You know that "BUOYANT" SUITES are really good.

WHEN you know that your friend's new suite is a "Buoyant" you also know that it is a Good Suite—you immediately couple "BUOYANT" with Quality.

The fame of "BUOYANT" is not an accident—it is the result of a definite effort to produce the soundest suites under conditions and by methods which will permit of tip-top quality at reasonable prices.

Thus you get such merits as Genuine Horsehair Stuffing which is absolutely mothproof and a system of Springing which has never been surpassed, and altogether you get a job which must give you lasting satisfaction.

The PRICES OF "BUOYANT" SUITES START AT £21 10s. 0d. and we shall always be glad to have you see them in our showrooms.

The Objects of the Bazaar.

The Objects of our Bazaar may be summed up in two words—Parochial Purposes.

The Parochial Church Council has been faced with a difficult position. Like all lovers of Deane Church, it is distressed to see the Church in such a melancholy condition inside. Few buildings stand more in need of decoration internally, and there are structural repairs needing attention before that work can wisely be put in hand. The making of a great appeal to these ends was considered; but it was obvious that this must be deferred until even more pressing matters had been righted.

These matters relate to certain funds of the parish upon which there is a deficit. Owing to the claims upon their funds, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners were unable to grant the final sum we hoped for towards the Vicarage. Somewhere about £120 remains therefore to be raised to clear the deficit finally.

Then, driven by circumstances, the Council recently acquired the Sexton's house. The work of Renovation cost £350, and, owing to legal difficulties it has been impossible to raise a mortgage on the building, although every possibility has been explored.

Again, the existing Parochial Hall simply cannot pay its way, despite the splendid efforts of the Recreation section and the economy of the Management Committee. There is an overdraft upon the funds which must be liquidated, and wisdom says that there should be a sum in hand to meet utterly necessary repairs and unexpected contingencies.

Finally, there is the crying need, more urgent every month, of a new and adequate building for parochial purposes. The Fund for that needs helping.

Our Bazaar has all these objects in mind. We want to clear off the debts, get a sum of £50 in hand for the present Hall, and give as good a sum as we can, when the other things are done, towards the new Hall.

It is a big programme in distressful times. Three things will do it—good-will, hard work, generous spirits. We believe these all exist at Deane, so we come with confidence to all our friends, asking them to help to relieve our immediate necessities, and free our hands so that we may turn to the Church itself.
