____ Verses on the Crow, the Pye, the Raven, & the Finch. 85.
44. _____ Epithalamium. 85. b.
45. _____ On the Parliament. ibid.
46. _____ Epitaph on Viscount Camden. 86.
47. _____ A Proclamation. ibid.
48. _____ Letter in Verse to a Lady Jane. Dated London, August 14 1629. and signed, "Meane time I do continue still a Your humble Servant, Franc. Andrilla." 86. b.
- Whence it is fair to conclude that the writer's name was Francis Andrews.
- The beginning implies the same.
49. _____ A Character upon a Monsieur. 87. b.
50. Poems by Dr. Donne, beginning with his Satires 1, 2, 3, 4. The name is written almost constantly in the Margin, Dr. Doone. 88.
51. _____ Some Elegies by the same Author, namely 12, 19, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. The Elegy on Lord C. 6. Then follow two Elegies, not appearing in the printed printed Collection, beginning, "Till I have Peace with thee," and "By our first strange & fatal interview."

Num. 4955—4957:

99. b. & 100.

Then follow, Elegy 7, 18. The Storme, the Calme, Epistle to Sir H. Wotton. The Crosse. Elegy on the Lady Marckhame. To Sir Henry Goodyere. To the Countesse of Bedford. 3. To Sir Ed. Herbert. The Annunciation. Good Friday. Songs, "Send home my long strayed Ears," "Come live with mee," Hee is starke madde." A Valediction. Song, "Goe & catch a falling Starr." With many othe Poems, the chief part, if not all, of which are printed in the collection of Donne's Poems.

A large paper Book, strongly evincing the great diligence, or rather the extensive plans of labour of Mr. H Wanley. It is regularly prepared and marked throughout, for receiving illustrations on every Chapter & Verse, in the Old & New Testament: to which are prefixed spaces for the Lord's Prayer, some of the Creeds, &c.

The larger part of the Book however, is only prepared, & has nothing written in it; the parts that are written, consist of Saxon passages, from the Works of Ælfric, and others, supposed to be illustrative of the Texts to which they are referred:

Manners, Customs, Lawes, and other memorable Things of that Kingdome. Together with three Voyages made thither in the years 1577, 1579, and 1581, with the most remarkable singularities there seene and taken notice of. Also an Itinerarie of the New World, and the discovery of new Mexico in the yeare 1538. Translated by Jos. Baildon, of the Society of that most magnificent hospitall, founded by Tho. Sutton Esq. in Charterhouse 1663." 142 pages.

This Jos. Baildon published, "Rarities of the World," translated from Pero Mexia, in 4to, 1651. He does not say from what original he translated the present book, but that it "was written by an Author who was an eye-witnesse of many things therein conteyned, and by the care of the others, having partly knowen, and understood them from Persons of note which had been in China, and partly drawn & extracted, as well from Bookes and Histories of the Country, as from many worthy Manuscripts, & Registers worthy of credit, which have been presented to him at Mexico, and at Philippi, and translated in the same places by natural Interpreters." Preface.

This extends as far as the end of the third Book, and first part of the History; and appears to have been the Author's own writing. xvii.

Liber chartaceus, cum numeris 5227, 6885 compactus. Continet tractatus de Jure Ecclesiastico, per Theologum quendam Hispanensem compilatos.

1. "Incipit materia de beneficiis."
2. "De causis ob quas Clerici religiosi bona ecclesiastica l. peccant l. tñr restituere."
3. "Materia de Donatione."
4. "Sequitur materia de Vectigalibus."

5242.

A French book of Songs, written in parts; on vellum, with some illuminated letters & borders. xvi.

5243.

An oblong paper book of 134 leaves, (besides six of introductory matters) written in two columns, containing a Poem in 26 Cantos, on the History of Guy Earl of Warwick. It has the following title,

"The corrected historie of Sir Gwy Earle of Warwick, furnamed the Heremite; begun by Don Lidgate, monck of St. Edmundes Berye; but now dilligentlie exquired from all Antiquitie, by John Lane, 1621." Under this title, is the figure of a Skeleton robed, rising out of a coffin, drawn in Indian Ink. On the coffin this motto, "Virtus post cineres vivere sola facit." On the back of the title is a Sonnet to the Author, thus superscribed, "Johannes Melton, Londonensis Cives (sic) amico suo Viatico in Poesis Laudem. S. D. P."

On the next leaf is a small Chapel in Indian ink also, with Guy in Armour, standing in a niche, and, on the floor, this couplet:

"Bove all the Knightes that ever were or shall, Sir Guy of Warwick bears the Coronall."

Then follows an address to his reader, by John Lane. At the end, the Poem is signed "John Lane:" under which signature is the copy of a Licence to print it, thus expressed.

"The Licence."

"This Poem containing a corrected historie of Guy Earle of Warwick in 87 leaves of large quarto, written by Mr. John Lane, hath licence to be printed, Jul. 13^o 1617.
John Taverner,

as in the original."

The present seems to be the Author's corrected copy. It is composed throughout in Stanzas of seven lines each, & is certainly a most elaborate performance. xvii.

The original by Lydgate, entitled, "Acta Guidonis Warwicensis," is in the Bodleian Libr. Laud. D. 31. f. 64. Also a poem "De Guidone et Colbrando." See Turner. The Story of Guy was also verified, in Stanzas of 6 lines

Prior versus manifestò corruptus, nisi poeta, qui per barbarus est, metrum neglexerat. Præsulem etiam Florentinum vocat patronum.

"Inclite cui vivo, si vivo, provide præsul

"Florentine, statum scito benignè meum."

Ad finem, Scriba posuit, "Explicit elegia Henrici ad Longepredem, Deo gratias." Idem dicit Lector. Henricus appellatur etiam pauper, à Fabricio, et dicitur "ad eam inopiam redactus, ut charta deficiente versus suos in vetere et attrito pellitio exarare cogeretur." Poema incipit,

"Quomodo sola fedet probitas flet et ingemit alep."

De quo versu apud Fabricium disputatur. Alep pro aleph ponitur. Poeta miseras suas gravissimè deplorat per totam elegiam; juxta finem ait,

"Sum passus gravia, graviora, gravissima, quarto,

"Passio, si vellit (velit) ars, posset inesse gradu."

A paper book, containing the Epistles of Felice Feliciano, in Italian. Prefixed are three leaves of coloured vellum, inscribed in Letters of Gold and Silver, with borders of the same. On the first “Salve qui Legeris,” and lower on the page “Memento Feliciani.” On the second page of the same leaf, within a Silver border, “Candida fulvo nobilior auro Facundia felix.” This first leaf is green. The second is also green, and has more inscribed, in gold. The third is red, and the Letters silver. The inscription on these two leaves is in Italian, chiefly in praise of Eloquence, but towards the end addressed by the writer to a Canon Alberto, to whom he (not being the author himself) presents the Letters of his Friend Feliciano, as models of Eloquence.

An account of Feliciano has been inserted by a modern hand, on the first spare leaf, taken from the 34th vol. of the Giornale d’Venezia, with the date 1465 prefixed. The Letters bear date chiefly about 1472, and there are many fonnets interspersed, by Feliciano and his Friends. The last Letter has been left unfinished by the transcriber. xv.

An ancient vellum Book, said to be in the old Irish Language, very neatly written, and well preserved. It was once the property of Sir Henry Spelman. It contains 66 vellum leaves, besides leaves of paper at each end.

The first Paper at the beginning contains a long account of the Contents of the MS. giving a description of each Chapter particularly, of which there are twenty-two. The general introduction to this description is the following:

"This MS. is a copy, as appears both by the note in fol. 65. a. in the botome (wherem the Transcriber gives his own name, viz' Gillo Tancolour'd Son of Tuathall, Son of Teig, nicknamed the crooked, Oclery) and the contents, most of which are contained in other books much older. But the language is all of the old stamp, and not easily now to be master'd. It formerly belonged to Cassarlie mac Naoisi, for so it is set down in the margents of folio 9. b. and fol. 65. b. which at first view made me imagin it was written before the beginning of the eleventh Century, at which time surnames came first to be generally us'd in Ireland. Mac Naoisi being none, and consequently added as it seem'd, by way of distinction to the proper name Cassarlie as in like cases the custom was before."

"The book does not run much upon any one subject in the whole, but a Rhapsody, or variety of small tracts, some Romantick, some historical, and some mixt of both, some moral, and some that seem to be purely legendary, as entirely depending upon the faith and veracity of the authors of 'em."

This account, which is not signed by the writer, is written on a single sheet, larger than the book itself, and folded. Other matters relative to it follow, in Latin, on seven leaves, written in another hand.

The age seems therefore to be uncertain, probably much more modern than the date ascribed to it in the old Catalogue (the 10th Century,) which seems to have been founded on the conjecture mentioned and rejected in the account preceding.

A French Translation of the first five Books of the Orlando Furioso of Ariosto; in Stanzas of eight lines, corresponding exactly with the Stanzas of the Original. It is dedicated to the Dauphin, whom the writer calls "le seul Espoir de France," probably therefore Louis XIII. the only Son of Henry IV. unless it be still older. There are notes at the end, which imply the book to be older than 1590, the 2d year of Hen. 4. The translator's name seems to have been Helye Bonnet, which is subscribed to the dedication, and elsewhere. The whole very fairly written, on vellum. xvi.

A small book, partly of Paper, partly of Vellum; containing very heterogeneous matter.

1. A French tract, neatly written, in a small hand, on Paper, with this title: "Les Veilles de la Solitude. MDCLIII. A Samois sur Seine." It contains 68 pages, and, though it has a general title, consists of miscellaneous matters, among them several Love Letters. The Initials J.N.D. (unless they stand for In nomine Domine) are prefixed to every part. Pages 15, 16, 17, 18, are wanting. The dates run from 1651 to 1654, so that it seems, like the next, to have been a kind of common place.

2. Another collection of the same person, with a title thus: J.N.D. Sal, id est Salsè acuteque dicta 1654 Dec 20. Αἰ τὸ Καλὸν πρὸς αὐτὸ Καλεῖ." The contents here are principally Bon-mots, Proverbs, Dutch words and sayings, Copies of Letters, &c. See 5332.

3. A small Arabic book, with this inscription, "Hic liber est Arabicus fons i. e. caput ex Aleo-rano, quam (sic) in gratiam foeminarum et" cætera oblitterantur.

4. Libellus chartaceus, cum picturis, curâ, si non arte, exquisitâ elaboratis. Super-scriptio rubricata hæc est. "Hæc sunt quindecim collecta sive Orationes illius preclarissime virginis beate brigette quas ante imaginem dñi nostri Jesu Christi indes devotissimè dicebat, tandem ab eodem crucifixo, per gratiam dignam respon-sionem habere meruit, et ipsa ymago ipsius crucifixi que in ecclesia sancti pauli extat, ipsam sanctam brigitam allocuta fuit, prout legenti inferius patebit, et tu lector lege devotè quia stupenda leges." Desunt Orationes 2 et 3. Cæterarum singulæ picturam habent prefixam, excepta decima quintâ.

Codex chartaceus, in quo habentur notæ Viri cujusdam doctissimi, vel plurium, in auctores Græcos.

1. Notæ in Theophylacti Simocati dialogum, cui titulus, Φυσικα ἀπορημαία. Notæ sunt proculdubio Jacobi Kimedoncii, a quo editus est Theophylactus cum interpretatione et notulis, Anno 1599; nomen enim, quod obductâ pennâ obscuravit quisquam, apparet ad fol. 28, 48 et alibi, fuisse "Jacobi K . . . Fil." quod cum auctore isto optimè consentit.
2. Eiusdem notæ in Theophylacti Epistolas. 9.
3. Eiusdem notæ in Theophylacti Simocati Legationes. 22.

Hæ notæ omnes, cum in Editione Kimedoncii non existent, dignissimæ videntur accurata doctiorum investigatione.

4. Eiusdem, ut ex manu satis apparet, notæ breves in Philostrati Epistolas. 28.
5. ——— in Heroica Philostrati. 36.
6. ——— ad Alciphronem breves notæ 44.
7. Notæ, aliâ manu, et alio forsan auctore, in Philostrati imagines. 65.

Hæ notæ, quæ ad finem Libri procedunt, eruditione abundant non vulgari, ut videre est ad fol. 122. b. in voce βλιμαζειν, et passim. xvii.

5381.

A most elegant book, containing original Drawings on Vellum, by Enea Vico, from which his work on the medals of the Emperors was engraved. They are Drawings

Num. 5381—5387.

Drawings with a Pen, chiefly in outline, & of such exquisite neatness that they might easily pass for engravings. The volume does not contain the whole work, but only the following parts.

1. The general Frontispiece, exactly as engraved, without the Inscription.

2. The general title for the Medals of Julius Cæsar, without the Medal of him, or the inscription. Very few of the subsequent Medals filled up. The design for the Title differs also.

3. Augustus, as engraved; without the inscription.

The rest of the Emperors follow in order, the designs for the Titles the same in general as those engraved, but without the inscriptions, & many of the Medals wanting. The Medals are distinguished on each page with in oro, in argento, in rame. A more exquisite specimen of art cannot easily be seen. The book contains 55 leaves; besides two additional, of paper, with Medals & Descriptions of very inferior execution. xv.

Annotaciones in Claudianum de Raptu Proserpinæ, cum hoc titulo, "Sub Magistro Lucha Ripa, Honorato Grammatico, publicè Ferrariæ legente, Claudiani de Raptu Proserpinæ, Interpretatio." Notæ hic exstant in libros priores duos, sed in tertium inchoatæ tantum. Liber chartaceus. xv.

Codex chartaceus, scriptus A.D. 1407. Continet Actus Apostolorum, Epistolas Catholicas et Paulinas, cum Sermone Chrysofomi εις το μουσικον δειπνον, qui interjectus est inter Epistolam in Hebræos et Apocalypsin.

Codex Griesbachio collatus et descriptus, in Symbolis Crit. T. II. p. 162. Ille de foliis quatuor membranaceis hic exstantibus hæc scribit. "Folia duo (scilicet in quatuor plicata) codice ipso multa antiquiora, quippe sæculo X aut XI exarata, quæ literis miniaris, paginâ quavis in duas columnas distinctâ, fragmenta Epistolarum ad Corinthios continent, antiquis lectionibus referta, notatuque longe dignissima. Folium prius exhibet 1 Cor. XV. 52 σελπισει γαρ, usque ad 2 Cor. i. 15. πριτερον προς υμεις εστιν ινα. Folium alterum, ad calcem voluminis adjectum, complectitur 2 or. x. 13. . . . συμειθε αλλη κατα τ μερι, usque ad Cap. xii. 5 ασβενεις με. Homeri Odyssea, cum Scholiis. Codex insignis, a cel.
Viro Ric. Porfon, pro Homero Grenvilliano collatus.
Descriptionem codicis, quia melior proponi non potest, verbis Porfonianis damus. xiii.

“ Codex est membranaceus, forma quam, in folio vocant, minori; quod ad altitudinem scilicet et latitudinem attinet, Aldino Herodoto similis. Membrana crassa est et firma, sed aliquando pinguis; unde fit, ut Scholia quædam lectu difficiliora sint, quædam minus eleganter scripta. Plerumque vero, et textus et Scholia nitide sunt exarata. Totus, ut opinor, uno tenore textus absolutus est; deinde scholia addita, eademne an diversa manu non certò dixerim. Neque id multum refert, cum satis constet unius jussu et consilio totum MS. concinnatum esse. Pauca quædam bonæ notæ margini insunt, cæteris recentiora quidem, ut colligo ex liquoris colore, qui est ruber flavescens, sed exiguo intervallo recentiora.—
Hunc codicem decimo tertio sæculo adscribit CASLEIUS
(in Catalogo priore) nec quicquam habeo quod contradicam. Illud notandum, scriptum esse, cum jam dubitari cœptum esset utrum iota ad latus an infra poni deberet.
Nostri enim textus media quadam via incedit. Hic etiam codex, ut id obiter moneam, collatus est a Thomá Bentleio sed negligenter admodum. Nullas enim, certe rarissimas ejus lectiones, præter eas quas in textu in-veniebat, enotavit.”

Codex folia habet 150. Ad finem scriptum est, “ Antonii Seripandi et amicorum.” Collationes Porfoni paginas occupant 84, in 4to, caractere minuto.

[5684—5697. Quarto.]

Evangelistarium insignifimum, Griesbachio (in Symb. Crit. tom. i. p. lxiv.) “Codex G. olim Andrea Erasmi Seidelii, deinde Jo. Christophori Wolfii.” Descriptionem ulteriorem è Griesbachio plerumque adponimus. xi.

Num. 5684—5686.

“Codex membranaceus, formæ quadratæ majoris, literis uncialibus, sed oblongis illis, seculo x. et xi. usitatis, scriptus. Hypographæ vero in fine Evangeliorum minusculis literis exaratæ sunt. Spiritus et accentus habet a primâ manu. Spirituum figura appropinquat ad prisecam formam, et similis fere est ei, quam exhibet Montefalconius Palæogr. p. 234. Specim. 2. In hypographis vero minusculis literis exaratis, spiritus conspiciuntur formæ solitæ, hoc est, rotundæ.”

Continet, exceptis lacunis, quatuor evangelia: a Matthæi, cap. vi. 6. “Lacunas diligenter notavit post Wolfium Wetstenius. Quæ perierant, inde a Matth. xxviii. 17. usque ad Marc. i. 13. supplevit manus recentior, literis minusculis.”—“Lacunam Luc. xii. 27—41. explevit manus recentior [sed non recens] in charta.” Subscriptio Ev. Johannis, et totius codicis falso datur a Griesbachio, μὲν χρόνος καὶ τῆς τῶν χριστῶν ἀναλήψεως, cum scribi deberet, μὲν χρόνος χ'. i. e. 20.—Cur dixerit Griesb. Codicem sæculo xii. vix esse antiquiorem, cum ipse literas duobus sæculis prioribus adscripsisset, non liquet.

“In margine apparent numeri sectionum Ammonianarum, et Canonum Eusebianorum, ibidemque notantur anagnosmatum initia et fines, et dies quibus quodque prælegi debebat.”

Plura videas apud ipsum Griesbachium, in loco citato, qui descriptionem Codicis plenioris hac ejus æstimatione concludit.

“Cæterum etsi codex hic commaculatus nondum est omnibus illis interpolationibus, quæ in junioribus codicibus et vulgaribus editionibus leguntur, sed genuinæ lectionis simplicitatem multis in locis servavit: pertinet tamen ad familiam codicum qui recensionem sacri textus exhibent satis recentem, et a recepta parum aut nihil differentem, scilicet Constantinopolitanam.”

Codex folia habet 251, nunc primum numeris signata, inter quæ 107 semifolium est, et lacunam facit a Marc. xiv. v. 18. usque ad v. 25. Post 116 deest folium, quod tabulam sectionum complebat, et Lucæ capitis 1. versus 12 primos continebat. Omissio Scribæ manu sua suppleta est in fol. 173. Hiatus in Luca suppletus est fol. 154, alius in Johanne occurrit fol. 243. a xviii. 5. usque ad v. 19. in membranâ.

Hæc sunt quæ notatu digniora videntur in hoc eximio codice; addatur tamen, incipere Marci Evangelium ad fol. 65. Lucæ, ad fol. 117. Johannis, ad fol. 191, ubi etiam deest folium quod ultimos Lucæ versus habebat a cap. xxiv. v. 41. et tabulam sectionum in Johannem.

Notandum est, Codicem hunc Woidio visum esse numeris 5598 et 5787 antiquiorem, quamquam horum prior notam gerat Anni 995. Sæculo igitur decimo forsan recte esset adscribendus.

An exquisitely beautiful MS. on Vellum, containing the poetical Works of Petrarch, with complete Indexes of the Contents. The principal divisions of the Work richly illuminated. The capital Letters painted or gilt throughout. The Works stand in this order, 1. The Triumphs; viz. of Love, of Chastity, of Death, of Fame, of Time, of Eternity.

2. The Sonnets, Canzoni, &c. 367 in number.

After the word Finis, in a neat, but very inferior hand, is written,

“ Il di s'appressa et non puote effer lunge,
Si corre il tempo et vola,
Virgine unica et sola,
El cor hor conscientia hor morte pugne
Racommandami al tuo figliolo, verace
Homo, et verace idio.
Ch'accolgo il mio spirito ultimo in pace.”

No date appears, but it is probably of the 16th Century. The arms in the first illumination are eight tортаaux, or roundlets, gules, on a shield or, disposed two, three, two, & one.

5762.

[5762. Octavo.]

5770.

A thin

Num. 5771—5775.

5771.

A thin Book upon Vellum, intitled, "Elevation des Eaux, par toute forte de Machines, reduite a la mesure, au poids, et a la balance. Présentée a sa Majesté tres chrestienne par le Chevalier Morland Gentilhomme ordinaire de la Chambre privée, et Maître des Méchaniques du Roy de la Grande Bretagne 1683."

The whole is preceded by Tables of Weights, Measures, &c. At page 35, begins what seems to be one of the first Steps made towards the art of working by Steam. It has a separate title, which is this,

"Les Principes de la nouvelle force de Feu: inventée par le Chev^r Morland l'an 1682, et présentée a sa Majesté tres chrestienne 1683." The author thus reasons on his principle.

"L'eau étant évaporée par la force de Feu, ces vapeurs demandent incontinent une plus grand'espace [environ deux mille fois] que l'eau n'occupoit (sic) auparavant, et plus tost que d'être toujours emprisonnées, feroient crever une piece de Canon. Mais étant bien gouvernées selon les Regles de La Statique et par Science reduites a la Mesure, au Poids et à la Balance, alors elles portent paisiblement leurs Fardeaux [comme des bons Chevaux] et ainsi servient elles du grand usage au genre humain, particulièrement pour l'elevation des Eaux." Then follow a Table of Weights to be thus raised by Cylinders half full of Water, according to their diameters. The book is written in elegant characters, with Letters coloured, gilt, & other Ornaments. It contains only 34 pages.

The Marquis of Worcester's hint was published in 1663, but little noticed. The author of this book was Sir Samuel Morland, author of several published Works, & mentioned in the Phil. Transf. vol. ix. p. 25. Capt. Savery had his Patent for the same Invention in 1699. In a Book published at Paris in 1685, Morland alludes to experiments shewn by him at St. Germain, in 1683. Amontons proposed, something like it in 1699. Mém. de l'Acad.

Præmittuntur, literis rubris, Epistolæ Eusebii ad Carianum, cum ejusdem Canone, et tabula Κεφαλαιων; et subjunguntur cuilibet Evangelio (præter Johanni, cujus ultima verba recenti manu suppleta sunt) communes επιγραφαι. Liber ut Covello visus est, optimæ notæ, et si de ætate nihil pronunciare voluit.

Ante initium Matthæi scriptum est, Covelli manu, Ιωάννης ὁ Κάθελος θεολόγος, τῆς ἐν Κωνσταντινουπόλει ἐκκλησίας Βρετανικῆς ποιμὴν ἀποστολιμαῖος. ἐν εἰσι ἀρχαῖς (1671) ἐν τῇ χρᾷ περὶ τομῇ τῶν κωπ. πρώτων ἐλειτάρησεν ἐκεῖθε.

Τὴν δὲ βίβλον ταύτην ἐκείνην ἐχαρίζετο ὁ ἀιδεσιμώτατος κύριος, Δανιὴλ, ἀρχιεπίσκοπος τῆς Προκοίνης. φχδ (1674) τῇ 12^ῃ Αὐγύστου.

Codex Griebachio non cognitus, sæculo 13^o vix junior. Continet folia 308. sed periit certè unum, si non plura, ad finem.

Covellus capita hodierna in margg. notavit.

5777.

Codex membranaceus Græcus, Evangelia habens, a

Matth. i. 17.—λῶνος ἕως τοῦ χυ^ο γενεαὶ δεκα τέσσαρες usque ad finem. In folio exteriore Covellus scripsit, "Codex iste ex altero quem titulo Covell. signavimus, descriptus omnino videtur." Et infra "Covel 5." quod si ille scripserit, ut apparet, postea mutavit, codex enim sequens est proculdubio Covel. 5. ut a Millio descriptus. Mutila sunt singulorum Evangeliorum initia, manu malâ quæ ornamenta exsecuit. In Marco (fol. 60) desunt tantum versus 7, 8, 9. a verbis ἰμάτια τῶν ὑποδημάτων, ad verba ταῖς ἡμέραις. In principio autem Lucæ (fol. 101.) hiatus est usque ad verba Ζαχαρίας πρὸς τὸν ἄγγελον in versu 18. cap. primi cum parte posteriore tabulæ capitulorum in Lucam. Evangelium Johannis (fol. 167.) incipit a verbis καὶ ἀπεκρίθη οὗ in versu 22. Cap. 1^{mi}.

Desinit Evangelium Johannis ad fol. 214. Sequitur autem Menologium cum hac epigraphe. Εκλογὴ δ' τῶν Δ' εὐαγγελιστῶν σημαῖνον διὰ τε τῆς ἀρχῆς καὶ τοῦ τέλους τὴν περικόπην ἐκάστου εὐαγγελιστοῦ ἅμα δὲ καὶ τὴν τῶν κεφαλαίων παρασημαίωσιν ακριβῶς διαγορεύων περιέχει δὲ τὴν ἀρχὴν ἀπὸ τοῦ (sic) ἁγίου πάσχα τελειοῦν ἐν τῷ μηνολογίῳ. Desunt lineæ ultimæ circa septem, et quod pejus est nota temporis. Apparet pars vocis ἰγραφή. Codex folia habet 227.

Codex Covellianus quintus, etiam Sinaiticus Millio dictus in Prolegg. 1488. In primo folio scriptum est a Covello Sin. pro Sinaitico, et infra Cov. 5. plumâ transversâ obductum; cujus rei causa in verbis hisce Millianis apparet. "Quinto Sinaitici nomen impositum volebat Amicus meus pereruditus (Covellus); quippe quod olim ad ædiculam aliquam sacram in crepidine montis istius positam pertinuerat." Signavit etiam Covellus notâ quæ in aliis ejus libris nonnullis apparet, scilicet "Luceo 9/1^o 676." pro 1676. Descriptio a Millio sic datur.

"Exemplar est membranaceum in 4^o, pessime jam olim habitum, et madore tantopere corruptum ac vitiatum, ut perierit plane ipsius pars maxima. Mutilum est prope finem, ad verba ἀφίλοι ὁ Θεός, &c. Incipit autem ad Act i. v. 20. ista, καίτοι ἕτερος. Continebat initio acta Apost. Epistolas omnes, et Apocalypsin." Exempla subiecit Millius Lectionum in hoc codice insigniorum; Griebachius ignorasse videtur.

A Book

Num. 6114—6119.

6114.

A Book in 4°, having this Title, "A Catalogue of all the Provofts, Fellows, & Scholars, that have been placed and elected into King's College, of our Bl. Lady and St. Nicholas, in the University of Cambridge, either by the most royal & holy Founder, K. Hen. vi. K. of England & France, Lord of Ireland, &c. or since elected from his College of Eton near Windsor (which was founded for a Nursery hereto) since the first foundation of them both, a° 1441.—together with their several Preferments, either in Church or Commonwealth, as far as could be found. First gathered by Mr. Tho. Hatcher, Fellow of this College, of the Year 1555, until 1562, & since continued by John Scott until 1620, afterwards brought down by Edw. Hinde, of the Year 1594, until 1621, then by G. Goade of the Year 1620, until 1646."

The book, as it stands, is continued to 1703: possibly by the person whose name is on the first leaf, with the date of 1646 annexed, namely, Henry Some of the same Coll.—On the same leaf is this epigram:

"Distichon Apostrophicon ad Tho. Hatcherum et Joh. Scottum primos inchoatores sequentis catalogi.

Defuncti vivunt, redeunt et tempora prisca
O Hatcheri tuo munere, Scotte, tuo.

Radolphus Winterton."

6115.

A Book in 4°, printed, with large MS. Additions. The Title of the Book runs thus, "A List or Catalogue of all the Mayors & Bailiffs, Lord Mayors & Sheriffs of the most ancient, honourable, noble, and loyal City of York, from the time of K. Ed. 1. until this present year 1664, &c. together with sundry remarkable Passages which happened in their several Years." The MS. Additions being very numerous, & collected chiefly from printed histories, it would be too tedious to enter into a Detail of them; yet it may be proper to remark, that the Catalogue of the Mayors and Sheriffs is continued to the Year 1677. p. 194. 245. Likewise in p. 205. The Contents are given of a Book in MS. of Sir T. W. concerning this famous City.

In p. 21. The Names of those who have been Presidents of the Council in the North.

In p. 5. Mention of a Grammar, printed at Yorke by Donatus Minor.

In p. 7. 22. The Reasons why Yorke is placed before London in the Order of our British Primates.

A Book in folio, containing the Pedigrees with the Arms in colours of Families in Lancashire, taken at a Visitation made A. D. 1567. anno R. Eliz. 9^o. At the bottom of the title Page this is written, "Visitatio ista Lancastræ transcripta & argumentata fuit in a^o 1598. per me W. Smith, (als) Rouge-dragon, profecutorem ad arma." A work carefully executed, but unfinished. There is an alphabetical Index at the beginning; & at the end a Table of Matches.

A thin folio, bound with 4041, containing the following Pedigrees, & other Matters.

1. "Stemmata præclaræ familiæ de Astley, antiquitùs ab Estlegh nuncupatæ." fol. 1. Where are several copies of Deeds relating to Hill-Morton C^o Warw. & Melton, & other Manors in Norfolk. The Arms of the Astleys, and their divers Matches. See Shaw's Staffordshire, Vol. 2. p. 287.

2. Bullen, Carey, f. 7. also f. 15.

3. "Genealogia et profapia Edvardi Cook Armigeri." fol. 8. Subscribed at the end, "Collecta, approbat. et exemplificat. in officio armorum Londini. Wilm De-thick, Garter, principalis Rex Armorum Anglicorum, 1597."

4. Paston, Manners.

5. Ferrars, f. 11. "Profapia nobilis et illustrissimi familiæ de Ferrariis, qui olim fuerunt comites Derbiæ, postea Barones de Chartley et de Groby: Ex quibus illustrissim. Robert^{us} Comes Essexiæ, Henrice (sic) Gray de Pirgo miles, Humfridus Ferrers de Tamworth miles et Henrice Ferrers de Baddesley Armigeri orti sunt An^o 1598."

6. The Earls of Leicester & Hinckley.

7. Wm. de Longspee E. of Salisbury.

8. E. of Kyme & Lincoln.

9. Pedigree of Cotton, with this remarkable title, "The Genealogie of one of the worthie houses of the Mannor of Cotton near Chester comonlie known by the name of Edmund's Cotton, so called by reason that one Edmund Cotton was sometymes Lorde thereof; therby may also appeare the long contynuanse of the fayde famylie of Cottons, wth what honorable howses they have maryed, and how they have advaunfed themselves by matching wth great heires; and fynallye howe they are propagated into dyverse Countries, & severall families, & howe by reason of the marriage of heires ffemales to dyverse other notable houses these who have byn therby advaunfed, And the present State of this much lessened, although the same by God's providence yet remayninge in good Estate. And manye persons thereof in worthie & woorschipfull place. The honorable & Reverent Father William Bishop of Excester An. 1601 discendge thereof, as in the deduction hearof ffollowynge may at large appeare."

Num. 6160—6164.

peare." See also the Cotton Pedigrees in 4031. pp. 100. 132. and Shaw's History of Staffordshire.

10. "Genealogia sive profapia antiquissimæ familiæ Richardi Franceys, de Tyckenhall in comitatu Derbiæ Armigeri: Edvardi Franceys, de Petworthe in comitatu Suffex Equitis Aurati: et Edvardi Franceys, de Wycham Busshes comitatu Cantix, Armigeri, popinæ pistoriæ Jacobo Regi Servientis. 6161.

A Book with Coats of Arms in trick, alphabetically disposed after the Names of the Families. Contains 97 leaves.

A Book in folio, containing the Arms in colours of the Knights of the Garter, the last of whom is Sir Richard Wingfield, 8 Hen. VIII. In the first leaf is the usual heraldic device for the Trinity, & the Arms of the 12 Patriarchs; then follow England, the Empire, & Scotland.

6163.

A Book in folio, containing the Arms in colours, of Saints, Emperors, Kings, & English Nobility & Gentry.

A curious old book, perhaps as early as Henry the Sixth. See the Arms of the Royal Family in f. 3 & 4; those of Hereford f. 2.; of March f. 3. b. & c. It appears to have been possessed by Segar, Garter K. of Arms, who wrote some Remarks in it, & founded on it some of his Grants. See f. 15. b. At f. 136. are several Escutcheons coloured & blazoned; also in the heraldical terms. An Index is wanting. The book contains 142 leaves.

A Book in folio, of 98 leaves, written in a fair hand upon Vellum, containing the Arms in Colours & Pedigrees of Families in the County of Suffex; taken at a Visitation A. D. 1634.—For want of an Index, the following is here inserted in the Order of the Alphabet.

It is one of the finest books of the kind, but unfinished; a few of the arms being not coloured.

A Book in folio, containing the descents & pedigrees of the Emperors of Germany, Kings of France, & Electors Palatine & Bavaria. The writing very elegant, the arms in many parts neatly sketched, but much of it unfinished. Bound with 4788 & 6154.

6166.

A Book in folio, containing the following Particulars,

1. "The lyfe of Sir Tho. Moore, Kt. written by Wm. Rooper, Esq; who married Margaret, Daughter of the said Sir Thomas; this Wm. lived at Eltham," p. 1. Published in Latin 8° 1716. This is dated at the end "25 Maii 1598." This transcript, however, is not so old. The life occurs again at N° 7030, p. 231. among the collections of Tho. Baker, and transcribed by him from a Cambridge MS. also at 6254.

2. Part of the Visitation of the County of Norfolk, made by Wm. Harvey, Clarenceux King of Arms, July 20, 1563, & the 5th of Qu. Elizabeth, p. 36. Some of the arms coloured, others wanting.

2. Mayors & Sheriffs of London, from 1189 to 1705. 87 leaves.

A Book in folio, containing the Arms of Families belonging to divers Counties, with an alphabetical Index. In the same hand as the preceding. Both probably by the Dethicks.

A Book

Num. 6180—6188.

6180.

A Book in folio, entred but a little way, with this Title, "British Nobility, their Pedigrees, Vol. 2d. collected by Peter le Neve, Norroy, beginning after the Union of the 2 Kingdoms of England & Scotland on the 1st of May, 1707." It contains chiefly separate Papers fastened in, as Materials for the intended Work.

6181.

A Book in folio, containing,

1. "Inquisitiones tempore Ricardi II. ex Archivis Turris London."
2. "Genealogiæ diversæ Nobilium & aliorum ex Recordis & Evidentiis extractæ per Henricum Ferrers de Badesley in Com. Warwicensi propria manu, cum Indice alphabetico."

A Folio, bound with No. 5808, formerly in the possession of Peter le Neve, Rougecroix, with this title, "Dudleici generis ut nobilissimi ita et antiquissimi origines & propagationes, longe aliter quam a quoquam hæcenus scriptæ sunt, explicatæ," & below, "Labore & industria Roberti Gloveri, al's Somerset, fecialis regii, anno salutis a Christo 1581." At the back of that first leaf Le Neve has set down thirty Names of Families whose Genealogies were originally there, with this Subscription. "N.B. These Pedigrees, which are not to be found here, are cutt out by me Peter le Neve Norroy, and put into their respective Titles, amongst my severall Notes of Families in bits of Paper. P. L. Neve."

6183.

A Book in folio, with this Title, "The Visitation of the County of Leiceller, taken by Sampson Leonard, alias Blewmantle, & Augustine Vincent, alias Ruderose Pursuivants of Arms, A. D. 1619." This Book formerly belonged to J. Lilly, Rouge-dragon, & hath an alphabetical Index at the beginning.

6184.

A Book in folio, intituled, Smith's Alphabet of Arms in Blazon, 2^o 1604.

This Smith was Rouge-dragon Herald.

6185.

A Book in folio, containing the Pedigrees, with Arms trick'd, of Families in the County of Gloucester & elsewhere, to which is prefix'd an alphabetical Index. 160 leaves. Between f. 39 and 40 an ample Pedigree of Roe.

6186.

A thin Folio, with the Arms coloured, of the ancient Nobility & Gentry. At the End is an alphabetical Index. On the first leaf, the arms of James I. In all 45 leaves.

6187.

A thin Folio, containing,

1. Annotations out of Plutarch, relating to Burials, &c.
2. Ancient Deeds & Charters with Seals, temp. Edw. III. Rich. II. &c. with a List of the Names of such Knights & Officers as are found among the Witnesses.
3. Summa Villarum totius Comitatus Glowcestriæ una cum quinque Burg. viz. Gloucester, Bristol, Berkeley, Dursley, Newenham, anno regni Edvardi nono.
4. Summa Villarum ejusd. Comit. alio tempore.
5. Stratagems mentioned by Plutarch.

Bound with 3324 and 6244.

A Folio imperfect, being the History of the Turks, in 8 Books. Bound with No. 790.

Num. 6188—6195.

The chief Heads & Contents of each Book are prefix'd.

"The first Original of the Turks is set forth, & the Etymology of that Name then is shewn, under what Captain they first took up arms, and the Division of the seven Provinces conquered by their seven first Chiefs, of whom Ottoman was one; the first of the Race of the Ottoman, who have reigned successively from Father to Son over the Turks: the History and Exploits of which Emperors are treated on from the Year 1298, to the famous & so much renowned Siege of Constantinople in the Year 1453, when the Turks haled up their Gallies and other Vessels to the top of a Mountain, & from thence conveyed them into the Port, to gain it by that back part, the Mouth thereof being shut up with a chain. The whole is concluded with an account of Mahomet the 11th's second Expedition against the Bulgarians, and the Siege of Belgrade." By whom this was written is uncertain. It is not either Knolles's History, or that of A. Hill.

A Book in folio, with this Title, "The Rise and Progress of Mahometanism." 308 pages, fairly written. At the end "7^o Julij 1718, Exam. W. T."

6190.

An oblong folio, giving an Account from St. Thomas's Hospital of all sick & wounded Seamen sent in thither since the 25th March 1689, to 23 June 1693, expressing in several Columns the Names of the Seamen; the time when they were admitted, when discharged, the Days of their Abode, their Two-pences due to them, and the Names of their Ships, with an account of what has been received for Burials. 53 leaves, after which is a continuation in a different form. The two sets of documents have a joint endorsement, on parchment, signed thus,

"Delivered upon Oath by { John Welde &
Roger Atlee.

Nov. 3d, 1693.

6191.

"A Dialogue between a Counsellor & Justice of Peace," the latter persuading the Calling of a Parliament. By Sir Walter Raleigh, with an Epistle dedicatory to King James.

6192.

A short Treatise, written in French, being Instructions to an Admiral. It consists of only 4 written leaves; bound with No. 4463.

6193.

A large Quarto, intituled, Johis Lelandi Collectanea, or John Leland's Commentaries of England; chiefly in Latin, 290 pages. The hand agrees exactly with that of the Itinerary at No. 6266, the index to which, & apparently the whole book, was written by Sir W. Dugdale.

6194.

A Book in folio, formerly intituled on the outside, "Talbot's Extracts from Scotichronicon." There are likewise Extracts from other Records of Fines, Escheats, Patents, Charters, in the time of Edw. II. & some of the succeeding Kings. At the end there is a Letter concerning the antiquity of the Chancery, & the Fees of the Officers there, written by W^m. Lamberd. The whole about 150 leaves.

6195.

[6195—6211. Quarto.]

A Book in 4^o, containing Extracts out of the Council Books of King Edw. VI. The following are the principal particulars:

1. 11 Oct.

A Book very neatly written; given to Lord Oxford in 1739, by the Duke of Portland. There is no Preface, nor intimation of the Author.

Rules and Ordinances of the Order of Knighthood, called The Golden Fleece, with this Title, “Cest liure comprend et declare l'ordre de la thoison dor selon les derrenieres corrections faicts enuiron le temps que la thoison se tint en la ville de gand et que le roy darragon fut esleu chevalier dudit ordre excepte la dotacion et fundacion principale que monseigneur le duc souuerain chief et fondeur dudit ordre est tenuz de faire leuelles choses on maintient estre a dijon.”

The book is finely written on vellum, & beautifully illuminated, not only as to the Arms, but with a view of a Chapter of the Order sitting, and, towards the end, two of the Knights, namely Charles, Duke of Burgundy, and Philip of Austria, Count of Charolois, at full length, in their Robes. These paintings are very highly finished.

A thick Quarto, being “An Ephemeris of the cælestial Motions & Aspects for the Years of our Lord 1708. —1720. from Mr. John Wing's Tables.” Then follow sundry Tables,

1. A Table for finding the Dominical Letter & moveable Feasts until the year 1785.
2. Tabulæ pro supputandis aspectibus Lunæ cum Planetis.
3. Tabulæ pro supputandis aspectibus Planetarum inter se.
4. Examples on the foregoing Tables.
5. The Calculation of all the visible Eclipses of the Sun & Moon from the year of our Lord 1712 to the End of 1720, with the shape, manner & figure of the Eclipses as they will appear.
6. Eclipses of the Sun & Moon done by Mr. Chattock.
7. A Table to find the moveable Feasts for ever in both accounts, by the Dominical Letter, & the Roman Epact.

In the first leaves are some miscellaneous notes, and among them the well known list of high founding names, composing the grand Jury for the County of Huntingdon, at the Summer Assizes, July 1619.

This Book belonged undoubtedly to Partridge the Almanac-maker, who in the third leaf says, “In my Almanack for 1709, I have worked, &c.” His historical notes of the times in the margins of the Ephemeris,

4 S

& esse

Num. 6200—6206.

& elsewhere in the book are very curious. See particularly the note on October 1712, concerning Swift & the band-box plot. At June 1715, the death & burial of Dr. John Partridge are noted in a different hand, & afterwards the marginal remarks are rather meteorological than political.

6201.

A Quarto written in French with this Title, "Le Livre de la Magie et Astrologie des Anciens, decouvert & experimenté par les auteurs les plus celebres en cette Science secrette, mise en François par T. H. avec les figures necessaires." Contains 218 pages.

6260.

A Folio, containing Copies of Letters sent to & received from the Ambassadors of K. Henry VIII. at Rome, &c. Vide infra, n° 6345. f. 142. The titles are here entered.

1. The Copy of a Letter from Card. Woolsey to the Bishop of Bath, to solicit the Pope, that by no means the Army of the League might be dissolved in Italy, unless the French King, who was then about Milan, were first returned into France: and likewise to have Overtures, which the Cardinal had devised to be offered by the Pope to the French King, for a conclusion of Peace. 1.

2. A Letter from K. Hen. VIII. to the Bp. of Bath, his Ambassador at Rome, wherein he blames him for having suffered a Bull to be procured against him out of the Court of Rome, in favour of the Bp. of Turney, which he commands to be speedily revoked & annulled. 9.

3. The Copy of a Letter from Card. Woolsey to Mess^{rs} Sampson and Farneingham, residing with the Emperor, at the time when the Cardinals were in Conclave to choose Pope Clement, containing his Answer to former Letters of theirs, by which the King had been desired to continue his Army all the Winter, then being under the conduct of the Duke of Suffolk in France, unto which which his Grace agreeth; & further signifieth what end Sir John Russel had made with the Duke of Bourbon, & what Order he desireth to be taken by the Emperor, for the Payment of Count Burren & his Bands, who had served with the D. of Suffolk in France. 13.

4. The Copy of a Letter from Card. Woolsey to the Bp. of Bath at Rome, immediately upon the election of Pope Clement VII. with Instructions to congratulate him both in the Name of the King & Cardinal, & to invite him to join with the Emperor & King, against Francis the French King, against whom they had jointly began war. 18.

5. ——— from Card. Woolsey to the Bp. of Bath. With commendations of his diligence in the King's Service, he intreats him to represent to his Holiness in the strongest terms the necessity of his taking measures with the Emperor & the King against the French King, for the preservation of the peace of Christendom; which was now in danger from other quarters besides; on one hand from the Turk, who was advancing apace from Belgrade to Naples & the Isle of Rhodes, & by these confusions might take opportunity to overrun all Europe, to the destruction of the holy See itself; & on the other hand from the Lutherans, who were daily gaining ground in all parts of Germany & all other Countries. 27. b.

6. ——— from Card. Woolsey to Mr. Sampson. The Card. complains of Monf' de Pratt, the Emperor's Ambassador's abuse of the King & himself, in some Letters which were intercepted, & clears himself of many things objected against him by the said De Pratt. 39.

7. ——— from Card. Woolsey to the Bp. of Bath & Mr. Hannibal. The Cardinal sets down the total circumstances, & the effect of the communication & devices had with the archbishop of Capua, concerning Truce with the King of France, and the resolution taken in the same. 55. b.

8. ——— from Messrs Farmeingham & Sampson to Card. Woolsey, concerning their discourse with the Emperor, & of their answers to the difficulties propounded by the Emperor's Council; the continuance of the French war. 62.

9. ——— from Mr. Pace to the King. This gives an account of a League concluded between the Pope & the King of France, & some Princes of Italy, & likewise Stratagems to bring in the Venetians, who were driven to a Nonplus. The Emperor & King of France are likely to engage in battle before Milan. 68. b.

10. Copy of Instructions given by the King's Highness to the Bp. of London & Sir Richard Wingfield, sent on a special Embassy to the Emperor, after the taking of the French King by the Emperor, to make some agreement with him concerning the French King's Person & prosecution of the war. 70. b.

11. Copy of a Letter from the King to the Bp. of London and Sir Richard Wingfield, signifying his Conclusion of Peace with France, and giving them in charge to persuade the Emperor to do the same, and to set the French King at Liberty for a reasonable ransom. Then He speaks of the Lady Margaret's passing an unreasonable Truce with France, by the authority of the Emperor, without his Consent, & that he was compelled by the Emperor's Breach of his Covenants to take the foresaid Peace. 97. b.

12. ——— from Card. Woolsey to Mr. Sampson & Sir Richard Farmeingham, wherein he sends the News of the Transportation of an Army under the Duke of Suffolk to join the Lady Margaret, in order to lay siege to Boulogn; and tells them of the King's Successes at Sea, & in the affairs of Scotland. 111. b.

13. ——— from Card. Woolsey to Mr. Sampson & Sir R. Farmeingham, wherein they are furnished with

Num. 6260—6264.

Schemes to be proposed to the Emperor, for carrying on a successful War, or making an honourable Peace. 118.

The Memorial of Thomas Lord Fairfax, prepared for the Prefs by Dr. Brian Fairfax, Uncle to Lord Fairfax, in 1699.

Prefixed are two Letters from Dr. B. Fairfax. The former to a person unknown, desiring him to hinder the printing of any thing under that name, till he, who had the Original, & only true one, should be made acquainted with it. This is dated, "At my House nere the Abby of Westminster, Feb. 2, 1699."

The other is addressed to Lord Fairfax, stating that this MS. of his noble Predecessor is now printed from the Original written in his own hand, & left in his L^{ds} Study at Denton. This is subscribed, "Your most affectionate Uncle and humble Servant, Brian Fairfax," and dated "Apr. 22, 1699." This Letter occupies four large pages, & contains many particulars of the Author's Character.

The general title then follows, which is this, "A short Memoriall of the Actions of Thomas Lord Fairfax in the late Civil Warrs, written by himself."

The Articles which follow are these:

1. "A short Memoriall of the Northern Actions in which I was engaged during the Warr there, from the years 1642 to the year 1644." 71 pages. Signed T. Fairfax, subscribed B.F. 1672.

7. A Paradigm of the 8 Orders of Verbs. An example of all the Conjugations, Tenses & Moods of a Verb, with the other parts of Speech briefly handled; being a Compendium of the Hebrew Grammar, used in the Praxis or Exercitations composed by the late Dr. Rudd, methodized by P. Smart, A. M.

[6481—6505. Quarto.]

A Quarto, containing Dr. Rudd's Treatise of the miraculous Descensions & Ascensions of Spirits, verified by a practical examination of principles in the great World.—The second Part professes to contain some choice Rosycrucian Chemical Medicines, wholesome & fit to keep the Body in health & lustiness, until the appointed time of Death, that is when the Soul separates from it: And then after teaches the harmony & composition of the human Soul; & then conducts it to the place from whence it came. This & the following volumes to 6486 are full of mystical reveries.

6482.

A Quarto, containing the Characters of the 16 Figures of Geomancy, expressed in the great & lesser Squares of Tabula sancta; together with an explication of the seven Tables of Enoch, which are charged with Spirits or Genii, both good & bad of several Orders & Hierarchies, which the wise King Solomon made use of. Collected from Dr. Rudd's Papers by P. Smart, M. A. Here are Remarks on Sylphs, Salamanders, Gnomes, &c.

CAT. HARL. VOL. III.

Num. 6483—6491.

6483.

A Quarto, containing all the Names, Orders, & Offices of all the Spirits Salomon ever conversed with: the Seals & Characters belonging to each Spirit; & the manner of calling them forth to visible appearance.—Some of these Spirits are in Enoch's Tables described in the former Volume, but their Seals & Characters how they may be known are omitted, which are therefore in this book at large set forth.

6484.

Dr. Rudd's Treatise of the Talismanical Sculpture of the Persians; or the Manner of making Figures or Images under certain Constellations.

6485.

Dr. Dee's Treatise of the Rosie Crucian Secrets, their excellent Method of making Medicines of Metals: also their Laws & Mysteries. With an alphabetical explanation of certain chymical hard Words used in the Treatise.

6486.

A Quarto, containing a translation of Hermetis trimegisti Sponsalia celebrissima, or the famous celebrated Nuptials of the thrice great Hermes, allegorically describing the mystical union & communion of Christ with every regenerate Soul, composed by C. R. a German, of the Order of the Rosie Cross, about 255 years past, & from the Latin MS. faithfully translated into English by P. Smart, M. A.—In the Margin are brief Notes of the late Dr. Rudd explaining some hard words & sentences.

The Gospels, &c. are in French, the expositions in English. The arms contained in several illuminations are those of a female, who bears the Royal Arms of England in the second quarter. Many of the Initial Letters have these Arms, others have a Monogram in Gold, & others A. P. in different forms. These three devices are repeated throughout the book.

An Octavo paper book of more than 750 pages, neatly written, with many prints inserted, containing Devotional Verses, by W. Tipping Gent. with this title; "The

Num. 6562—6568.

"The Returned Prodigall his Contemplations Devine. Syraphic Love. The third Volume." At the end is a copious table of contents & the following list of the author's works.

"Books writ by W. Tipping Gent —1. His Amores, which booke hee has since committed to the flames.—2. His folly and vanitie of misplac'd Love.—3. The unfortunate younger Brother.—4. Reflections on Women, a Satyr.—5. The returned Prodigall.—6. His vision of Hell.—7. The Phylosophers Stone.—8. The sincere Lover.—9. His contemplations Devine.—10. Syraphic Love.—11. His Descent & Pedigree." The three last seem to be all in one. At pag. 15, the author also introduces his own name. The verses are very devout, but in general wretchedly bad. See also N^o 6645, which contains his "Phylosophers Stone."

6563.

Horæ beatæ Virginis, cum scutis armorum pictis, et figuris ludicris in margine. Codex membranaceus. xv.

2. Other Instructions by the Grandfather, signed also, at page 252, "Adam Sprakeling. September 22nd Anno Dñi 1646."

6584.

Several Collections of folio Papers, written in various hands & at different times, containing an imperfect Copy of Bp. Burnett's History of his own Time. With many Variations from the printed Editions.

Some Memorandums on a single Sheet at the beginning, dated July 1699, are probably in the Bishop's own hand, as are also many Corrections in the History. Dr. Gifford has written several useful Remarks in the Volume. Among them this is one. That "from many particulars it appears that the printed Editions were not taken from these Papers. Yet though there is great Variety of Expression the Substance is in general the same."

[6585—6599. Folio.]

A Folio, containing a Discourse by Hen. Elfyng, on the passing of Bills in Parliament. In the beginning of the Book there is inserted from Ant. Wood's Ath. Ox. the Character of the Author, among whose Works there enumerated the present Tract does not appear, unless it be under a different Title. This contains 74 pages of large Paper. It may be compared with that left by Sir Matth. Hale to Lincoln's Inn, "On Proceedings in Parliament." Elfyng was Clerk of Parliament under the Long Parliament.

Originally a very thick Octavo, now four moderate books, containing an extremely scarce printed edition of Littleton's Tenures, in black Letters, 1572, interleaved, with additions at each end equal to twice the size of the book, containing the original Observations & Enlargements of the L. C. Justice Coke in his own hand-writing; formerly covered with a rich Embroidery wrought by his own Daughter.

On the tenth leaf, at the beginning, is an exact account of the Parentage, Birth, & Family of Sir E. Coke; with particulars of his Life, written by himself, by which it appears that he was born Feb. 1, 1551, not 1549, as has usually been stated. These particulars extend to fol. 16, are written in Latin, & mark several of his Promotions.

On fol. 17. is written, "Edward Coke. Ubi meli ubi muscæ, ubi uber ubi tuber, — nec prece nec pretio;" and below, inclosed by lines, "August 1586, in commiss. de peace."

This very curious & valuable book has till lately (1804) escaped the notice of the editors & commentators upon Lord Coke's writings.

The book contains 922 leaves; but separate parts have their own original pages & indexes.

As it was much decayed, & in great danger of being mutilated & misplaced, it has been lately re-bound, in four convenient volumes, 1805. R. N.

6727—6744.

Eighteen Volumes in 4^o, bound in Vellum, containing the Diary of the life of Mr. Hodges a Scotchman, from the beginning of the year 1700, till the latter end of 1709.

These volumes are written chiefly in Latin, but are full of the author's dreams, with other whims, & mystical words, belonging apparently to judicial astrology. The name of Hodges I have not found in the volumes, but it is probably right. At the end of the last volume is this marginal note, in the same hand in which many others appear in the volumes. "Rivus hic [in textu] mors erat, nam hæ sunt ultimæ ejus annotationes, morte enim vereor inexpectatâ abreptus erat per hunc ipsum dolorem post 3 vel 4 Septimanas." The annotator seems to have been no wiser than the original author.

A thin Folio written in Italian, entitled, "Descrittione della Città di Tivoli di Piero Logorio, al ill^{mo} et R^{mo} Sr. Hippolito Cardinali amplissimo di Ferrara." On the exterior leaf, "Di Marc Antonio Parma, 1650. 15, Genn^o." 42 written leaves.

6754.

A Folio containing two distinct Treatises,
 1. A profound Tract, in mathematical form, with Definitions, Problems, & Theorems, concerning the Valuation of Money, & of Exchange, in four books.
 2. "Ad praxin Staticam Elementa quaedam accommodata." A similar Tract in Latin; with a Problem subjoined, in English, "on the Solution of the Archimedæan Problem." Probably by Mr. Walter Warner. See the next number.

A mathematical Book in a thin fol. written in Latin, being Mr. Walter Warner's Tract of Tactions, transcribed by Hunt. Smithson.

At the end there is a Discourse in English concerning the Fineness & Weight of Silver, & the proportion & manner of mixing it, in order to its being reduced to Standard; subscribed, "Mr. Warner's Tract of the Commixture of Metals for the Mint;" which makes it probable that 6754 is also by Mr. Warner. This is bound with 6017, 6031, & the ensuing number.

Another Mathematical Tract in a thin fol. written in Latin by the same Mr. Warner, & transcribed by Huntington Smithson, concerning Optics & Vision. "Per D. Gualterum Warner, Feb. 16, 1634." 45 pages. Bound with the preceding, &c.

2. English Verses & the Dies iræ in Latin, &c. with the date of 1638.
3. An older collection of French verses, the first dated 1580; on the blank pages of which, English & Latin verses have been inserted by I. O. Cocks in 1564. At fol. 35 is written, "Scriebat Mr. Carolus du pire 1591," with the curious device, "DUM SPIRO SPERO," giving the writers name in the capitals. At f. 46. b. Mr. Cocks's receipts & memorandums begin again. At 50. b. other medical receipts are inserted, the writer of which appears to have been a Mr. Dingley. His dates are about 1548. From f. 85 to 92 (both inclusive) the articles are entered in the book inverted, & are now numbered that way also. At f. 93, the receipts are continued. These are separately numbered in the margin, by the original owners, to the amount of 490: after which are some not numbered.
4. At the back of f. 92. begin the articles written with the book inverted, which are these:
 - Letter from the L. Viscount Falkland to the King in behalf of his Son under his Majesty's displeasure. 1.
 - Letter of Sir Walter Raleigh to the King before his Trial. 1. b.

Num. 6909, 6910.

6909.

A quarto, containing an imperfect & not very early transcript of Andrew of Wyntown's Scottish Chronicle. This MS. was collated by the accurate Mr. David Macpherfon, who has thus described it in his edition of that old Poem.

"Another manuscript, though not deserving notice for its age or correctness, yet must be noted, as being perhaps the only one, besides the royal, which contains the authors improvement, & as having been of some little use in the present edition. It is N^o 6909 of the Harleian Library in the [British] Museum, and has been written about the middle of the last century, upon 67 sheets of coarse paper in 4^o. The transcriber has taken great liberties, in altering & abridging. Along with the foreign matter, he has omitted the short notices of the Pictish Kings, the reign of Macbeth, and some other parts of the history of Scotland, his idea of which has led him frequently to correct Wyntown from Hector Boyce. This MS. seems to have been copied from one written in the Abbey of Kelso; or in the rubric of the chapter answering to vii. vi. King David is called, St. David our Founder, and the one answering to viii. xv. informs us, that William of Dalgernon, Abbot of Kelso, was tutor to David II. during his residence in France; a piece of intelligence which I find no where else." Preface, p. xxxvii.

A Quarto, containing the following Poems: neatly written & ruled.

1. Spenser's Profopopia: or Mother Hubbard's Tale, dedicated to the Lady Compton and Mountgale. 1.
2. The Tears of the Muses, dedicated to the Lady Strange. 20. b.
3. Virgil's Gnat, dedicated to the E. of Leicester. 30. b.
4. Muiopotmos, or the Fate of the Butterfly, dedicated to the Lady Carey. 41. b.
5. The Ruines of Time, dedicated to the Countess of Pembroke. 48. b.
6. Ruines of Rome, by Bellay. 59. b.
7. Visions of the World's Vanity. 67.
8. The Visions of Bellay. 69. b.
9. The Visions of Petrarch. 73.

At the end of this is written "Finis 1596," which is five years after most of them were printed in 4^o, & six after the Muiopotmos, and N^o 7 & 9 which were printed with it.

10. Here follows a collection of small Poems, by various hands, of which the chief are entitled, Hymnus in Noctem, f. 75, with some notes subjoined. Hymnus in Cynthiam, f. 82, with notes also; both, I believe, by G. Chapman, translator of Homer.
11. Hymnus in Cynthiam. Notes also. 82.
12. A Fable of the Owle, Cuckoo, &c. in Alexandrines, beginning,

"Suppose (for so must be suppos'd) that birdes & beafts did speake,
"The Cuckooe sometye lov'd the Owle, & so did
"with her breake."

Followed by Epigrams & other small poems. 92.

13. A long Poem, beginning,
"The wrathful Winter proching on apace."

Followed by Epigrams, &c. 107.

14. A tale beginning "King Aganippus," followed by shorter poems. 119.

"Rapt with the rage of myne owne ravisht thought." 127. b.

16. Another in Stanzas of 6 lines, beginning,
"Awake mysoule out of thy sleepe of sinne." 130.

17. Another, in the same stanza, followed by shorter Poems. 137.

18. The ballad of "Go, soul, the body's Guest," followed by several short poems. 141. b.

19. Three

Num. 6910—6918

19. Three short poems, signed Tho. Camp. 150.
 20. One, beginning "Muses no more," marked at the end, "Comes Effex." 151.
 21. "Luigi Groto his new Philosophie, Englyshed by Dod. Fedes," followed by several short Poems. 151. b.
 22. A very extensive collection of poesies or devices for rings. 160. b.
 23. Short poems again. 163. b.
 24. French Verses, with this title, "Ces vers suivans furent recitez sur le Theatre à la fin d'un Comedie." 176.
 25. "Verses upon the report of the Death of the Rt. Hon. the Lord of Effex." 177.
 26. An Epitaph, & other fragments in Latin. 193.
 On the whole, this is a singularly extensive collection of small Poems, transcribed in 1596, or not very long after, in one hand.

6911—12.

Two Volumes in Octavo, containing the collection of Westminster Poems, formed by Robert Prior, from which the Lusus Westmonasteriensis were selected. They are dedicated to Edward Harley, Baron of Wigmore, and have this title, "Musæ Westmonasterienses, five Poematum Minorum, inter solemnitates Regiæ Scholæ Westmonasteriensis præcipue compositorum, delectus." They include the Westminster Verses on the death of William Duke of Gloucester. All very fairly written. See a beautiful copy of the same verses at N° 2603.

6913 & 14.

Two Quartos containing satirical Poems by Ld. Rochester, Lord Vaughan, D. of Bucks, Lord Buckhurst, E. of Dorset, Mr. Dryden, Mr. Butler, Mr. Oldham & others. The 1st, 438 pages; the second, 254 (written) both completely index. In the latter pages of 2d some prose articles.

The former volume uniformly written, the latter in different hands; with some articles repeated which are in the first. The greater part have been printed.

A Quarto, written upon Vellum, containing thirty Psalms of David paraphrased in French Verse by Clement Marrot, together with the Epistles of St. Paul to the Philippians, Colossians & Philemon, apparently by the same. 66 leaves, fairly written.

6916.

An old collection of French poems, Balades, Rondels, &c. apparently of the 16th century; written on paper 203 leaves. At the beginning, in a modern, but probably a foreign hand is written, "Poesies de Charles d'Orleans, pere de Louis XII, et de plusieurs autres auteurs." xvi.

6917 & 18.

Two Quartos bound together, containing a large collection of English poems, very fairly & carefully written. These volumes were bought out of Lord Somers's Library of MS. and well deserve a more particular description than they have yet had. They appear to have been written in the early part of the 17th century, &, besides the Poems of known poets, contain many ascribed to persons whose names do not elsewhere appear.

The former volume contains 202 pages closely written, besides 8 pages which are previous to the numbering. The poems are also separately numbered, and amount to 202, besides 11 contained in the previous pages. This volume has a complete alphabetic index of the first lines of each poem, in which those in the 8 previous fort, that he & his Women (Mother, Wife & Daughter, but expressed by a very vulgar word) see him hunt the Buck, &c. No Date. 102.

87. The King to the Duke, desiring he would speak to the Spanish Agent, & be with him to morrow at Supper, & would be glad to have the Women there, expressed by the same word as before: Calls himself his Purveyor, & sends him a Kid for Dinner, &c. No Date. 103.

88. The King to the Duke, that he has passed the President's Bill; that it is his office to try some Complaints against the Hollanders; hoping he will not fail to be at Bewly to morrow, & bring all the Women (express'd as before) that is, his Wife, Mother & Sister, &c. No Date. 104.

89. The King to the Duke, that he did not write yesterday, because he was sick of a great Flux; that he is resolved to stay where he is till Monday, that he may kill more of Zouche's great Stags; summons him to him to morrow, & his Wife and Sister to meet him at Harrison's Heath Herd, with their Bows, on Monday, that L^d Percy is returned from France with better News than before. Sends him a Barbary Melon, &c. No Date. 105.

90. The Duke to the King, returning his new Draught of a Letter to be signed by his Majesty; that a Priest who passes by the name of Robt. Watson, has desired him to write a Letter of Thanks to the Cardinal de Barberino for his Favours; that there wants a Pass for this Priest, otherwise he may be taken & searched, & all be discovered: with his reasons why his Majesty should stay ten Days at Theobalds, &c. No date. 106.

91. The Duke to the King, that he will make an Excuse to the Parliament of his Majesty's having a violent Cold, for his not being able to appoint them a day of hearing; but will forbear to tell them that he was notwithstanding able to speak to the K. of Spain's Instruments, tho' not with his own Subjects, &c.

92. The Queen of Bohemia to the Duke, shewing her Confidence in his friendship, & excusing herself from sending many Lines, because this Messenger's little Body should not be overburdened (probably little Jeffrey his Dwarf) Hagh 8 Apr. No Year.

93. The Duke to the King, that he does not wait on his Majesty, because the Spanish Ambassador has been with him, which gives distrust to the people; and desires him plainly to answer, whether if the People do give him a royal assistance, he will not accept it & their Counsel to break off the Match, with the other Treaties; & whether he may not assure some of them underhand of so much, because it is fear'd, when his Turns are served, they will not be called together again: And that he will resolve once constantly to run one way, for so long as he wavers between the Spaniard & his own Subjects, to make his advantage of both, he is sure to do it with neither, &c. No Date. 109.

94. The Duke's Heads of a Speech for the King to make in Parliament, relating to the royal assistance, & applying it to the recovery of the Palatinate; recovering a right understanding between him & his people, & being in love with Parliaments for making good Laws, & reforming Abuses. 110.

95. The Prince to the Duke, shewing the King's approbation of his Dispatch, and agreeing that the safest way of landing the Troops is in Holland, and so to go through the Bishops Countries, but not near Breda; & that the King thinks it fit the French King should hire our Merchant ships to transport their Horse; and that Secretary Conway renew his strict Command to the chief Commanders of his Subjects in Count Mansfield's Army, that they observe these Rules set down, & leave Mansfield if he presume to lead them any other way. The Prince likewise advises him to leave off his Physick, & come down in the Country to them, &c. without Date. 111.

Num. 6987, 6988.

96. The Prince to the Duke that this Day the lower House has given the King a Subsidy, & design to entreat him to end the Session before Christmas, with his Opinion thereupon, especially that his Majesty would command them not to speak any more of Spain, whether of that War or his Marriage: also of a Letter he received from Sir Edw. Cecil to be employed in a War for defence of the Palatinate, but he would not have him put over Sir Horace Vere's head, &c. No Date. 112.

97. The Prince to the Duke, that Bristol stands upon his Justification, & will by no means accept of his Counsels; the King in haste to have him come to his trial; wishes the Duke to be with them to help charge him, or he may escape with too light a Censure; but not to come sooner than he may with safety of his health, &c. No Date. 113.

98. The Prince to the Duke, finding two Errors in his Draught of the Letter, to be sent by the King to the Pope, but approves of his Letter to the Cardinal, that he will speak to Conway for a pass for Robt. Watson, & desires that he would be ready to go with the King to Theobalds, &c. No Date. 114.

99. The Prince to Mr. Walter Montague, assuring him that the Error which was committed is thought to have proceeded from Bristol's Cunning that drew him on, rather than from his own Understanding or Will; that he shall find in the Dispatch herewith sent a Discourse of clearing their Proceedings, with a Command to him to make some narration thereof to the ministers there, (in Spain) not that it is their intention to make a new Treaty, or alter the Grounds laid in the last Dispatch, which he is to take heed of, &c. No Date. 115.

16. Mr. Thomas Randolph to the Lord Hunfdon, of the Scotch Affairs, & particularly of the great Pastimes at the Wedding of the E. of Murray's Daughter with the Abbot of St. Combe's Son, where the King was present. Edinburgh, 4 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

17. Mr. Secretary Walsyngham to the E. of Huntingdon, hoping they might procure her Majesty a sufficient Party in Scotland, though the Number of Noblemen were few; wish'd that Montrose might be added to the Number, being a Man of Wisdom & Courage; & advised his sending at Berwick, in case Lord Hunfdon should enter into Scotland. Whitehall, 6 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

18. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, forwarding a Packet to him from Lord Hunfdon. Newcastle 8 Feb. 1580.

19. Mr. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon, of his discourse with the Abbot of Newbottle & Clerk Register, concerning the differences between her Majesty & the King of Scotland: & likewise of his plain Dealing with the King & Council. Edinburgh 8 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

20. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Randolph decyphered, wherein he endeavours to make it appear safest to act by fair means, & that there can be no way to get Morton at liberty, but by Favour shewed to Lenox, who with Argyle offers wholly to be at her Majesty's Devotion, but neither of them to be trusted, &c. 8 Feb. 1580.

21. E. of Huntingdon to Sir Fra. Walsyngham, concerning his forwarding the Forces to Berwick. Newcastle 9 Feb. 1580.

22. Mr. Tho. Randolph to the Lord Hunfdon & the E. of Huntingdon, delivering an Account of a Conference between him & the E. of Morton's Imprisonment, when the Earl declared that he should be brought to Trial in a short time: Mr. Geo. Young, Clerk of the Council, brings in a long Answer in Writing to what he had propounded to his Majesty in Council, to which he desired a sufficient time to make a Reply, & therefore desires the Concurrence of their Advice: The King has summoned all his Nobles, Barons, & Headboroughs to consult what should be needful to make head against the Queen, if she should invade them: Many Writings found in Mr. Archibald Douglas's Chamber: Designs formed of taking the King to Linlithgow, &c. Edinburgh 9 Feb. 1580.

23. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, concerning the Queen's enlarging his Commission.—Account from Mr. Randolph that the E. of Lenox & that Party become more mild.—Expectation of all the Forces from the E. of Huntington in a few days.—Care about victualling the Army-Stores in the North.—In a Post-script there is an Account of the Arrival of 400 Footmen mostly unfurnished, & the other fourteen hundred that are on the road are in no better condition. Berwick, 6 Feb. 1580.

24. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, expressing his Fears of the Troubles likely to be brought upon both Kingdoms by the E. of Lenox, who is no better Friend to the State than all Guyssian Romanists be. Newcastle, 6 Feb. 1580.

25. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, returning thanks for her Majesty's accepting and placing Sir Harry Witherington as Marshall: touching the victualling of the Soldiers in the Country—Packet from

Num. 6999.

Mr. Randolph bringing small matter of importance for so long Abode there. Berwick, 9 Feb. 1580.

26. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham at the same time in his own hand, extolling the E. of Angus as the most resolute and constant man of his Promise, & of so great power & friendship in Scotland, that for his sake many will take part with him for the E. of Morton who would not otherwise stir a Step: is consulted by the said E. of Angus what to do; has therefore referred him to Mr. Randolph: delivers it as his Opinion that the E. of Angus should declare that he would take counsel from the Queen of England, & that Mr. Randolph should likewise declare to the King & Council that the Queen will be an Enemy to the E. of Lenox, & all that give him any countenance, aid & assist him, which would send him packing, there being not a Nobleman to take his part except Argyle.

27. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that every thing done by Mr. Randolph is frivolous, that there were no occasion for him & the E. of Huntington to march thither with all their Troops, but to the Queen's Dishonour; & if they be disbanded without letting them feel the Smart, it will set this proud Nation the Scots into so great a Pride, as they will not care what Injury they offer her Majesty. Berwick, 11 Feb. 1580.

28. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, expressing his Dislike of the Contents of a Letter from Lord Harris, fearing that the fair Speeches of the Scots are only to gain time, & till they have better prepared themselves; & therefore he will write to Mr. Randolph, that at the great Convention on the 20th there will be a fit opportunity to make a Party. Alnewick, 14 Feb. 1580.

29. Copy of a Letter from the Lord Harris transcribed by the E. of Huntington, wherein he urges the removing the E. of Lenox, & the Liberty of the Earl of Morton. Teweglis, 10 Feb. 1580.

30. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Randolph, giving the Substance of a private Conference with the King, who seemed inclinable to take the Advice of her Majesty, but was loth to part with Lenox. 14 Feb.

31. Secretary Walsyngham to Lord Huntington, that a Supply of Horsemen should be sent from these Parts, & all proper Care to furnish the Foot with suitable Arms. Whitehall 15 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

32. Secretary Walsyngham to Lord Hunfdon, sending him a Copy of a Letter from Mr. Randolph decyphered, that he may perceive the different Advertisements concerning the Queen's party in Scotland, that Orders were sent to Mr. Randolph to communicate a Cypher to his Lordship for their better Correspondence, & it is recommended that a trusty Messenger may be dispatched to Mr. Randolph for Conference. Besides Mr. Randolph is required at the Assembly at Edinb. on the 20th to explain the End of his being sent thither; a Copy of the Project sent him for that purpose being inclosed, that upon the perusal thereof such alterations as he deemed meet to be made might be transmitted to Mr. Randolph. Whitehall, 15 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

33. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, with an account of a Letter from Mr. Randolph, importing that the Lord Seaton was to be sent to the Queen; his Caution with regard to so dangerous a Man, whose only Intent is to practise some matter by the way with the Scottish Queen, & being there with the French & Spanish Ambassadors, & some of our Papiists, &c. so that he should suffer neither Seaton nor any other till he heard from him. Berwick, 16 Feb.

34. Mr. Tho. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon, desiring his Advice of what Course he should take, if Lord Seaton or any other should be ordered to be sent to the Queen; had conferred with the King alone, & plainly remonstrated to him his Obligations to the Queen; & tho' young, he wanted neither words nor answers: & he finds will not do otherwise than Lenox adviseth. Edinb. 14 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

35. Lord Hunfdon to Mr. Randolph, with an Answer to the Council of Scotland touching the Bill of Heatepoole, that they may see he understands what belongs to his Office of Warden better than they can teach him. In answer to his Letter touching Lord Seaton he thinks him the worst Person they can send, & will be unwelcome to her Majesty; & as for sending any other it will be only on a frivolous Errand, till Daubeny's Forces can be brought over from France, for as he was her Majesty's Ambassador, they might sufficiently explain themselves to him. Berwick, 15 Feb. 1580. A Copy.

36. Mr. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon, that the Commendator of Newbottle had been with him from the King to obtain safe Conduct from the Lord Lieutenant, against which he had remonstrated; that the next day he receiv'd another Message by the Lord Seaton's second Son, by whom he returned the same Answer. & desired that he might be permitted to deliver his Mind to the King himself, which was granted for the next day. Feb. 15, 1580. A Copy.

37. Mr. Tho. Randolph to mostly in Cypher. Edinb. 23 Feb. 1580.

38. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, thanking him for his Advice how to behave upon the Death of his Son; acknowledging her Majesty's favour in bestowing the keeping of Launson Castle upon one of his Sons; sending a Letter of the King of Scotland and another of Mr. Randolph to him, whereby may be seen what her Majesty is to expect, & hopes she will act accordingly, now that they are preparing & levying Forces against her; relating the sad condition of Timmouth Castle, the only Place for Men to land at in all these northern Parts, the Governor whereof (Pullen) is gone into France or Spain; & mentioning a Report of a Ship's arriving at Aberdeen with the Bp. of Ross, &c. Newcastle, 13 March 1580.

39. Mr. Tho. Randolph to the Lord Hunfdon, sending him a Letter from the King of Scots to be transmitted to the Queen without any alteration of his mind; the Council are resolute in the same way as hitherto, tho' there is no Concord among themselves: No other Appearance but open War, tho' few Soldiers offer themselves to be enlisted: Much ado to get Money: The King designs a new Coinage: In the Conclusion, he says he hopes to hear of his Revocation. Edinburgh 11 March 1580.

40. Mr. Tho. Randolph to Mr. Secretary Walsyngham, that now he may see the End of his Negotiation here, only this is won, viz. the Fury of Morton's Enemies is appeased: It only remains to enter upon open War; but then they must come like themselves without depending upon any here, tho' there be who wish well: A Letter from her Majesty to the King noting his Ingratitude may do good; & another from the Council to the Council here, noting their abusing of the King in his tender Years: If Commissioners be appointed, none more fit than the Lords Lieutenants & Mr. Bowes, as for himself rather desires to be excused because of his Age. Edinb. 11 March 1580.

41. Mr. Randolph to Mr. Secretary Walsyngham, in hopes that some Good may be done by Commissioners, tho' wilfulness over-rules them. However there are great Numbers who will not suffer their Religion to be overthrown; &c. Great Part of the Letter is in Cypher. Edinb. 13 Mar. 1580.

42. Mr. Tho. Randolph to the E. of Huntingdon in Cypher, wishing that matters might be advantageously concluded without War: If Commissioners are appointed, all may be well; or War may be then entered upon with more advantage. Edinb. 13 March 1580.

43. Extract of Mr. Randolph's Letter decyphered, signifying that it might have been a prudent Step to have had D'Aubigny: Lord Hunfdon & Mr. Bowes inclined to push matters, led on by Mr. Archibald Douglas, who ever hath had delight to fish in troubled Waters.

44. Mr. Robert Bowes to Secretary Walsyngham, that the Effect of appointing Commissioners will be to accept the Excuses & Offers of Lenox to the dissatisfaction of Angus & his Friends. Newcastle 14 March 1580.

45. Secretary Walsyngham to Lord Huntingdon, concerning her Majesty's & the Council's approving of his Advice:—Mr. Randolph is ordered to repair to Lord Hunfdon at Berwick to confer upon a Composition, which seems proposed merely to gain time:—In another Letter from Secretary Walsyngham to Mr. Randolph, He is sorry to find so great difference in Opinion between Lord Hunfdon & him, & therefore recommends his repairing to Berwick for a Conference. 15 Mar. 1580. Copies.

46. Secretary Walsyngham to Lord Hunfdon, that her Majesty defers coming to a Resolution till a Conference has passed between him & Mr. Randolph: that this day an Order was given to convey to him 3000l. Likewise that the Parliament was prorogued this day. Whitehall 18 March 1580. A Copy.

47. Secretary Walsyngham to Mr. Randolph, desiring him to specify in writing the particular good Effects that might be produced from appointment of Commissioners more than could be obtained by his own audience from the King: & answering such Objections as might be made against the passing the Borders with the Army. 18 March 1580. A Copy.

48. Mr. Tho. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon & the E. of Huntingdon, giving the Heads of his long Conference with the King at his Audience of Leave for repairing to Berwick. In the P. S. He mentions that Geo. Flecke had yesterday night the Boots, & is said to have confessed that the E. of Morton was privy to the poisoning the E. of Athol. Edinb. 16 March 1580. A Copy.

49. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, thanking him that he is likely to have a larger Allowance: & expressing his Satisfaction at the Court's Dislike of a Composition. Newcastle 19 March 1580.

50. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that Mr. Randolph's Departure from Edinburgh is deferred; that Angus & his Friends are discovered, so that of necessity they must enter into some open Action; that the Lord of Whittingham & others were apprehended; that he is against the appointing of Commissioners; that he was as loth as any man to advise the entering into a War, but things were come to that Pass as rendred it unavoidable. Berwick 20 March 1580.

51. Mr. Tho. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon, that the Commendator of Dorformlin, Newbottle, & the Clerk Register had been with him from the King, but they ended their Conference dissatisfied with each other; by reason of indisposition he was obliged to put off his Journey to Berwick; that a Minister was arrived from the Prince of Orange upon the affair of the imprisonment of the E. of Morton; that all the Clans belonging to Morton & Angus have offered their service to the King; that the Laird of Whittingham had the Boots, but without Torment confessed every thing he could charge any Man with, that he might secure himself. Edinb. 18 Mar. 1580.

52. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, inclosing a Letter from Mr. Randolph, by which it appears that his former Advice ought to have been followed. Berwick 21 March 1580.

53. Mr. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon, concerning the Discovery made by the Laird of Whittingham; & a Proclamation against the E. of Angus, and requiring all from 18 to 60 years of Age to be in readiness for the King's Service within 8 days warning.—Some Notes concerning the poisoning of the E. of Athol—of the Desertion of the Clans.—Recommends Commissioners as the best Step.—Soldiers marching for the Siege of Dalkeith. Edinb. 20 March 1580.

54. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that if Morton be justly accused, fiat justitia; that now he comes into Mr. Randolph's Opinion for the meeting of Commissioners. Newcastle 22 March 1580.

55. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, signifying that he had written, as he had advised, to the Lords of the Council concerning the enlarging his allowance; & desiring that he may not be a Commissioner in the Scotch Affairs. Newcastle 23 March 1580.

56. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that the Court at Edinburgh has been in fear of themselves; that by a Person from thence it is affirmed that Whittingham has not confessed any thing against Angus, either of an Intention for surprising of the King or killing any of the Noblemen; & that the Charges of the new Forces are above 3000l. per Month. Berwick 24 Mar. 1580.

57. Mr. Randolph to Lord Hunfdon, with an Account of Whittingham's Confession, whereby he appears the errantest Knave, Villain, & Coward that ever was: which he had represented to the King in the presence of several of the Council, especially in the Affair of Letters from the ABp. of Glasgow, which he had alledged to have been forged by his Brother Mr. Arch^d. Douglas; & had therefore infilted upon his being recommitted to Prison, in order for a thorough trial of the Truth of what he had advanced, which if he were not able to justify, that his Pardon might be revoked, & he might be hanged as a Traitor, Slanderer, & Liar. He likewise told the King & Council of the private Injuries done himself, so that he required Leave to depart to Berwick to attend her Majesty's pleasure: upon which he received many good Words, &c. Edinb. 23 March 1580.

58. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that by a Letter from Angus it seems the Surprise of Dunbarton which had been intended, could not be undertaken without peril to Morton, till they had gathered all their Forces together, to which end they were this day to meet at Stirling. In case they send to him for assistance, he desires direction in the part which he is to act: In the Court there is such Distrust of one another, & there are such Fears of the City of Edinburgh, that it is much questioned where they will find any to make head against them. It is intimated in the P. S. from Melvin, that the King of France has promised to send them Forces; & that it is rumour'd that a Rebellion is design'd in England. Berwick 25 Mar. 1581.

59. Mr. Bowes to Secretary Walsyngham, further concerning the Examination of Whittingham, & the Designs of Angus & his Friends. Berwick 25 Mar. 1581.

60. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, desiring to know whether he should let an Ambassador pass, if the Scots should send one: thinks that it requires great Consultation what shall be done with her Majesty's Forces here: informs that Monf. D'Aubigny would by no Means quit Scotland, except the Scottish Queen should desire it: & speaks of the danger Mr. Randolph was in from a Person's firing his Piece at him, as he sat writing in his Closet, two Bullets piercing through the Window hard by him. Berwick 26 Mar. 1581.

61. Draught of a Letter from Secretary Walsyngham to Mr. Randolph, concerning the appointing of Commissioners, & the Heads to proceed upon at their Meeting; viz. that there be no Alteration of Religion: that there be no attempt for transporting the King out of the Realm without the Assent of the three Estates of Scotland & the Privity of her Majesty: that they do not proceed to any Treaty of Marriage for the King without her Majesty's knowledge: that all Proceedings against the E. of Morton be staid, till the Charge against him is laid before her Majesty, &c. 26 Mar. 1581.

Num. 6999.

62. Draught of a Letter from Secretary Walsyngham to the E. of Huntingdon & Lord Hunfdon, concerning the appointing Commissioners, & discharging such part of the Forces as they might find convenient, 26 Mar. 1581.

63. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, delivering his Opinion that some of the Clans might be tampered with, & brought over to her Majesty, which he was the more encouraged to think, since by Mr. Randolph's Letter there were some who had already taken up Arms. Newcastle, 26 Mar. 1581.

64. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, concerning D'Aubigny's deceitful Dealing, & the Advantage which may accrue to her Majesty from their Quarrels among themselves. Newcastle, 27 Mar. 1581.

65. Lord Hunfdon to Sir Fra. Walsyngham, that if her Majesty would cut off all Traffick with them by Sea & Land, it might bring them to reason: expects daily to hear of Angus & Marr effecting some Enterprize: mentions the Design of bringing Morton to a Trial, & then no doubt they will have his Head, which will not be long a doing. Berwick, 29 Mar. 1581.

66. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, giving an Account of what Answer he sent back to a Letter received from Angus & Marr for assistance, that now Mr. Randolph was with him, in whose Opinion it was too late to treat by Commissioners. Berwick, 29 Mar. 1581.

67. E. of Angus & Mar to Lord Hunfdon, desiring assistance from him. Stirling, 23 March 1580.

68. Mr. Randolph to Secretary Walsyngham, advertising his Arrival at Berwick, & the little Good to be done with the King & Council; fearing what will become of the 3 Noblemen Angus, Mar, & Glencarn, the only ones her Majesty hath to depend on; that he had hoped for an Accommodation by Commissioners, but as to that they intirely trifled, & Morton's Case must have been altogether neglected. Berwick, 29 March 1581.

69. Randolph to Walsyngham, that the alteration of their Minds gave him Cause to alter his Opinion in regard to the meeting of Commissioners; with some few more private Matters. Berwick, 30 March 1581.

70. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that since Mr. Randolph's Departure from Edinburgh they had begun the Fortification of Leith; that her Majesty should give them up clearly & forbid all manner of Traffick with them by Sea or Land: & begin with them now in their great misery & poverty, & she may do that with them for a Pound, which she may not do afterwards for an Hundred: which he had always delivered as his Opinion. Berwick, 30 March 1581.

71. Draught of a Letter to the E. of Huntingdon & Lord Hunfdon, signifying how loth the Queen is to use open Force, if there can be any other Remedy found out, 31 Mar. 1581.

72. Draught of a Letter to Lord Hunfdon, that when it is known what Assistance is wanted by Angus & his Associates who have taken the Field, that they may enter into Scotland with this Declaration, that it is only to take away such Men from the King's Person, who are endeavouring to destroy the Amity that has continued these 20 Years between the two Realms, 31 Mar. 1581.

73. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, expressing his Surprise at her Majesty's Commandment to discharge the new levied Forces. Berwick, 1 April 1581.

74. Mr. Randolph to Secretary Walsyngham, that whatever his Opinion may have been, he finds now that it will be to no purpose to appoint Commissioners, &c. Berwick, 1 April 1581.

75. Mr. Randolph to the Lords of the Council, giving his Reasons for the alteration of his Mind with respect to appointing Commissioners. Berwick, 1 April 1581.

76. Mr. Bowes to Secretary Walsyngham, about the allowance to the Companies that are ordered to be discharged. Berwick, 1 Apr. 1581.

77. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, giving his Opinion of the Measures to be taken with the Scots, that may most tend to the Queen's Honour. Newcastle, 2 Apr. 1581.

78. E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that the E. of Angus is either in Arms or coming to England for Succour; that it is feared the E. of Mar is snared by Lenox, &c. Newcastle, 4 Apr. 1581.

79. Lord Scrope to the E. of Huntingdon, that the E. of Angus was come to Loughmaben in these Western Marches of Scotland to the Laird Johnston. Carlisle, 3 Apr. 1581.

80. Lord Hunsdon to Secretary Walsyngham, acquainting that according to his direction he had written to the Lords of the Council for some allowance to himself, 4 Apr. 1581.

81. Lord Hunsdon to the Lords of the Council, informing them that Angus is left alone, the E. of Mar & others having come into the King: that a Proclamation has been made forbidding any Scotchman to have any Trade or Traffick with any part of England, &c. and craves an allowance for himself. Holly Island, 4 April 1581.

82. Secretary Walsyngham to the Lord Hunsdon, about discharging some of the Troops. From the Court of St. James's, 5 Apr. 1581. The Draught of a Letter.

83. The E. of Huntingdon to Secretary Walsyngham, desiring to be excused his Attendance at Court; & laying before him the Proceedings of the Scots who had made Proclamations against England, wishing that the end of this action may not imbolden them to do Us more harm, than We are fit in honour to sustain, &c. Newcastle, 8 Apr. 1581.

84. Draught of a Letter to Lord Hunsdon, signifying how much her Majesty was moved at this new & strange Step taken in Scotland: however because of the great Charges she was not willing yet a while to raise more forces, or prevent the Discharge of those which had been already ordered to be disbanded. From the Court at St. James's, 10 Apr. 1581.

85. Draught of a Letter from the same Person (probably from Walsyngham) to Lord Hunsdon, that since the closing up of the former he had received Order from her Majesty, in the presence of the Lords of the Council, to be given to his Lordship, for the Discharge of the 500 also, which before were appointed to be served, except his Lordship saw great Reason for the Stay; & thus giving a View of their good Husbandry he humbly takes his Leave. From the Court at St. James's, 10 Apr. 1581.

86. Lord Hunsdon to Secretary Walsyngham, that He had discharged 500 Horsemen, who being Borderers were to be raised again upon immediate Warning; recommends the supplying Yorkshire with Arms: that he had received News that Sir John Seaton designed to be with him that day, who being the King of Spain's Servant, he thought, was a very unfit Messenger to be sent to her Majesty, & therefore would detain him till he knew her pleasure. Berwick, 10 Apr. 1581.

87. Lord Hunsdon to Secretary Walsyngham, with an Account of the Arrival of Sir Jo. Seaton, who was the most proud & vain glorious Beast he ever saw in his Life: that he should not furnish him with a Passport, till he heard from Court. Berwick, 10 Apr. 1581.

109. Copy of a Letter from the E. of Angus to Secretary Walsyngham, desiring him to return thanks to her Majesty for her kind protection of him, & throwing himself entirely upon her future Pleasure. Carlisle, 17 June 1581.

110. Lord Hunfdon to Secretary Walsyngham, declaring his Resolution to interfere with his Advice no more in regard to the Scotch Affairs, it having all along been neglected; that he persisted still in the same Opinion which he had so often declared, & the scornfull & imperious Usage of every Englishman that went amongst them, naturally pointed out the Measures to be taken in regard to them: Instancing in Lord Scrope's, Servant sent in a Message to the King & Mr. Churchyard: Likewise representing the trifling of the King about sending an Ambassador, &c. together with his notorious Dissimulation acknowledged by all Scotchmen themselves, & his Subjections to the Influence & Counsels of the new E. of Arran & Lenox. In the Conclusion he again makes a request for Leave to repair to her Majesty & look after his own Concerns, there being no Service for him here. In the P.S. mentions Mr. Arch Douglas riding to the E. of Angus at Carlisle. Berwick, 28 June 1581.

111. Declaration of Mr. Churchyard under his own Hand, of Lord Arran's Message by him to Lord Hunfdon.

112. Copy of a Letter from the E. of Angus to Secretary Walsyngham, desiring that his Cousin Mr. Archibald Douglas may be permitted to wait upon her Majesty for the better making her acquainted with his Mind & all such Things as related to his Case, being willing to conform himself intirely to her good Pleasure. Carlisle, the last of June 1581. 2

Num. 7184—7187.

The remains of a very fine Copy of Gowers Confessio Amantis, written on Vellum and illuminated. The size a large and magnificent Folio. The first page a little defaced, the rest very clean. There are no paintings, except for the ornamenting of initial Letters. It appears, however, to have been mutilated, at some period, for the sake even of these Illuminations.

Thus, at the end of Book I. about 124 Lines are wanting, and 46 from the beginning of Book II. which had been written on the illuminated Leaf. There is a similar Chasm at the end of Book IV. where part of the deficient Leaf remains. Again at the beginning of B. VI. which is also deficient at the end, with the beginning of B. VII. Of the 7th Book a very large Part is wanting, (namely from fol. 177 of Caxton's Edition) and the whole of B. VIII.

Thus miserably mutilated, the MS. is still well worthy of Collation, from its antiquity, & from the Care with which it was originally written. It is apparently of the 14th Century.

The Book of Common Prayer, Lond. 1625. with a great many Notes & Observations in the hand-writing of Dr. John Cosins Bishop of Durham. The following note is written on one of the first leaves by Mr. Wanley. "This book is noted, for the most part, by the hand of Dr. John Cosins, sometime Bishop of Durham, and was bought of Dr. White Kennet, now Bishop of Peterburgh, who found it by chance, in a private House in Peterburgh aforefaid." The particulars contained in it ought to be specified. They are as follows.

1. A printed Fragment, comparing the Russian, Swedish, and Latin months, thus marked & signed by "William Griffith."
2. Six leaves, quarto size, inserted, and marked "Errors, Abuses, Disorders &c. in Opinion, Practise, in Doctrine, Discipline &c. in Persons & matters Ecclesiasticall."
3. The Notes of Bishop Cosins on the Liturgy, superscribed, "Let me live & dye an obedient Sonne of the Church of England my holy Mother, and I shall be sure to find God my Father. 1648." Many Notes, however, are intermixed, in another hand; the same which transcribed those of Bp. Andrewes.
4. Opposite to the printed rule for finding Easter for ever, in the Kalendar, is a paper thus endorsed, "Mr. Flamsted's Paper for finding Easter, given to me by himself 1712." The paper is written in a fair hand, & signed Catalogus Numismatum Romanorum ex ære, primæ et secundæ magnitudinis. Liber chartaceus, in octavo, manu plerumque eleganti scriptus.

7337—7342.

Six Volumes of Church Music, written in Score, collected by Dr. Tudway. Each volume is separately dedicated to Edward Lord Harley, and they are not mere inscriptions, but addresses of some length; particularly that to the sixth Volume, which amounts to a considerable treatise.

The first Volume has this printed title; "A Collection of the most celebrated Services & Anthems used in the Church of England, from the Reformation to the Restauration of K. Charles II. composed by the best Masters, and collected by Thomas Tudway, D. M. Musick Professor to the Univerfity of Cambridge. 1715."

The titles to the rest are written; & are successively dated; viz. Vol. 2 & 3, 1716. Vol. 4. 1717: 5, 1718: and 6, 1720. The four first Volumes contain the ancient compositions, the two last, those which were then modern. Each has a full index of Contents at the end. The whole collection is extremely curious and valuable.

A Quarto book, very handsomely bound, with strings & tassels, containing the words to a set of Church Compositions, thus described in the title-page, which is a dedication also.

[Quarto.]

A paper Volume, containing,

1. A Treatise in the Cufic, or old Arabic Language.
2. "A poetical Account, in several Cantos and Subdivisions, of the pretended Prophet Mahomet, and his Ancestors; and the holy light, which, according to this Author, shone upon them before the Creation of the World." Written in the vulgar Castilian Language, with a few Arabic Terms intermixed.

It was written by one Muhamed Rabadan, an Aragonian Moor, in 1603: and the Design of the Author apparently was to prove, that his Prophet was descended of a much more illustrious Family than Jesus Christ, & was altogether superior to him.

There is a long Title, with a prose Introduction, and a full Table of Contents. 339 leaves.

This appears to be the identical Copy which belonged to John Morgan, who has given a Translation of it in the first Volume of his "Mahometism explained."

There is another Copy in the National Library at Paris.

A miscellaneous Volume of Royal Letters & Papers, marked Volume iv. the other Volumes being Vol. i. 6986, ii. 6987, iii. 6988, and Vol. v. 1760.

2. Marching Orders from Prince Rupert, signed by himself, dated, "Oxford, this 22d of December 1643."
 3. A Receipt for Five Pounds, signed by Oliver Cromwell.
 4. An Original Letter from Elizabeth Q. of Bohemia, to the Duke of Ormond, dated 13 May 1661.
 5. An original Letter from Oliver Cromwell to W. Lenthall, Speaker of the House of Commons, dated, "Haverbrowe, (Harborough) June 14, 1645;" giving an Account of his Victory at Naseby. See Sloan MSS. 1519.
 6. A Letter from Fairfax to the same, dated the next day, on the same Subject. Original.
 7. A Patent with the Sign Manual of Oliver, as Protector, appointing Sam. Moreland to be one of the Clerks of the Signet, in 1655, Mar. 10.
 8. A Commission from the same, appointing John Wells, Ensign, 17 Nov. 1651. Presented by Mr. Hatfield, 1760, to the Museum.
 9. A Letter respecting the battle of Naseby, signed, "Har. Leighton, Tho. Herbert," 1 June 1645, to the Speaker Lenthall.
 10. A Letter from Oliver Cromwell to Col. Hacker, dated Dec. 25, 1650.
 11. A Memorandum, apparently from Lord Oxford, concerning the ensuing Letter from Oliver Cromwell, stating that it was given to him by Charlewood Lawton, Esq. Apr. 18, 1718, & attesting its authenticity.
 12. An original Letter from Oliver Cromwell to his Wife, dated Edinburgh, 3d May 1651.
 13. Copy of a Letter from Oliver Cromwell to his Son Charles, Aug. 22, 1653. Thus marked by Dr. Gifford, "Memorandum copied from the Original in the Hands of Mrs. Cook (Grand-daughter to L' Gen. Fleetwood of Newington, Midsex.) Nov. 5, 1759, by A. Gifford."
 - 14, 15. Two Impressions from a Copper Plate found in the Coffin of Oliver Cromwell. The first is taken immediately from the Plate, & is therefore reverted; the other is taken from that Impression while wet.
